TO THE VOTERS OF BOONE COUNTY

I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the people of Boone County for the help and cooperation given me in my race for re-election as County Attorney. Your courtesy and good will which has been shown me from all over the county has made the campaign more pleasant.

I am sorry that I did not get to see all of the people of the county before the election as I wish it would have been possible for me to have done so. However, I hope to have your support and cooperation just the same and likewise may I assure you of my continued and renewed help.

Boone County has a splendid record in law enforcement and clean government and I hope to continue in working with the other officials in maintaining and promoting this record, as Boone County citizens can justly be proud.

I have acted as County Attorney the past two years, having filled the unexpired term of the late Charles W. Riley and I feel that this experience further qualifies me for re-election for a full term. I have also spent several years working with farm organizations in Boone County and this work has caused me to know many more of the problems and conditions of our county.

I have spent my entire life in Boone County being educated at Hebron High School and Chase Law School, Cincinnati, Ohio and having worked as AAA secretary previous to being elected as County Attorney two years ago. I am a member of the Hebron Lutheran Church and Hebron Lodge F. & A. M., a director of the Hebron Building & Loan Association and secretary and insurance agent for the Boone County Farm Bureau.

I have tried to conduct a fair and honest campaign and I believe that my opponent Mr. McEvoy has done likewise and in conclusion may I ask that you will give me your consideration and if possible your support and vote.

JOHN E. CRIGLER
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

A total of 50 carloads of rock phosphate for pasture development was brought into Grayson county this spring, exceeding last year's amount by approximately 125 per-cent.

VOTE
SAT., AUGUST 6th
DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

It has been a pleasure to meet and visit with the people of Boone County, but I have been unable to see many of you for which I am genuinely sorry.

Whether I have seen you personally or not, I take this means of again earnestly soliciting your support and assure you that anything done in my behalf will be greatly appreciated.

REMEMBER:

Democracy begins at home. It is the duty, as well as the privilege of every person to go to the polls and vote for their choice for the various officials who will conduct their local government for the next 4 years.

If your neighbor does not have a means of transportation to the election, wouldn't it be fine to take them with you?

Merchants Throuout Nation Plans To Exhibit Merchandise

Nearly 100 manufacturers and merchants from Kentucky and throughout the nation are making preparations to display hundreds of thousands of dollars in merchandise at the Kentucky State Fair September 11-17.

State Fair Manager George E. Lambert said today that most of the exhibitors who have shown at the State Fair previously would be back and that a number of new exhibitors had made space reservations for the 46th annual exposition.

The display centers are to be in the general vicinity of the newly rebuilt grandstand with 30 of the booths to be under the grandstand itself. Others are to be under canopies, brightly colored and brilliantly lighted and decorated.

In addition to these displays, floats and displays in the opening day parade will be parked in the infield in front of the grandstand during the entire fair. Parade participants will construct their displays of durable material which will withstand weather for the week. In order to assure safety for exhibitors, the State Fair will provide guards to prevent [illegible] of any exhibits.

While much of the merchandise display will be taken by farm equipment manufacturers and distributors, many items for home and industrial use will be among the displays.

Among the novel exhibits will be a miniature farm, complete with diverse electric appliances and built to scale. This project was more than a year in construction and shows the various ways in which farmers may use electricity to their economic advantage.

Another new exhibit will be a trade school which specializes in training watch and clock makers and repairmen. The radio industry of Kentucky also will be well represented with demonstrations of actual broadcasts by using direct lines and recordings. Studios will be provided for these demonstrations. Elaborate arrangements also are being made to facilitate news coverage of the events at the fair. The news is to be furnished reporters from a main news center which will have the results of events judged shortly after the event is completed.

McEVOY ELECTED COUNTY ATTORNEY

Five Indictments Returned By Boone County Grand Jury

In Session One Day; Case Of Robt. Ford Set For Tuesday.

Five indictments were returned by the Boone County grand jury after being in session the first day of the regular term of Boone Circuit Court, according to A. D. Yelton, Circuit Court Clerk.

Those indicted are as follows: Charles B. Spaulding of Campbell County was indicted on a charge of seduction and was placed under $7,500.00 bond. Leroy McQueen and William E. Ratcliff were indicted on a charge of assault with an offensive weapon with intent to rob. Glenn Williams indicted on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without consent of owner. Robert Ford, charged with carnally knowing a female child under 12 years of age, and Everett Boles indicted on a charge of shooting and wounding with intent to kill.

Robert Ford is scheduled to be arraigned in Judge Ward Yager's Court Tuesday of next week on the above mentioned charge. He was arrest by Highway Patrolmen Miller and Gordon after a warrant had been signed by the child's mother charging rape of a nine-year-old girl.

He is charged with the rape of Grace Jane Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Robinson, tenant on the farm of Howard Briegel U. S. Highway 42 near the Ohio Valley Beagle Club where the crime was committed, according to the child.

Ford pleaded not guilty to the charge when arrested by officers. If found guilty he faces death or life imprisonment.

Other trials set for Tuesday are Boles and Williams, Clerk Yelton reported.

A brief session of the August term is expected due to a light docket. Court convened Monday morning and recessed until Wednesday with the grand jury being dismissed following inspection of county property and reporting all buildings in good condition.

Dedication Of New Walton Church Planned Sunday

Dr. John H. Booth, of Indianapolis, Ind., Will Bring Message.

Dr. John H. Booth of Indianapolis, Indiana, former Executive Secretary of the National Board of Church Extension of the Disciples of Christ, will be the speaker at each of the three services at the dedicatory exercises of the Walton Christian Church next Sunday, August 14th. Dr. Booth is a Christian statesman and a speaker of unusual ability. He will be an inspiration to all who hear him.

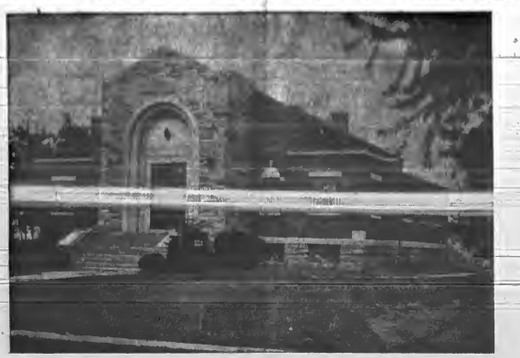
11:00 a. m. "Building the House of God."

The morning service will be followed by a congregational dinner at the church to which all friends are invited.

2:30 p. m. "Now Carry It Through."

At this service the church will be dedicated with appropriate dedicatory ritual by pastor and congregation.



7:30 p. m. "What Is Your Philosophy of Life?"

At all of the services the music will be under the direction of James Spencer, the organist and choir director, who is an accomplished musician.

This new $60,000 edifice replaces the one destroyed by fire on Thanksgiving Day 1947 is a beautiful structure in which all Boone County should take pride. Located back from Dixie Highway on one of the choicest lots in the entire community, the churchly design at once attracts the most favorable attention of all passers by. And the interior is no less beautiful than the exterior with its impressive stone front. The basement is fitted for assembly meetings, for class rooms in religious education, and for entertainment and recreational purposes. The cantuary with its symbolic windows that shed a light of cheery solemnity make a special appeal. The chancel about which the worship centers fulfills its mission because of its simple, dignified and symetrical arrangement. Back of the elevated communion table is the baptistry, impressive symbols of the two ordinances of the church. The lectern with its large open Bible exalts the place of God's Word. The pulpit on the side emphasizes the distinctive place of preaching in a virile and developing religion. The organ, the gift of Lynn and William Percival, and choir are so placed as to blend into a unified worship service.

This imposing and serviceable building has been made possible through the courageous faith, the sacrificial giving, and the untiring labors of many people. The building committee under the chairmanship of Charles W. Ransler, chairman, is to be congratulated for evidences of faithful stewardship.

Thirteen Votes Separate Candidates In Final Returns

C. D. Benson Win Clerk's Post, While Deputy Sheriff Easton Tallies Easy Victory; Pi Presser Named Jailer and White and Carr Magistrates.

William P. McEvoy, of Florence, Democratic candidate was over emerged with 13 votes majority over John E. Crigler in the race for County Attorney of Boone County after returns from the seventeen precincts had been tabulated.

Mr. McEvoy won by a count of 1,645 to 1,632 over Mr. Crigler, the incumbent, who defeated Mr. McEvoy two years ago by a marjority of 125 votes to fill the unexpired term caused by the death of Chas. W. Riley..

During the counting of the ballots it was evident candidate was ever sure of victory with neither having a large majority at any time. At one time near the closing of the tabulation only two votes separated the two candidates total.

Wendell Easton took an early lead in the race for Sheriff over his two opponents William Sullivan and M. C. "Conner" Carroll and his majority climbed as the votes were tabulated. With all precincts counted, Easton had 1,899, M. C. Carroll had 1,011 and William Sullivan had 437.

C. D. "Dewey" Benson received a total of 2435 votes, the largest number to be received by him during his five campaigns for the office. His opponent Ivan Clements, of Union received a total of 870.

Three county officials, Judge C. Cropper, Wilton Stephens, Tax Commissioner and Edgar S. Graves Magistrate from the first district were unopposed for renomination.

The total vote in Boone County was officially reported at 3,414, an unusually heavy ballot.

Interest apparently was high in the various races as one of the largest crowds to visit Burlington in many years gathered to hear final election returns. Parking space in the town was at a premium and at several times during the evening traffic was jammed on the main thoroughfare.

Officers in charge of tabulating the ballots completed their labor a short time before midnight, it was reported.

Picnic Planned By Constance Church

Constance Christian Church will hold its annual Sunday School picnic on August 21 at Hossman's woods across from lake. Basket dinner, games, refreshments, swings, horse shoes and ball games will be enjoyed. Transportation will be furnished for those without cars.

Everyone is urged to come and enjoy the day. For information see Rich Kottmyer.

Hebron Moves Into Second Place In League Standing.

Several good games are on tap in the Boone County Saturday Afternoon League next Saturday. Feature attractions will probably be Big Bone at Hebron, Constance at Union, and Belleview at Sand Run. These six teams, and of course the league leading Petersbug team, all have aspirations of cutting in on "the money."

In other league contests Florence will play at Burlington and Pleasant Haven will journey to Petersburg.

Upsets Last Week

Burlington pulled the top upset of last week's play when they slammed out a 14 to 4 win over Big Bone. This defeat of Big Bone coupled with a win by Petersburg over Constance moved Hebron—who trimmed Sand Run—into second place in the league standings.

Florence won their first league contest Saturday with a 7-2 victory over Pleasant Haven at the winner's park. Allan Utz, on the hill for the Florence nine, allowed only three hits as his teammates pounded out ten off the pitching of Gullion. Braunwart formed the other half of the winning battery with manager Cliff Rouse catching for the losers.

Gulley Whole Show

Ivan Gulley was just about the whole show as Burlington hung defeat on Big Bone Saturday. He allowed the hard hitting Big Bone team only six hits and had a perfect four for four day at bat. The Burlington team had a total of 14 bingles off Black and Stephens. McBee added three more hits to the winner's cause. Carroll led the losers offensive with a double and single.

Hebron Over Sand Run

Hebron moved into second place with their 11-3 win over Sand Run. Gillette and J. Hogan formed the winning battery with Judy and J. Smith pitching and catching for the losers. Hebron had ten hits and Sand Run nine.

In the other league contest the up-and-coming Union nine won over Belleview at the Verona park. The details of this game were not available.

Burlington lost their second straight game in elimination of the Northern Kentucky Semipro League Sunday when they fell before the strong Charlie's Cafe nine by an 8-0 score. The pennant-winning Charlie's team touched Akin and Vallandingham for 14 hits while Burlington could get but five off the pitching of Rusche.

Boone County's other two representatives of the league didn't fare any better in the second round of play as E. & W. Truck fell before Rock Bar 10-6 and Pleasant Haven lost 7-1 to Bruns Jugs.

Other results were State Realty 6, Sandfordtown 0; Silver Grove 10, Visalia 1 and Newport 7, Hilltoppers 4.

Howard-Gullion

Miss Shirley Ann Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Howard of Florence and Mr. Clarence Shaw Gullion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gullion, of Union, were married July 30th at the Richwood Presbyterian Church, with Rev. Donald Hopkins, pastor, officiating.

The candlelight ceremony was performed in front of the altar, which was enhanced with trailing ivy and white summer flowers. Lighted tapers in candelabra were placed on each end of the altar.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Mary Knox sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Ransom at the organ. The bridal party approached the altar as the strains of the Lohengrin Bridal March sounded through the sanctuary.

Mrs. Faye Afterkirk Clementa was matron-of-honor and Misses Jeane Judge and Edie Lou Hall, bridesmaids.

Mr. George Howard, brother of the bride, was the best man, and Messrs. Lindy Sebree and John Gullion, brother of the groom, ushers.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white slipper satin, styled with a high neckline, encircled with a lace bertha, long sleeves that tapered at the wrist. The long, full skirt terminated in a long train. The bride's veil was fingertip and was edged with lace which fell from a tiara of crystal beads. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Burlington R. 2

Edward Tullis is assistant secretary of the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the entire Church; Rev. W. S. Mitchell is pastor of Epworth Church Covington, and Rev. C. C. Silver Anniversary Observed By Southers

The beautiful old stone residence of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Souther, of Bullittsville was once featured by Caroline Williams in the Sunday Enquirer. It was the setting Sunday for the celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the Southers.

The Bullittsville Homemakers Club, friends ,and relatives brought food until the tables set under the trees sagged under their weight.

Brother Patton of the Bullittsburg Baptist Church offered grace and Brother Young of the Bullittsville Christian Church presented the Southers with a gift of silver teaspoons on behalf of the Homemakers Club.

About sixty-five people were present throughout the day.

The Southers' oldest daughter and son-in-law from Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson were present. They brought their parents a beautifully decorated two-tiered wedding cake.

Everyone had an enjoyable day and wished the Southers many more anniversaries.

Harry Acree Visits Former Haunts On Ashby

Harry Acree, who lives with his son, J. C. Acree, at East Bend was reminiscing on Ashby Fork Sunday. He spent most of the time looking over the old place where he found and married his wife, Elizabeth Nichols. That was some fifty-eight years ago. He told of how, when he came to court his wife, how they sat in front of the fireplace and crunched apples, popcorn, etc.

Tears filled his eyes as he said he wanted, once more, to see the old place that holds so many precious memories for him. He is now 82 years of age, but doesn' look, nor act nearly all of that. He pointed out a certain tree telling that as he would pass it, he would see her standing in the door waiting for him. He said oftimes he would walk from Middle Creek on Sunday.

How he smiled as he told of how he chewed a plug of tobacco before he could get the words to come from his lips when he asked her father for his wife's hand.

The old house is about the same as then, minus the old fireplace. He is truly an interesting gentleman.

Mrs. Mattie Shinkle took pictures of him at the old house which meant so much to him, and as he looks at them he can day dream of happenings long ago.

Hamilton

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sewell.

Mrs. Fanny Miller returned home Wednesday from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clem Readnour, Harvey Readnour and lady friend are spending their vacation also at the home of his parents.

Bro. and Mrs. Harry L. Wainscott and sister Miss Alma Wainscott were supper guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Edwards on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Lewis on Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huff on Thursday and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marsh on Friday.

Bro. and Mrs. Harry L. Wainscott and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Huff were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sebree, Sunday.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The ladies of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Bullittsville Christian Church were the very pleasant guests at the home of Mrs. Nellie M. Markland of Francesville, Thursday, August 4th.

A well arranged program was rendered, business plans for future work, reading, informal talks, recreation and at noon a luncheon was served.

Those present were Mesdames Eunie Marshall, C. V. Anderson, Myron Garnett, Albert Willis, Ray Hill, Huey Aylor, Chas. Riley, Mary Uts and daughter, Howard Acra and daughter, S. B. Nunnelley and A. C. Young, the hostess, son and grandson.

Now, more than ever, the efforts and work of these noble groups are needed in this troubled world of ours and may the work grow for the mutual Christian good at home and abroad.

Mrs. Katie Akdon and son, Mr and Mrs. Chester Akdon and baby called on Mrs. Anna Smith and sons Sunday afternoon.

how limestone helps keep your farm productive

When you apply limestone to your farm land you accomplish several important things at one and the same time.

1. You replace the calcium and magnesium (lime) that have been lost through cropping, erosion, and leaching.
2. The acid condition of your soil, that has developed as the result of the loss of lime, is corrected—that is, the soil is "sweetened."
3. The activity of favorable bacteria is stimulated; the decay of organic matter, such as manure, straw, roots, and stubble, is hastened; and the nitrogen-forming processes are promoted.
4. Other plant foods, especially phosphorus, are kept in more available form.
5. Soil structure is improved; heavy clays and silts are made looser and easier to till.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BOONE COUNTY

It is impossible for me to express in words just how I feel toward you, after what you did in casting your ballot in the August primary.

You did better than expected by giving me the best vote that I ever have received.

I want each and every one to know that I am very grateful to every citizen of Boone County for your support in re-electing me as your Clerk for another four-year term.

I also want to congratulate my opponent for the clean and friendly campaign made by him.

I also want to thank Alberta O. Green, my deputy for her faithful service during my campaign.

C. D. BENSON

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to the voters of Union, Florence and Burlington precincts for the splendid support given me in my campaign for Magistrate of this district, and wish to say that I carry no ill feeling toward those who supported my opponent.

It has been my policy in the past years as Magistrate to represent the district as a whole, to the best of my ability, and promise that this practice will be carried out during the next four years.

Your splendid support is an indication of your trust in my ability to fill this office, and I will serve you to the best of my ability at all times.

NEW WEALTH BROUGHT TO FARMERS THROUGH KENTUCKY 31 FESCUE

The new-famous grass discovery of a Kentucky mountain farmer has brought new wealth to those struggling to make a living in the poor grazing areas of the state.

Kentucky 31 fescue, the "wonder" grass discovered by the late William M. Sutter, has proved itself capable of carrying a cow to the acre on cheap land which hardly provided a living before.

This is the report given in the August issue of Country Gentleman by Howard Bloomfield, a well-known writer who was assigned to take a second look at the famous grass experiment and check its accomplishments of two years against its original claims.

Bloomfield found that fescue 31 thrives on poor soil, does well in droughs and stays green all year. Describing a trip he made into eastern Clark County with William C. Templeton, Jr., associate state agronomist, Bloomfield said he saw millions of pounds of beef and gallons of milk coming off cheap land. It was not unusual, Bloomfield reported, to see a farm of 200 green acres of fescue, entirely surrounded by a completely brown landscape.

The practical side has also brightened. Kentucky 31 fescue seed can now be had from most Kentucky seed dealers for from 35 to 75 cents a pound, depending on quality. The 1948 seed crop in the state was between two and a half and three million pounds, according to B. W. Fortenberry, manager of the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association at Lexington. In 1947—just two years ago—Kentucky 31 seed was so scarce it sold for up to $3.00 a pound, and the year before there just wasn't any.

Open-pollinated corn is out of date in Elliott county, where about 95 percent of the farmers planted hybrid seed.

CARDINALS TO SPONSOR TRY-OUT CAMP AUG. 15-16 AT LEGION FIELD, LEXINGTON

Lexington, Ky.—Activity at the St. Louis Cardinal baseball try-out camp here August 15 and 16 will be varied, according to reports from the front office of the pennant-contending Red Birds.

When workouts get under way at 11 o'clock each morning of the camp at Legion Field, Cardinal scouts Jerry Katherman, George Koby, and W. H. "Buddy" Lewis will be on hand to put those boys in attendance through drills in fielding and throwing, and to watch them as they participate in games between teams made up of boys at the camp.

Any players in this vicinity between 17 and 23 years of ago who would like the opportunity to participate in the camp drills are invited to turn out. They are reminded to bring their own baseball shoes and gloves, and uniforms if they have them, for the Cardinals do not supply that type equipment for their trial camps. Any players who sign contracts will be reimbursed in full for all expenses incident to attending the camp.

All three men are veterans at the game, having had considerable experience at both the playing and scouting ends of the National pastime. They are all, by virtue of this experience, fully qualified to pass valuable playing tips on to those players who will be at the camp. They will pay attention not only to the way a boy fields or throws, or how far he hits the ball, but also to the way he runs, swings his bat, or judges a fly ball.

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!

There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. TO THE CITIZENS OF BOONE COUNTY

I wish to take this opportunity to extend my deep appreciation and thanks to the many people throughout the County who in any way contributed to my success in the primary just held.

I feel very humble in accepting the trust placed in my hands and if God bestows upon me the blessing of good health in the coming four years I sincerely promise to faithfully perform the duties of my office.

I further wish to state at this time that I deeply appreciate the clean and honest manner in which my opponent, Mr. John Crigler, conducted his campaign.

Verona, Belleview And Bob and Gene Winners Sunday

Results of the opening round of the KAG baseball league elimination series last Sunday showed the following results

Verona 11, Schoenling 6.
Belleview 3, Queen City 2.
Aetna 11, Gallatin 1.
Bob and Gene 16, Constance 4.

The champion Rudepohl team had its hands full in winning from Falmouth by a 2-1 count. Menkedick pitched for the winners with Florence serving them up for Falmouth.

One of the best contests of the first round was Belleview's 3-2 win over Queen City. Bob Dennistón, Belleview catcher, and Don Lenhoff their lanky pitcher, teamed up for the victory. C. Benson had five hits, including the winning bingle in the tenth inning. Lenhoff allowed eight scattered hits and fanned 13 of the losers.

Verona made it known that they are going to be tough in the series by trimming the strong Schoenling team 11-6. Steffen tossed the winner for Verona and though he gave up 13 hits they were well scattered. He fanned eight. Groechen pitched for the losing Schoenling team. Bauman led the attack for the winners with three hits out of four times at bat.

Bob and Gene Win

Bob and Gene had little trouble in pounding out a 16 to 4 victory over Constance. Reibling and Rosen pitcher for the winners with Urlage and Peeno pitching for Constance. Bob & Gene collected 21 hits in the game. Mahan, Conners and Kilmer were the big guns in the Bob & Gene attack.

Grants Lick had little trouble in downing Walton 7-0. Allen Nagel, Grants Lick star pitcher, held the losers to two hits, while his teammates got ten off Ryan.

132-ACRE FARM SOLD

Maro W. Green sold his farm of 132 acres 5 miles south of Burlington on the East Bend Road, known as the J. D. Acra farm, to George M. Ragland of Covington, last Saturday. This is one of the good farms on East Bend Road. Possession will be given within 60 days.

The sale included the tobacco, corn and hay crops. Negotiations were handled through the A. B. Renaker Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horton entertained her sister, Mrs. Sally Anderson and Andy Anderson several days the past week.

Boone Co. Outlaw League Play Three Games Saturday

Twin Bill Split By Hebron and Bullittsburg; Victory Chalked Up By Burlington

Action was resumed in the Outlaw League Saturday as Hebron and Bullittsburg split a double-header and Burlington chalked up a victory.

The Hebron Cardinals and the Bullittsburg All-Stars tangled in a twin bill at the Petersburg ball park. In the opener big Milly Pepper was on the hill for the Cards and turned in a 4-hit performance. Pepper was in rare form as he whiffed 9 opposing hitters. Charley Pepper, Hebron skipper, sent Dempsey Hodges behind the bat to complete one of the largest batteries in the County. Rev. Henry Holladay served them up for the losing All-Stars, allowing but 5 hits and striking out three. Perry was the catcher for the Stars. The final score was Hebron 4, Bullittsburg 2.

In the second tilt it took the All-Stars 11 innings to win a 7-4 triumph. Two Baptist ministers formed the winning battery as Bill Holladay pitched and Lionel Patton was the receiver. Holladay turned in the best effort of the day as he gave up 6 hits and struck out 12. Ernie and Dempsey Hodges gave up 7 safe blows.

In the top of the eleventh with two away Bill Holladay slugged out a homer with two on to win the game and place the All-Stars in first place.

The Burlington Left-Overs slugged out a 13-5 win over Lee Craddock's Bullittsville Tigers. The Tigers were short 4 regular players for this contest.

Bob Brown, the fourth Baptist preacher in the loop, was on the hill for the winners. Brown gave up 7 hits and whiffed 9. Old Hazel Walton and Pelley divided mound duties for the Tigers allowing a total of 16 safeties. Young Gayle Rouse was in the cage for the victors and Pelley and Scudder received for the Tigers. Jones, McNeely, Phil Yelton, Rouse and Cropper each had 3 hits. Scudder collected three for the losers.

The Outlaw League plays every Saturday. You are invited to attend the games.

Big Bone Takes Over Second Place In League Standing

By Virtue of 3-2 Victory Over Hebron; Burlington And Sand Run Win.

With only two more regularly scheduled games left to play in the Boone County Saturday Afternoon League, the "battle" is really on for second, third and fourth spots. The three teams most likely to fill these three places in the final standings are Big Bone, Hebron and Constance.

Big Bone by virtue of a three to two win over Hebron at the loser's lot Saturday moved from fourth to second place. They passed third place Constance who lost to Union by a 9-6 count.

Burlington and Sand Run moved up a notch as they won over Florence and Belleview. Burlington trimmed Florence 8 to 6 and Sand Run took a close 2-1 decision from Belleview. Union held on to fifth place with their win over Constance and Petersburg making its league lead more secure with an easy 7-2 victory over Pleasant Haven.

Next Week

The three contests next week which will have most bearing on the league standings will be Hebron vs. Constance, Union at Big Bone and Sand Run at Burlington. The other two games will see Pleasant Haven at Belleview and league-leading Petersburg visiting the last place Florence nine.

Game Protested

Manager Myron Garnett of Hebron has registered an official protest with league officials relative to his team's 3-2 loss to Big Bone. (There will be a meeting of league officials and managers Thursday evening, August 18, at 8:00 o'clock, at the courthouse in Burlington to consider this protest according to Robert Eads, league president. All league officials and team managers are requested to be present. Mr. Eads said.)

Afterkirk and Overberg formed the winning battery for Big Bone and Gillette pitched for Hebron with Garnett and Hogan catching. Hogan and Gillette led the Hebron attack with Williamson and Carroll pacing the winners.

Triple Play

A triple play by Petersburg featured their win over Pleasant Haven Saturday at Petersburg. With men on second and third, a Pleasant Haven batter hit back to Deck. Deck tossed to the plate and Carver, Petersburg catcher, tagged one runner. He in turn pitched the ball to Deck who threw to Reibling at second where the second man was erased and Reibling returned the ball to Carver at the plate. Carver then pegged to Bradburn at third when the remaining runner changed his mind and started back to third base. Bradburn tagged him for the final out in the triple killing.

Reibling led the Petersburg hitting with a triple and home run. Tony Dempsey had four for four to lead the Pleasant Haven attack. Batteries were H. and D. Deck pitching and L. Deck and Carver catching for Petersburg and for the losers it was Gullion pitching and Rouse catching.

Sand Run 2, Belleview 1

Sand Run won two to one over Belleview in a close and well-played game. Campbell pitched for the winners and gave up only five hits. Utz twirled for Belleview and was touched for 13 safeties.

Big Inning Wins

A seven-run rally in the eighth inning netted Union a 9-6 win over Constance at the Verona park. The big blow of the inning was a home run by Alexander with two men aboard. Bud Robinson and Bauman with seven hits between them also added to Union's 16-hit attack.

Burlington Wins

Burlington came from behind with a late inning rally to net an 8-6 win over Florence. The locals scored all 8 tallies in the seventh. Smith and Gulley pitched for Burlington with A. Utz on the hill for the losers.

$35,000 Expended Monthly To Fight Polio In State

The Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is spending March of Dimes funds at an average of $35,000 a month in combatting polio in this State, H. St. G. T. Carmichael, Kyrock, vice-chairman of the Kentucky Chapter announced this week. This compares with the "fourteen to fifteen thousand per month" usually spent in the Fall and Winter months, he said.

Carmichael said the Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation is underwriting all of the cost for 212 cases so far this year in Kentucky.

"What we are trying to do here," he added, "is part of a nationwide struggle against infantile paralysis which is unprecedented in the history of the disease in the United States. Never before have we had two such bad polio years in a row.

He said national headquarters of the Foundation reported this summer's polio case rate and March of Dimes expenditures for polio were far ahead of last summer's near-record totals for this time of the year.

"The situation is certainly a serious one," he said. "But I have been assured by the National Foundation that it will take whatever steps may be required to insure that no sufferer from infantile paralysis go without proper medical care for lack of funds."

While headquarters of the National Foundation is responsible for research and education and for providing emergency financial aid to chapters whose funds have been depleted by epidemic demands, he said ,it is the Kentucky Chapter's job to provide polio patients with whatever financial assistance is needed and to cooperate with hospital and public health authorities in assuring the availability of qualified medical personnel and up-to-date equipment.

"Here in Kentucky we have not yet been forced to call upon national headquarters for additional funds, but because outbreaks this year are so widespread we may have to at any time."

Carmichael said the Kentucky March of Dimes had helped prepare the State for the polio outbreaks this summer by sharing with the communities in the cost of improving physical therapy facilities at five treatment centers in the state, and by providing other special equipment items. The treatment centers are at Louisville, Lexington, Paducah, Owensboro, and Covington.

SHOWER GIVEN MARY MARGARET FOWLER FRIDAY

Mrs. George H. Riley entertained on Friday evening of last week with a personal shower in honor of Miss Mary Margaret Fowler, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Alvin McGlasson.

The house was beautifully decorated with gladiolas and zenias. The dining room table was especially attractive with an umbrella of pastel colors from which extended streamers at the end of which was a personal toast from each guest to the bride-to-be. The evening was well planned with games and music. As the guests arrived the gifts were hidden in various parts of the house accompanied by alarm clocks set to ring at different intervals. All this kept Miss Fowler wondering and busy, but the gifts were lovely and well worth the effort of searching for them.

Verona Only Boone Team To Win Second Round Game Sunday

Bob and Gene Lose 9-3; Constance Falls Before Grants Lick Nine.

Verona was the only Boone County team to win in the second round of the KAG elimination series last Sunday. The Verona team won their second contest by trouncing Belleview 10-1 at the losers park. Verona collected 12 hits off the usually effective Don Lenhoff of Belleview while the losers could get but five bingles from the offerings of Elmo Steffen.

Bob and Gene Lose

Bob and Gene lost a 9-3 contest to Schoenling at Florence. Reibling and Mignerey pitched for the losers with Groeschen tossing the winner. Graham and Gunther were the big guns for Schoenling as both hit four baggers with men on.

Constance Falls

Constance fell before the strong Grants Lick nine by an 8-0 count. Other scores were Rudepohl 9, Gallatin County 0 (forfeit), and Queen City 5, Falmouth 4.

Boone Countain Marches In Large Shrine Parade In Chicago July 17-21

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kirtley, Union, Ky., attended the National Shriner's Convention in Chicago, Ill., July 17-21. Mr. Kirtley is a member of the Color Guard Patrol, Syrian Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio. In the parades past the reviewing stands, he carried the Canadian flag.

Approximately 70,000 fez wearing Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, from the 10 Shrine Temples in North America, celebrated the Shrine's 75th Diamond Jubilee in Chicago. The first big event was the parade on July 20 down Michigan Ave. This was a three-mile march before approximately 500,000 people and it terminated at Soldier Field. Each Temple passed before Imperial Potentate Galloway Calhoun, Tyler, Texas, who was in the reviewing stands. Syrian Temple was the ninth temple to pass the stands. After hours of continuous parade the temples were stopped for the presentation of President Harry S. Truman, who is most illustrious noble of Ararat Temple, Kansas City, Mo. The presentation of the American flag, which was very impressive, was followed by an address by President Truman.

On Wednesday morning, Harold Lloyd, silent picture star, was chosen Imperial Potentate for 1950. He celebrated this honor with a reception for all Nobles and their wives at Medinah Temple. On Wednesday evening at 7:45 p. m. 15,000 nobles again started their three-mile march down Michigan Avenue to Soldier Field. This time Imperial Potentate Harold Lloyd was in the reviewing stand at Soldier Field. At 2:00 a. m. the parade was stopped, even though 14 temples had not passed the reviewing stand. Approximately 700,000 people viewed this parade and more than 100,000 tickets for seats in Soldier Field were sold for $1 each. This money is to be used in the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospitals. It was said that this parade was one of the most colorful in history.

Their next performance will be at Crosley Field August 15 at 7:00 p. m.

ANOTHER GOOD YEAR FOR FARMERS, SAYS REPORT OF COLLEGE

Farmers are having another good year, although it is not as favorable as several of the recent becoming years of rising prices, says the July 15 report on the Kentucky farm situation, made by the Department of Markets and Rural Finance of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

"Farmers are in a strong financial position," it is declared. "Eight years of large production and rising prices enabled farmers to pay off debts and to build financial reserves to weather adversity.

"Another good season is also at hand. Latest reports indicate that growing conditions are good-to-excellent in the heavy agricultural producing sections of the nation.

"This outlook is a mixed blessing. Large crops will press heavily on markets in the period of shrinking demand from deflation in months ahead. On the other hand, abundant crops provide ample food for man and beast and they are also grown and harvested at a lower cost per bushel or pound.

"In the final accounting, cash farm income and net income will probably be smaller in 1949 than a year ago, but when compared with prewar years they will likely compare favorably in amount and in purchasing power."

Ford TRACTOR

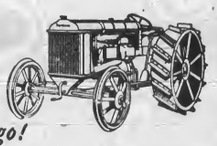
Any tractor is a big investment. You have every right to expect years of profitable performance from such an investment. In this connection one of the first things to think about is—"Will I always be able to get parts?"

The Ford Motor Company manufactures the Ford Tractor. What greater assurance could you have of being able to get parts—anytime, anywhere.

Not only is this important to you as long as you have the tractor, but it is also something the buyer thinks about seriously when you go to sell or trade in your used Ford Tractor. This is only one of the many reasons why a used Ford Tractor commands a high resale price.

THE SIGN FOR SERVICE

that can't be beat!



We are pretty proud of this service sign. We do our best to live up to those seven letters S-E-R-V-I-C-E.

We spend time and money training our mechanics. But we feel this is worthwhile to us because it's worthwhile to our customers.

We try to keep an adequate stock of genuine parts on hand at all times . . . and to stock up on parts ahead of the busy seasons so we have what you need in emergencies.

We cordially invite you to look over our service setup.

KEYS RETURNED TO LOCAL MAN THROUGH DAV TAG

The Disabled American Veterans has returned a set of lost keys to Alan Sullivan, Burlington, Kentucky.

Attached to the keys was a DAV Idento-Tag, miniature license tag for key rings, which is distributed to 30,000,000 motorists each year and the replies of their state license plates enables the DAV to return 1,000 keys a month from its national headquarters in Cincinnati.

In addition to key-loss insurance, the Idento-Tag through contributions enables the DAV to maintain its free rehabilitation service for disabled veterans and their dependents.

Last year the DAV obtained more than $10,000,000 in benefits for disabled veterans and their families. The organization has the largest staff of national service officers of any veterans organization.

Keys are returned to owners from all over the world. One of the most unusual key losses and returns was a Cincinnati grainery employee lose his set in a sack of oats. The keys were found when the sack was opened aboard a freighter in the English Channel enroute to Poland and they made their way back via the DAV.

Tags even brought back keys from the war zones.

For the motorists who wish extra Idento Tags for extra sets of keys, the DAV has established a special order department, which handles more than 100,000 requests each year.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Here is a way to use some of that generous supply of fresh or canned blackberries. Although especially enjoyable at this season, you'll find this recipe is liked at any time, says Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Blackberry Mousse: ½ cup sugar, 1 cup blackberry pulp, ½ tablespoon gelatin, one-fourth cup cold water, one-fourth cup lemon juice, 1 cup whipping cream, 2 egg whites, pinch of salt.

Combine the sugar and crushed fruit, heat and stir until the sugar is dissolved. Soak the gelatin in cold water, then add hot berry and sugar mixture. Add lemon juice. Cool until it begins to set. Beat until light and fluffy. Fold in the whipped cream and beaten egg whites to which salt has been added. Pour into tray of mechanical refrigerator or freeze for three hours in a mold packed in three parts of ice to one of salt. Makes eight servings.

Final Games In Saturday League Set August 27th

Burlington Takes 4-2 Game From Strong Sand Run Nine Saturday.

The final regular season games of the Boone County Saturday afternoon League will be played next Saturday, August 27. The following contests are slated:

Petersburg at Belleview.
Sand Run at Union.
Big Bone at Pleasant Haven.
Burlington at Hebron.

Results of last week's play saw Burlington's rejuvinated nine trim Sand Run by a 4-2 score at the winner's park. The win for Burlington moved them ahead of the Sand Run nine in league standings and into a fifth place tie with Union.

For the winners Gulley and Gulley formed the battery. For Sand Run Campbell and Judy pitched and Smith caught. Burlington had eight hits with Woods and Mumm getting two each and Sand Run had seven hits with Judy collecting four of them, one a home run.

Protest Allowed

According to league officials it was announced this week that the protest of the Hebron-Big Bone game of Saturday, August 20, by Hebron was allowed and that instead of Big Bone winning by a 3-2 score, the contest would be replayed. The change of this game in the league standings plus Hebron's even split in a double bill with Constance Saturday and Big Bone's win over Union makes these two teams deadlocked for second spot with 10-5 records.

Hebron lost 6-1 in the opener of the double bill but came back to take the second 4-0. The winning pitcher for Constance was Egnt. B. Hogan was the loser for Hebron. Gillette of Hebron allowed only 4 hits in the final to win the shutout. Bloebaum was touched for 11 hits in losing.

Petersburg Wins

Petersburg kept their winning ways with a 12-8 victory over Florence. D. Deck and Carver were the winning battery with A. Utz and Braunwart the losing battery. Home runs by Mahan and D. Deck featured the offensive of the game.

Big Bone was winner over Union Saturday and thus remained in a tie for second place. They won in a free hitting contest by a 10-7 count. The winners, paced by manager Dale Williamson who had four for four including a homer, had 17 hits off Ryan and Vest. Union got 13 hits off starter C. Black and Afterkirk.

No Game

The Belleview and Pleasant Haven game scheduled at Belleview was called no contest when neither team could field nine players.

League Meeting

There will be a meeting of league officials and managers Monday evening, Aug. 29, at the courthouse in Burlington. This meeting is for the purpose of making drawings for elimination play.

Air Show Expected To Attract Large Crowd Aug. 27-28

No Charge To Be Made For Parking, According To Sponsors of Show.

Advance ticket sales for the Air Show at the Greater Cincinnati Airport, scheduled for August 27-28, indicate that more people will see the events this year than last, when an estimated 60,000 persons were present.

Tickets have been distributed by Robert M. Isenberg, manager of the Air Show, members of the Fraternal Order of Police and the Kenton County Airport Board sponsors of the show. Plans have been made to accommodate the largest crowd to attend any event in this part of the state. No charge for parking and no delay at the gates will be encountered by those who have obtained tickets in advance, it was announced.

A charge of $1.00 per person will be made and children under 12 years of age will be admitted free when accompanied by parents

Numerous special gates and parking grounds have been prepared for those purchasing tickets in advance, and will speed up the parking problem. Numerous state highway patrolmen have been assigned to duty at the airport for the show, and will assist in directing traffic.

Those arriving early will have plenty to see—captured V-1's and V-3s, Japanese kamikaze rocket planes, guided misses and most of the planes that will participate in the show. The four and one-half hour program gets under way at 2 p. m. each day.

A championship team of the National Air Shows will be featured in comedy and acrobatic flying. The local show will rank with the best in the country, including the famous Cleveland Air Show, the sponsors declared.

Vice President Alben W. Barkley is expected to attend the performances as the guest of honor Saturday, while Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenburg, Chief of Staff of the Air Force is scheduled to be here Sunday.

Bonar-Arnold

The Florence Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Nancy Bonar and Walter Arnold, which was performed by the Rev. C. L. Leopard on Friday evening, August 12, at 7:30 o'clock.

Verne Arnold, brother of the groom, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Always" accompanied by Carolyn Rouse at the piano.

The maid of honor, Fay Arnold, sister of the groom, wore a summer crepe of aqua and white. Her only flowers were a half halo of pink rosebuds which she wore in her hair. The bride wore a white crepe dress fashioned with a tiny Peter Pan collar, self covered buttons down the front, a net yoke, and a bustle effect in the back. She carried a white Bible with white streamers and wore a half halo of white roses in her hair.

James Bonor, brother of the bride served as best man and Roy Youell and Hub Kirkpatrick served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. A. N. Bonar chose a printed summer crepe with a carnation corsage at her shoulder. Mrs. Arnold also wore a printed crepe with carnations.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lowe and son Donald, Mrs. Harry Morgan, Mrs. Mary Ayearst and son, Rich, all of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Fowler-McGlasson

On Saturday evening, August 20, 1940, the Bullittsville Christian Church was the scene of a beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony when an overflow gathering of relatives and friends witnessed the uniting of Miss Mary Margaret Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Fowler, of Hebron, Ky., to Mr. Alvin O. McGlasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McGlasson, Jr., of Constance, Ky., in the bonds of holy wedlock.

Following a fifteen-minute opening period of appropriate music beautifully rendered with Mrs. Omer Dolwick at the organ, the soloist, Miss Jean Ryle, sang the traditional "Because." Being in fine voice, she charmed her listeners and then responded with "Thine Alone," following which the ushers seated the mother of the bride and the parents of the groom. The bride's mother had chosen an outfit of navy blue with accessories to match and the groom's mother was attired in a becoming gown of aqua. Both wore corsages of pink and white rosebuds.

The soloist's last number, "Oh Promise Me" brought the moment, as she ceased singing, for the attendants of the groom, Mr. George Beacom and Mr. Weston Rogers to appear and take their places at the chancel. Then, in graceful sequence, the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Earle McGlasson and Mrs. George Beacom (nee Georgia Lee Easton) and the maid of honor, Miss Ruth Elaine Courter, of Sidney, Mich., came down the aisle and assumed their places. All being brunettes and charmingly arrayed in gowns of pink-hued puckered taffeta, they presented an appealing scene which was augmented by their bouquets of pink rosebuds and white asters. The groom and his best man, Mr. Melvin Ray McGlasson, next took their places to be followed by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. C. Young, who was accompanied by Rev. J. E. Stomberger of the Hebron Lutheran Church.

Thus the scene was set for the entrance of the bride and as the organ pealed the wedding march in vibrant tones, she advanced slowly down the aisle on the right arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She presented a lovely picture in her wedding dress of bridal blush satin and flowing net veil supplemented by a gorgeous bouquet of rosebuds with a central orchid.

The groom, best man, attendants and the two ushers, Mr. Rodney McGlasson and Mr. Galen McGlasson were attired in conventional gray with white aster boutonnieres.

The marriage vows were pronounced and the responses received by the Bullittsville pastor, Rev. A. C. Young, use being made of the double ring ceremony. The ceremony closed with Rev. Stomberger invoking the divine blessing upon the pathway of the happy young couple.

Immediately following the benediction, the large assembly proceeded to the home of the bride's parents in Hebron where the house and spacious, well-lighted lawn were utilized in giving a reception for the newlyweds. The opening of presents and inspection of the many beautiful gifts was accompanied with much gaiety, all of which was followed by a buffet lunch, and seating capacity on the lawn was provided for practically all of the three hundred and fifty or more guests who were there.

The evening closed with offering hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. McGlasson, and in the closing moments the bride changed to her going away outfit of becoming brown wool with hat to match and the couple were last seen departing by auto for parts unknown.

Both Mary Margaret and Alvin are graduates of Hebron High School. She attended Transylvania College while he went to the Kentucky Eastern State Teachers College at Richmond, from whence he graduated last spring with a Bachelor of Science Degree. Having accepted a position as a member of the faculty of the same institution, the newly married couple, upon their return, will be at home in their newly furnished apartment in Richmond, Ky.

Robert Ford Given 30-Year Sentence On Assault Charge

Everett Boles Draws Six-Year Sentence on Shooting Charge.

Robert Ford, 62, charged with criminally assaulting a nine-year-old Boone County girl, was sentenced to 30 years in LaGrange Reformatory last Thursday, following his conviction by a jury in Judge Ward Yager's court. The jury required only 30 minutes' deliberation to bring in a verdict of guilty.

Ford's trial started Tuesday and was concluded at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday, with R. L. Vincent, commonwealth attorney, conducting the prosecution.

The attack took place July 19 in a clubhouse of the Ohio Valley Beagle Club, according to witnesses. Ford was arrested by State Highway patrolmen in an Erlanger barber shop, the following day.

Parents of the child signed the warrant for Ford's arrest after two doctors had examined the victim and stated that she had been criminally attacked.

Ford offered to buy the girl and her sister ice cream if they would purchase beer for him at a tourist inn where he had been doing odd jobs for several weeks. He had told the girls to meet him at the clubhouse, according to testimony offered in the case.

The nine-year-old girl was assaulted after she had purchased the beer and ice cream.

Ford remains in Burlington jail following the trial, due to his desire to take the case to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. He was refused a new trial by Judge Yager.

Everett Boles, was sentenced to six years in LaGrange after being arraigned in Judge Ward Yager's Court on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. He was sentenced Wednesday by Judge Yager.

Boles was accused of shooting Bradley Griffin June 10th, near Mudlick Creek, Boone County, Griffin was shot twice with a .22 caliber rifle.

Bob and Gene And Verona Nines Win In Sunday Games

Constance Remains In Running By Defeating Falmouth 6-1.

Bob and Gene and Verona baseball nines of the Kentucky Athletic Goods League gave notice Sunday that they may make it an all-Boone County affair in elimination championship scrap. The Bob and Gene outfit slugged out a 19-hit 13-0 win over Walton and eliminated that team from further play. Verona shellacked Queen City by a 15-4 count.

Of course, Hudepohl, pennant winners in the league play, and the strong Grants Lick team may have quite a bit to say as to the final winner. The Huddles won their third straight victory as they trimmed Schoenling eight to four and Grants Lick took Aetna Oils 7-2.

Constance stayed in the running with a 6-1 upset victory over Falmouth and thus eliminated the Pendleton County team.

Bob and Gene, power-ladened outfit of such performers as Sebree, Conners, Zaranka, Schmidt, Fucci, Arnzen, Mahan, etc., had little trouble in winning from Walton. Besides their heavy hitting Relling and Mignerey pitched two-hit ball against Walton. Ryan went the distance for the losers.

Verona had 20 hits in their onslaught on Queen City. Ryan and Mumm tossed the winner. Ryan gave only two hits in seven innings and Mumm gave none in two. Robinson, Ryan, Bauman, Alexander, Hayes and Williamson all clouted extra base blows for the winners.

Northern Ky. Semipro League

The E. & W. Trucks, only Boone County team left in the running in the Northern Kentucky Semipro Baseball League, lost to Silver Grove last Sunday by a five to one score. Schuitz and Pund pitched for the losers and were touched for ten hits. Bunning hurled the winner and allowed only four bingles.

Other League scores were Sandfordtown 7, Newport 1; Bruns Jugs 8, Visalia 3 and Charlie's 10, Hilltoppers 3.

Youth Is Cleared Of Armed Robbery And Attack Charge

After Blood Hound Is Used By Officers; "Not The Man," Says Victims

Charles Hetzel, 19, of Constance, accused of armed robbery and attempted criminal attack in the vicinity of the Boone County Airport, was released Monday afternoon when victims denied that he was the man who had held them up.

The youth was brought to Burlington by Sheriff R. I. Rouse early Sunday after a bloodhound tracked a scent across three miles of farm fields to his home.

The blood hound was used by Sheriff Rouse after a young couple, parked on Youell Road near the airport, reported to him the robbery of $11 and an attempted attack on a 15-year-old girl at 1:30 a. m. Sunday. The victims told Sheriff Rouse that the man was masked.

When arraigned in Judge Cropper's Court Monday, Hetzel pleaded not guilty. Witnesses placed on the witness stand said that Hetzel was not the man, declaring that the bandit who had held them up at pistol-point was much older and taller. Other victims of hold-up men in the area also denied that Hetzel was not the robber.

Faces Second Count

Immediately following Hetzel's release on the robbery-attempted attack charge, he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Wendell Easton on a warrant signed by E. H. Burnette, manager of Dobbs House, Greater Cincinnati Airport, charging grand larceny.

County officers found several containers in the home of Hetzel which are used by the airlines in packing both hot and cold foods. Hetzel stated that Burnette gave him the containers.

He was released under $500.00 bond pending an examining trial set for September 10th in Judge C. L. Cropper's court.

Ohio Man Draws Fine On Speeding Charge

Virgil Short, of Cincinnati, was fined $19.50 in Judge C. L. Cropper's court Tuesday afternoon, when arraigned on a speeding charge.

Fair Council Expresses Thanks

The 4-H and Utopia Fair Council wishes to express its appreciation to all exhibitors, commercial displayers, concessionaires, donors, advertisers, patrons and workers who helped make the 1950 4-H and Utopia Fair the greatest in its 17 years existence. The continued wholehearted interest of the friends in Boone and neighboring counties will make the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair one of the finest anywhere.

R. R. Snowball, who furnished rides for the fair, has this to say about the people of Boone County in his recent letter to the Council. "I have to say for myself and all of the people associated with me that we have never worked at any fair and found the people so genial, social, and friendly as we found at your fair. I mean that, and all of our people are still talking about the attitude shown toward the fair, by the people, which we don't find anywhere else."

Good returns from a 20-acre pasture of Ky. 31 fescue and Green Acres white clover are reported by Lusclan Isbell of Fulton county. He pastured 20 cows without additional feed from Feb. 1 to April 10. Rising Sun Lions Club Sponsor Motorboat Races Encouraged by the success of their 1948 revival of the famed Rising Sun motorboat races in which the late J. W. Whitlock, former custom furniture maker and sportsman, won national recognition in 1934 by racing the Hoosier Boy from Cincinnati Louisville and back at a mile a minute clip, the Rising Sun Lions Club is sponsoring another inboard and outboard racing program on the Ohio river at Rising Sun on Labor Day.

Twelve races, all sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association whose officials will handle the uprofram, are scheduled to begin promptly at 11 a. m., (EST). Scores of topnotch pilots in the Middlewest and East already have entered their boats. No entry fee is charged and cash prizes and trophies totaling more than $1,000 will be awarded to the winners of each race, to be conducted on the heat plan. All but one race will be five mile events over, a fast measured one and two-thirds mile course. The exception is the Free for All of 10 miles.

Dean W. Whitlock of Rising Sun, son of the famed J. W., is chairman of the racing program. "Cam" Fischer of Cincinnati, is to be chief starter; W. R. Ballinger, Cincinnati, referee; Dr. Robert F. Herman, Cincinnati, chief scorer, and Ray Kettenacker, Cincinnati, inspector. Reserve units of the U. S. Navy and Coast Guard also will cooperate, Mr. Whitlock said.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!

There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.

Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.

Remember this,—there are no application fees, no appraisal fees, and no renewal commissions. So, protect your business, your future, and your family. Finance the farm you buy, or refinance debt you now have through your locally-owned, farmer-control national farm loan association with a long-term, 4 percent Federal Land Bank loan.

For your convenience I will be at the Old Recorder Building in Burlington each Friday at 10 to 12 a. m.; and at other times at my office in the Wiggington Building in Williamstown.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Here is a recipe for a light, cooling dessert, which can be prepared long in advance of the meal. It is a favorite with homemakers, says Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Lemon Chiffon Pudding: 1 tablespoon gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, 1 cup milk, 3 eggs, two-thirds cup sugar, ⅛ teaspoon salt, ½ cup lemon juice, ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 cup vanilla wafer crumbs.

Soak the gelatin in cold water for about five minutes. Scald the milk in a double boiler. Beat egg yolks and gradually add sugar and salt. Add hot milk to egg mixture and return to double boiler. Stir and cook until slightly thickened. Remove from heat, add lemon juice and rind and gelatin. Stir until gelation is dissolved. Pour into a bowl and chill. Fold in beaten egg white. Pour into a pan in which half the wafer crumbs have been spread, and top with the remaining ones. Place in refrigerator to stiffen. Top with whipped cream if desired. Serves 6 to 8.

Menu: Meat loaf, buttered spinach, corn on the cob, tomato and cucumber salad, rolls, butter and lemon chiffon pudding.

LETS 3 PEACHES THAT PEEKED WELL

Peaches are one of the most successfully frozen fruits if the variety is well chosen and care is taken in preparation, according to Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in food preservation at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

J. H. Hale, Halehaven, South Haven, Elberta and Bells of Georgia are varieties which freeze well. The fruit should be ripe for eating, mellow but firm. Slightly green peaches become bitter when frozen and discolor more than well ripened fruit.

Loosen the skins by dipping the peaches first in boiling water, then in cold. To keep them from darkening, slice at once into a solution of one-fourth teaspoon of citric acid in a quart of water. Drain and pack in jars, covering the fruit with a syrup made of three cups of sugar to four cups of water. A half inch headspace should be left in the jar. To keep the fruit under the syrup, place crumpled waxed paper on the fruit, then screw lid in place. Although cellophane containers are convenient for freezing, glass jars are preferred.

When frozen peaches are served, the container should be left unopened at room temperature for two or three hours until just before serving. This will avoid discoloration of the fruit.

Copies of Circular 398, "Storing Foods in Freezer Lockers" may be had from offices of county farm or home agents, or from the college, Lexington.

MORE CORN GROWN FOR LESS ACREAGE

Scores of farmers in Meade county are using only one-third the corn acreage of five years ago, yet will produce as many bushels of corn, relates Farm Agent R. P. Granacher. Henry Sipes, of Woodland, for example, used to feel that a yield of 40 to 45 bushels to the acre was a good crop. Then last year he entered one acre in the corn derby. Through fertilization, use of manure and good land management, he produced more than 100 bushels on that acre. This spring he reduced his planting to 10 acres, and by following the same good methods, he hopes to equal the 1948 yield per acre.

Surgical Shoes

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

HISTORY—Mrs. G. E. M. suffered headaches and neckaches. Her neck ached so intensely at the base of the skull she could hardly see. Days at a time she could not get out of bed because of the severity of the pains. She read one of our ads., telling of the good work we were doing, and decided to see what we could do for her. After a very short time wearing surgical shoes, pain in the head and neck lessened till finally it disappeared entirely and she is well and happy. It is now possible for her to do her own work even when it is necessary for her to climb a stepladder. Surgical shoes seemingly worked miracles for her.

COMMENT — Strain on ligaments and tendons naturally has a weakening effect upon muscles. Continued neglect of these conditions may be the cause of your aches and pain in the neck and back and if you have been unable to get relief, come in and let us see what we can do for you.

If your ankles are weak and you are constantly rolling them, surgical shoes are defenitely the answer to your problem.—Adv.

Local Boy Aboard Carrier Valley Forge

William A. Odom, seaman, USN, of Burlington, Ky., R. 1, is attached to the aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge which has just been awarded the Battle Efficiency Pennant and "E" for her general excellence throughout the fiscal year July 1, 1948 to July 30, 1949.

The award is a competitive one, based on overall battle efficiency. Each department of the ship is graded to determine the vessel's final mark in the competition.

The pennant is a red triangle with a black circle in the center and is therefore termed a "meatball." In addition to the "meatball" each enlisted man having served on board the Valley Forge for at least six months of the competition year is entitled to wear an "E" on the sleeve of his uniform and receives a cash award as well. This is an old peacetime practice in the Navy revived two years ago to incorporate into training the lessons learned by war and the "meatmail" has once again become a coveted Naval trophy.

The Valley Forge is presently operating out of San Diego, Calif.

Several old friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Lucy Martin, 621 Willow St., Elsmere for a basket dinner. Among those present were five generations of the Hammond family.

After a wonderful dinner of country ham and fried chicken and other things too numerous to mention, they spent the afternoon and evening reminiscing about the good old days.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Hammond and granddaughter, Judy Hammond; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown and son Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Soward and son Trent and Mrs Fanny Graven of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Works, Mrs. D. L. Lewis and son Donald, of Boone County; Mrs. Boss Clifton, Mrs. Maggie Turner and the hostess, Mrs. Lucy Martin, of Elsmere.

SOIL TESTS MADE BY EXPERIMENT STATION

On soil samples properly taken and marked, the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington will make chemical tests for (1) degree of soil acidity, (2) content of available phosphorus, and (3) content of available potassium. These tests indicate whether the soil needs lime, and phosphate and potash fertilizers.

No test will be made for available nitrogen, because the content of nitrogen in the soil changes rapidly. How much nitrogen a soil will furnish to a crop can be fairly well judged from recent manurings and croppings.

Because of the large amounts of fertilizers or manure usually applied to gardens and the relatively low cost of manuring and fertilizing these small areas, testing garden soil generally is of little value.

In some counties a laboratory is maintained under the supervision of the county agent for making soil tests. Farmers living in such counties should have their soil tested in the local laboratory. In other counties, farmers should see their county agent about information which should accompany the samples sent to the Lexington laboratories.

FARMERS COOPERATE IN FIRE INSURANCE

Eighteen farmers' cooperative fire insurance companies in Kentucky had a membership of 39,477 property owners in 1946, says a new bulletin of the Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Kentucky, called "Farmers' Cooperative Fire Insurance Companies in Kentucky."

That year farmers paid $624,913 in assessments and received $268,345 for losses. Throughout their history these 18 companies had received a total of $12,026,000 in assessments and returned to members $7,306,0000.

"Many cooperative associations have been organized by farmers in Kentucky, but few have given such continued service and saving and received little public attention as fire insurance companies," says the bulletin.

In 1945, Kentucky farmers had about 600 million dollars invested in farm buildings, machinery and livestock, in addition to investment in household furnishings and contents of farm buildings other than machinery or livestock.

"In most farmers' management plans it is, therefore, an important item to see that their investments in insurable property are adequately and inexpensively protected from loss by fire, wind and lightning," it is noted.

COLLEGE AND FARMING IN 4-H BOY'S PLANS

Going to college and owning a farm are long-time objectives of 15-year-old Buford Cobb of Henry county. For the past five years, he has had tobacco projects in 4-H club work, this year growing three-fourths of an acre. He also has a three-year-old milking Shorthorn cow, a heifer and calf. From his half-acre garden, his mother has canned and frozen around 75 quarts of green beans and 60 pints of peas. Good crops of potatoes and tomatoes will also be harvested. In a district contest, he won $39 for his demonstration of uses of water in irrigation.

Young Cobb attended the tractor maintenance school in New Castle. As a result, he uses his father's tractor on his tobacco and garden projects. He also clipped 25 acres of pasture and plowed corn.

An active club member, he served as vice president of Eminence 4-H Club, president of the Henry County High School Club, and vice president of the county-wide club.

Large Crowds Attend Air Show August 27-28th

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg Views Exhibition Both Days.

Large crowds attended the air show at Greater Cincinnati Airport Boone County, August 27 and 28th despite mud and water that covered most of the viewing area.

The air show was made of Army, Navy and Marine Aircraft consisting of B-29's, Vaught Corsairs, Thunderbolts, a Piper P-2 and comedy flying was done by Bob McComb.

Probably the most interesting event of the day was the delayed parachute jump of Ray Huber, who dropped 7,000 feet before pulling the ripcord at 2,000.

B-29's swept the field to open the show followed by the "Blue Angels" exhibition team in a series of jet acrobatic flying. Clem Honkamp and Ray Miller enacted the difficult fleur-de-lis and assisted in the American Flag Parachute Jump. The Tennessee Air National Guard Exhibition Combat Flying team, of 13 Thunderbolts, flew acrobatic and combat formation, while Thirty Vaught Corsairs and Gruman Hellcats, and the 'Florida Rockets" added much to the success of the show.

The show sponsored by the FOP was declared a success, even though weather conditions hampered the movement of traffic. More than 100 policemen from surrounding cities were on duty to speed the flow of traffic, assisted by 32 Kentucky state troopers.

The second game will be played at Burlington September 10th at 6 p. m., and should a third game be necessary, a drawing will be held later.

Officials from the Queen City Association will officiate at these games.

This series is expected to be very interesting, as Burlington lost one of their two games to Hebron in regular season play.

Concentrated Effort Will Be Made To Establish State Park

In Fifth District At Meeting Scheduled Friday, Sept. 2.

Civic and public service organizations in nine northern Kentucky counties will move this week in a concentrated effort to establish another Kentucky state park in the Fifth District.

Scores of organization leaders and public officials are to attend a meeting at 8 p. m., Friday, September 2, in the Covington Kenton County Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of forming "The Fifth District State Park Association."

Henry Ward, Kentucky state commissioner of conservation, will visit northern Kentucky September 8, to look over possible park sites and to confer with representatives of the proposed association.

Commissioner Ward has informed the Fifth District park advocates that a consolidated front must be presented if the district is to be considered for a second state park. The only existing state park in the nine county district is Butler Memorial State Park at Carrollton.

Some preliminary work toward obtaining the park has been done by The Fifth District Federation of Kentucky Sportsmen, the district's state senator, Paul J. Stapleton, Sylvester Wagner and Alvin Kidwell, and Speaker of the House Herbert Tinsley.

John G. Cox, executive director of the Covington-Kenton County Chamber, and Lenora Bacon, secretary of the Campbell County Chamber are issuing invitations to their organizations affiliates to attend the September 2, meeting.

Similar invitations are being sent to civic and service organizations in Boone, Grant, Gallatin, Carroll, Trimble, Pendleton and Oldham counties. Local, city, county and state officials and officials-elect are urged to present their views at the organization meeting. John E. Murphy president of the Federation will act as temporary chairman of the meeting.

He apparently is enjoying the best of health. While here he was a pleasant caller at The Recorder office, recalling many happenings in the town and County during his early life.

McEvoy Declared Winner In Recount Of Boone Ballots

Margin of Victory Is Reduced To Eight Votes After Retabulation.

After complete retabulation of ballots cast in the August 6th Democratic primary in Boone County, William P. McEvoy was declared the winner with a majority of eight votes, having lost five votes in the recount.

The recount, under the supervision of Ward Yager, Boone Circuit Judge, was started at 9:00 a. m. Saturday morning and was completed late Saturday afternoon.

The recount was asked by John E. Crigler, present County Attorney, who was defeated by 13 votes for renomination to the post by William P. McEvoy. This was said to be the first recount in recent history of Boone County.

Ballots were tabulated in the grand jury room of the courthouse, with Rodney King, Covington attorney representing Mr. Crigler and Mr. McEvoy representing himself.

Judge Yager designated Mr. McEvoy the Democratic nominee for County Attorney following the county. Nomination on the Democratic ticket in Boone County is equivalent to election, as no Republicans entered the race.

Bob & Gene Upset Hudepohl Nine By Count of 5-0 Sunday

Belleview To Meet Constance Friday Night At Covington.

The Bob and Gene baseball team of the Kentucky Athletic Goods League pulled the major upset of local semipro baseball this season when they trimmed the strong Hudepohl nine last Sunday by a 5-0 count at Ross. Behind the five-hit twirling of Ray Mignerey the cafemen played flawless ball to hang up the win. Ab Sebree and Cabbage Kilmer led the winner's attack with three hits each. Kinney was the starter and loser for the Hudepohl team.

Bob and Gene will play the Bavarian Beers at Covington ball park Wednesday night, August 31, in another league elimination game. Local fans wanting to see some high class semipro ball playing—with plenty of local stars performing—should see this game.

On Friday night Belleview and Constance will play at the Covington park at 8:00 p. m. Lenhoff or Sam Shively, former Southern Association pitcher will be on the hill for Belleview. This should be an outstanding game as both teams are making a determined effort to stay in the league elimination race.

Burlington and Petersburg of the Boone County League will play an exhibition game at Petersburg Labor Day.

The Cost of Medical Care

The main argument used by proponents of compulsory government health insurance is that many millions of Americans can't afford adequate medical care.

That argument falls flat on its face in the light of the facts. According to the Brookings Institution, which makes authoritative surveys on various problems, medical care costs the average American family about 4 per cent of that income!

Furthermore, the compulsory insurance scheme would cause a very heavy increase in the tax burden. No one knows how much it would cost. Government officials have estimated the annual bill at $4,000,000,000—and estimates such as this are almost always low. Other analysts place the cost at $6,000,000,000 and more. At best, the medical bill of the American people would be doubled, and it might be tripled. And the fact that we would pay for it through payroll and other levies, instead of by writing out a check to the doctor, wouldn't make it any less burdensome.

Contrast this with the non-profit medical care plans, which now cover some 30,000,000 people and which are growing at a health rate. An average plan over the nation, giving surgical, medical and hospital protection, costs $3.50 a month for an individual and $6.50 for a family—less than most of us spend for such non-essentials as cigarettes. And these voluntary plans don't put politics into the practice of medicine.

It is true that there are indigent people who can't afford to pay anything for medical attention. Here where government can help—and it can do it without starting us on the downhill road that leads to socialized medicine. One way would be for the government to pay for these people's memberships in approved, non-profit plans. The advocates of compulsion haven't a leg to stand on.

Cut From The Same Cloth

One of the most eartening signs of sanity in this country has been the rapidly growing opposition to the proposed Columbia Valley Administration. It has come from newspapers, magazines, Governors, members of Congress, agricultural and industrial groups, civic organizations, and hundreds of other sources. It has not been confined to the region which would be directly affected by CVA. It has, instead, come from all over the nation—because there is at last a widespread realization that CVA, like TVA, is only one step in a planned program for establishing a series of super-governments which would be beyond local control, and which could not be effectively controlled even by Congress.

Those who are fighting the CVA idea are not primarily concerned with the face of the power industry in this country. That is important, if a free enterprise system is to endure, but it is but one phase of a many-faceted matter. The real issue is whether representative government is to survive the onslaughts against it. Of late, a number of inclusive histories and surveys of what TVA has done have been written. Praise has been given to TVA's material achievements. However, practically all of the writers have said that the people in the TVA region have nothing to say about the authority's policies and practices, that they have no way of correcting injustices if they occur, and that local government is similarly powerless.

CVA is cut from the same cloth, despite minor differences in detail. In some directions it would go farther still—it would be even freer than TVA from Congressional control over its finances. It is a prime example of the totalitarian philosophy.

Who Gets The Benefits?

In 1948 one of the biggest automobile manufacturers made profits of 9.4c per $1.00 of sales. This profit—less than 10%—is the incentive that keeps this business at work. Let's look at the people it benefited.

First were the employes, who collected $1,343,000,000 in wages and salaries.

The next group that benefited was Federal, state and local governments that took $464,000,000 in taxes.

Finally the owners—434,000 of them—received $211,000,000.

This is the way the cash benefits from this company were shared: Owners, $1.00; Government Tax Collectors, $2.18; Employes, $6.37.

The customers bought better automobiles than they could buy forty years ago, and they paid only a little more than half as much for them.

Profit keeps this company going. The employes receive the largest share of the benefit. Government takes the next largest share. The stockholders who put up the money to build this corporation and who run the risk of loss, receive the smallest share of all.

4-H'ERS TO SHOW 1,857 FAT CALVES

Members of 4-H clubs have entered 1,857 calves in the Louisville fat cattle show and sale, to be held Nov. 9-11 at the Bourbon Stock yards. Of this number 1,208 are Angus; 515 Herefords; 57, Shorthorns, and 77, mixed.

The calves probably will weigh between 850 and 1,150 pounds at the time of the show and sale, according to M. S. Garside of the 4-H club department of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

He said he expected better-than-average conditions, due to increased feeding of grain this season. Lower corn and other feed prices have encouraged better feeding, he said. Most of the 4-H calves will have received grain.

Pulaski county has entered the largest number of calves, 95 fed by 4-H'ers and 88 by members of Utopia Clubs, an organization of older farm youth. In Wayne county, 8 calves are being fed by 4-H'ers and 85 by Utopia club members.

Other counties where large numbers of 4-H calves are on feed include Green, 89; Casey, 87; Warren, 71; Clark, 60; Lincoln, 58; Grayson, 57; Clinton, 53; Meade, 50; Boyle, 47 Hardin, 46, and Garrard, 45.

DEVELOPS SUMMER PASTURE PROGRAM

Last spring, J. S. Bennett of the Wakefield community in Pulaski county had reason to be worried over his pasture program, agreed Farm Agent Irving B. Gabbard. Bennett runs a dairy and has 70 dairy cows and calves on his farm. His pastures needed to Ladino clover, alfalfa, alsike, brome, orchard grass and Ky. 31 fescue had been limed and terraced, but was not producing feed.

Then the soil was tested. Upon the recommendation of the county agent, Mr. Bennett used 200 pounds of potash and 200 pounds of phosphate. He also spread 10 tons of manure from his summer pasture. When 30 farmers gathered to note the results of this program, they saw an excellent pasture of grass and legume mixtures and another pasture gram that had been carrying the herd since the first of June.

Robert Sanger of Fulton county estimates that he will average 110 bushels of corn on 100 acres.

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manner to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter?

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself.) Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact, but what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

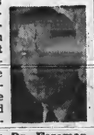
LESSON TEXT—Exodus 40:1-7; Ps. 92. DEVOTIONAL READING—Psalm 94:1-14, 19-23.

What Is Justice?



Lesson for September 4, 1949

EVERYBODY is in favor of justice but not everybody knows what justice is. Justice is more fundamental than democracy. If we believe that democracy is the best form of government, it is only because we believe that justice can be better secured in this way than in any other.

• • •

Justice is as old as God

Since for at least 3,000 years historians, politicians, philosophers and theologians have been wrangling over the meaning of justice, you won't learn the last word about it merely by studying one Sunday school lesson. But this is the place to remind ourselves that justice as an ideal, and democracy as a means of reaching that ideal, were not born yesterday.

Dr. Foreman

Labor Day will recall the great services rendered to democracy by the organized workers of the world, for example, in the push they have given to free and universal education. But democracy is older than the labor movement, is older than July 4, 1776, is older than the Magna Charta, is older than the Roman empire, in which one of many mottoes was "Let justice be done even if the sky caves in!"

Justice and democracy go back to the ancient Hebrews, the people who wrote the Old Testament. It was written in their laws, preached by their prophets, sung in their Psalms. But of course they did not invent it. They proclaimed it; but justice is older than the human race. The whole Bible and not only the Old Testament teaches that justice is rooted in the nature of God himself. No unjust person can be called godly.

• • •

Songs of Justice

OUR Psalms for this week give us some valuable light on what justice is. Some people think that if everybody were rich, that would be justice. Psalm 49 shows how foolish that notion is. It says in almost so many words, "You can't take it with you."

Riches do not spell happiness. Making everybody rich might mean making many people miserable. Money by itself does not cure the ills of life, it may make them worse or even create new ones. Many a family in the "upper brackets" has troubles that would vanish if they had less money.

Psalms 72 and 82 give us more positive suggestions. Psalm 72 sees it as the king's main duty to judge the people with righteousness and justice. The king was the government, in those days; he was the executive and the legislative and the judicial branch of government all rolled into one. In modern terms, the business of government is something more than furnishing police to lock up and punish wrongs after they have been done.

The welfare of the people is the concern of government. When public officials take any other view of their job, they are off the beam. In a democracy, the government is the people, that is to say, ourselves. If things are bad we are to blame for it; if they are going to be any better, we shall have to work for it. Every appeal to a king, in the Old Testament, when translated into terms of a democratic country, means an appeal to the people.

• • •

The Little People

JUSTICE always has to be concerned with the little people. It was true in the simple little world of the ancient Hebrews, it is just as true in our global complex world, that the strong will always exploit the weak if there is not a hand to stop them.

God is always for the "poor," the "children of the needy," and he is always against the "oppressor." In ancient Israel the oppressor was usually the big land-owner who treated his slaves with cruelty or underpaid his workers. Nowadays the oppressor is any exploiter, any man or group of men who will use power to squeeze out or crush down the little man.

But justice is positive, not negative, prevention and not cure only. Concern for social justice includes taking care of people laid low by an epidemic or made homeless by fires; but it goes far beyond this. It will mean working for conditions such that no one will be forced to live in unsanitary firetraps.

BERRIES HELP OUT IN TRIMBLE COUNTY

The strawberry crop brought $110,000 by 93 Trimble county farmers, despite the poor new patches due to last year's dry weather. Many growers indicated to Farm Agent J. G. Dye that use of phosphate brought up yields which averaged almost 100 crates an acre. Nineteen thousand crates were picked from 195 acres.

High producer per acre was Charley Ginn. From one acre of second-year Tennessee Beauties and a half-acre set last year, he picked 412 crates, netting him $6.85 per crate over cost of cups and crates.

Deep-Rooted Legumes Keep Soil "at Home," Curb Erosion Losses

CHICAGO — Thick growing legumes and grasses are good "plowmen" for protecting your lands from the soil-splitting attacks of erosion, according to the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

That's particularly true if your land has been overcropped with corn or other soil-depleting row crops. And the longer the legume-grass sod is kept in the rotation, the more topsoil is saved.

C. A. Van Doren, University of Illinois soil conservationist, reports that soil losses from corn averaged 14 tons a year in a 3-year rotation. He says that a 3-year rotation of corn, grain and 4 years of meadow would cut the loss to only 3 tons per acre. That means a saving of 11 tons of topsoil a year.

Well-fertilized legumes and grasses nail down the topsoil and keep it in place. They keep soil pores open. They add organic matter that improves drainage, tilth and soil structure. The topgrowth slows rain down to a walk. More water is held in the ground instead of washing away. Thus you save not only topsoil and moisture, but plant food and organic matter.

Good nutrition is essential in getting thick stands of legumes with strong root systems. Many soils need lime to grow good legume crops. A soil test will tell the land's need for lime. Remember, too, that legumes are heavy eaters of phosphate and potash. To give them a full dinner bucket, you need to add fertilizers carrying plenty of these nutrients.

Bigger Dairy Profits

Good hay and pasture are the key to cutting dairy production costs and boosting profits, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out. Pasture is the cheapest source of high-protein feed. Keeping pasture and hay fields at high production levels depends on liming where needed, the use of mixed fertilizer and returning manure and crop residues to the soil.

Organic Matter and Fertilizer Are Top Crop Building Team

CHICAGO—Organic matter gives farm soil the "get up and go" to produce bigger yields and higher quality crops, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out.

As organic matter rots, it releases elements needed for feeding crops. During the decomposition process, favorable conditions are produced for making available the plant nutrients contained in soil minerals, says a statement issued by the committee.

But organic matter alone cannot do the whole job of giving you big yields and high quality crops, the statement adds. It needs to be reinforced by commercial fertilizer.

Prof. Emil Truog, University of Wisconsin agronomist, recently declared: "To say—as does the organic school—that chemical fertilizer such as phosphate and potash should not be used—is pure bunkum. These fertilizers are needed to make up the inevitable lack of nutritive elements which organic matter alone cannot supply."

Prof. Truog says that in gardens and other small areas, you can maintain the fertility and organic matter supply by the use of composts and animal manures. But he emphasizes that such practices are not feasible for large farm acreages. It is impossible, he says, to prepare and apply the enormous amounts of compost that would be needed for the average farm.

On such big farm acreages, a good crop rotation will provide the needed organic matter. This can be supplied in the form of plowed-under deep-rooted legumes, crop residues, stubble, stalks and roots and barnyard manure. Prof. Truog says all that is necessary to make the system work is the proper use of lime and fertilizers containing phosphorus and potash and sometimes nitrogen. The key to the organic matter and nitrogen problem he adds, is high lime and mineral fertility. This assures a thick, luxuriant stand of superior deep-rooted legumes such as alfalfa and the clovers.

Gaydon Mitchell, Caldwell county 4-H'er had a net return of $80 on a spring litter of 10 pigs, sold at eight weeks old.

Buying A Farm Through FHA

Buying a farm is one of the most important decisions a lot of folks ever make, and since paying for a farm may be a lifetime proposition, it's well for a family to consider all the things that will affect their farm's value in the future as well as now. For example, a family wants to be sure the farm they get will give them a good living, pay its taxes, insurance, and upkeep costs; allow for savings for the sure-to-come rainy days; and pay off indebtedness within a reasonable length of time.

Under the Farm Ownership Plan of the Farmers Home Administration loans are made to tenants, sharecroppers, veterans, and others, to buy such sound-value farms. Farms are bought only on the basis of their long-term normal earning capacity, so they will pay out even if a period of lower prices occurs.

Normal earning capacity is determined by a qualified appraiser, the FHA County Supervisor, and the FHA County Committee. For these men it's a case of check and double-check—because they know local farming conditions and they analyse farms to determine whether they will be "worth the money" to the purchasers.

They go over each layout and study the farm's size, soil condition, past production, buildings and water supply. They get the current figures on taxes, crop yields per acre, cost of maintenance, repairs, and so on. They also consider nearness to roads, schools, churches and markets. These and other precautionary safeguards help assure them that the owner of today won't be the tenant of tomorrow.

The Government's "farm ownership program" is now in its twelfth year. Since 1937, about 60,000 farm families in this country have bought farms, or developed inadequate farms, through supervised credit from the Farmers Home Administration. Of that number, more than 13 are in Boone County, Kentucky.

Chairman of the Boone County Committee is William Hill, of Burlington, Ky. The other two members are Lamar H. Congleton and Bert Loomis.

Applications for such loans may be made at the FHA office, in the courthouse, in Williamstown; or at the Burlington office, in the courthouse, each Tuesday morning.

Applicants who applied several years ago and were unable to find farms should re-apply and bring their applications up to date if they wish further consideration by the County Committee.

HENRY HOMEMAKERS SEE IMPROVEMENTS

When 28 women of the Jericho Homemakers Club in Henry county visited the homes of nine of their members, they agreed that the improvements made under the leadership of Home Agent Bina Foree had been worthwhile.

They saw two bathrooms that had been installed during the past year, a completely remodeled kitchen, several rooms including three kitchens arranged to better advantage, several rooms papered and painted, pieces of furniture refinished and new slipcovers made.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Sunday, August 28, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Lillie Webster of Florence to help her celebrate her birthday with a surprise dinner.

Friends and relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Louden and Dale, and Miss Ginny Prosser, of Grant; Mr. and Mrs. George Louden, of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. James Louden and Don, Mrs. Alberta Stager and Anna Mae, Wendel Louden, Mr and Mrs. Paul Prosser and David Paul, all of Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Louden, Miss Shirley Mullaney and Tommy Lee and Junior Delmerling, all of Union.

At the noon hour a basket dinner was served and immediately following Mrs. Webster opened her many gifts.

Everyone left at a late hour wishing her many happy birthdays and hoping that they could be with her on this occasion again next year.

Between 300 and 400 acres of white clover will be harvested for seed in Caldwell county, most of it being the Pathos variety strain.

a chance to survive and sprout. (3) a few hours mowing each year will have a reclaiming job years later.

Boone County and Northern Kentucky has a fine tobacco crop this year. Farmers are now busy housing tobacco and the crop will be in the barn several days ahead of the average housing period. Of course we have had a good growing season this year, but there are other factors that produced this good tobacco crop. Farmers are using more fertilizer and are sowing more and better cover crops. The permanent tobacco patch is a common practice. The level land is used for cropping and the hills are left in grass. Good farmers will have their cover crops in by the fifteenth of September. Wheat and rye is preferred by many. Before the grass has rapidly for regular cover crop, but is ideal if the field is to be grazed this winter. Let's put all cultivated land in a cover crop this winter and by all means the tobacco patches.

Calloway county is putting on a drive to have all crop land in cover crops this winter. Surely Boone County and Northern Kentucky farmers can do the same much easier for we will have less plowed acres.

During the past month Extension Service, University of Kentucky has put on two work shops for northern Kentucky teachers. A part of the time was used in the study of conservation. This movement is expected to get everlasting results. No doubt the shortest way to get present and future citizens conservation-minded is through the primary and secondary school. A developed conservative mind, and we have the conservation problem in hand.

On September 21 and 22nd the agricultural agencies of the state are sponsoring many improvements on the State Hospital farm near Danville. By this date the tobacco rush will be over, so it would be a good time for Northern Kentucky farmers to take a day's vacation.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!
There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.
Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.
Remember this,—there are no application fees, no appraisal fees, and no renewal commissions. So, protect your business, your future, and your family. Finance the farm you buy, or refinance debt you now have through your locally-owned, farmer-control national farm loan association with a long-term, 4 percent Federal Land Bank loan.
For your convenience I will be at the Old Recorder Building in Burlington each Friday at 10 to 12 a. m.; and at other times at my office in the Wiggington Building in Williamstown.

Conservation Conversation

By J. C. Acree

A Few Observations

It is amazing to drive along the road and see the number of farmers who have mowed their pastures. Once upon a time a few neat farmers mowed their pastures simply because of the appearance, but these and others have found that it pays dividends in several ways. Let's list a few: (1) appearance well pays the bills; (2) by cutting old mature stems new succulent shoots appear; (3) these dry stems and leaves after being mowed forms a mulch over the surface, thus protecting young shoots from the sun; (4) when this material falls to the surface it returns to organic matter faster than when left standing; (5) many weeds and wild grasses are killed, giving our natural grass

Pistol Match Featured At Three-Day Sportsmen Fair, September 16, 17, 18

A district peace officer pistol match will be staged this year during the three-day Sportsmen Fair of the Fifth District Federation of Kentucky Sportsmen.

The free fair for the public will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 16, 17 and 18 at the Kenton Lakes Fishing Grounds, Kenton, Kentucky.

Trophies and medals for high-scoring teams, and for high-scoring individuals are being awarded for the Federation by the Bavarian Brewing Company, Covington.

The peace officer match will be conducted under the supervision of the Kenton County Revolver Club. Members of the committee include Covington Police Chief Al Schild, Lieutenant Ray Coehran, of the Park Hills Police Department, Park Hills Police Sergeant Beach McClung and John Murphy, president of the Federation.

Trophies will be awarded the winning four-man team, and silver medals will be given to members of the team. A trophy and silver medal will be awarded the highest scoring individual peace officer, and medals will be given for second and third place high individuals.

Peace officers of all law enforcement agencies in the fifth District are being invited to send teams, or individual contestants.

City, county, town police, constables, deputy sheriffs, conservation officers, state patrol members, P. B. I. and other law enforcement units have received application blanks.

The match will be staged from noon to 4 p. m. during the final day of the Sportsman Fair, Sunday, September 18, on the pistol range of the Kenton Lakes Fishing grounds.

Gangrish police targets will be used for the competition, and the officers will use their own service revolvers.

MICROSCOPE USED TO EXAMINE FEEDS

A man in a laboratory at the Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Kentucky, peers critically through a microscope at samples of all commercial feeds sold in Kentucky. It is his job to see that the feeds are what the tags on the bags say they are.

Kentucky was one of the first states to pass a law to protect stockmen against inferior commercial feeds. When that law was passed in 1906 farmers had no protection against such practices as grinding up almost anything to sell for stock feed—chaff, hulls, spoilt grains, weed seeds, etc.

Now every bag of feed sold in Kentucky must carry a tag listing the ingredients of the feed. And the man with a microscope in his little room in the Experiment Station building at Lexington determines whether or not the tag tells the truth.

With the microscope he can tell:

1. Whether the feed contains the guaranteed ingredients.

2. Whether the quality of the feed is equal to or below the guarantee.

3. Whether the feed contains other ingredients than those guaranteed.

4. Whether any of the guaranteed ingredients are present in such small amounts as to render them negligible as far as affecting the complete feed is concerned.

5. Whether low-grade materials, such as light oats, inferior grains and the like are used excessively.

Approximately 1,000 acres of Ky. 31 fescue seed were harvested in Clark county, yielding about 175,000 pounds of clean seed.

VOLUME 74 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1949 NUMBER 9

Fire Hall and Community Center To Be Dedicated Sat.

Judge C. L. Cropper Will Be Principal Speaker At Services.

On Saturday, September 10, 1949, the Florence Fire Hall and Community Center will be officially dedicated to public service, thereby, setting another milestone in history of John Uri Lloyd's "Stringtown-on-the-Pike."

This beautiful brick building is the result of the concerted efforts of the Florence Board of Trustees, the Florence Community Center, Inc., the Florence Volunteer Fire Department, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department, and of the good citizens of Florence who have made the building possible.

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department has a hall large enough to meet the needs of the community for many years to come. The department already ranks high among similar organizations in Kentucky and this new home is something it has needed and merited for a long time. The present low fire insurance rates are the result of the efficient work of the volunteer firemen.

The residents of Florence are to be commended upon their efforts to keep the fire loss in Florence very low. During the past years there have been few fires within the corporate limits of the city. There has been no loss of life or any serious injury due to fire.

The Community Center is large enough for gatherings of every nature. A kitchen makes possible the preparation of dinners when the occasion arises. It is hoped that this room will be used many times each month for community activities.

It is believed that this building will stimulate construction and remodeling. Already work has begun on a new Post Office building and Building & Loan Association office. There are reports of plans to give other buildings a "face-lifting." Florence is on its way to becoming a city.

The public is invited to inspect the building at 3 o'clock on Saturday. The dedication services will begin at 3:30. After the formal dedication a buffet dinner will be served by the enthusiastic ladies of the Auxiliary. Following the dinner there will be a lovely program of entertainment, and at 9 o'clock there will be dancing to music of Charles Popham's orchestra.

Florence is proud of its new building and invites everyone to be in town on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Complete program for dedication services follows:

3:00 P. M. Inspection of building.

3:30 P. M. Dedication service, Mr. Wm. P. McEvoy, master of ceremonies. Invocation, Rev. Edward Carlin. Flag raising, Boone Post No. 4 American Legion. Hue, Florence Volunteer Fire Department. Speakers, Chief Walter Salyers, Covington Fire Dept., W. L. Martin State Fire Marshall and W. M. Chittenden, Ky. Fire Prevention Bureau. Benediction, Rev. Sam Reid. Taps, Boone Post No. 4, American Legion.

6:00 P. M. Buffet dinner.

Memorial Library Dedication Services Set September 10

Is Gift To Petersburg From Heirs of William and Betsy Chapin.

The Chapin Memorial Library, Petersburg, Boone County's largest community library, will be formally dedicated on Saturday, September 10th, beginning at 4 o'clock. The 5,000-volume library, a gift to the community of Petersburg by the heirs of William and Betsy Chapin, is permanently housed in one section of a recently completed annex to the Petersburg Christian Church.

Mr. E. Y. Chapin of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Petersburg's most famous native son and donor of the library, will speak briefly as will his grandson, Mr. E. Y. Chapin III, manager of Rock City on Lookout Mountain at Chattanooga. There will be responses and acknowledgements by representatives of the Boone County Court and the Petersburg Town Council. Ministers of Petersburg churches also will share in the program. Following the dedication, Mr. Chapin and his party will remain in the library to greet all who attend and for a general inspection of the building and equipment.

Establishment of the library fulfills a long cherished ambition of Mr. Chapin, a grandson of William and Betsy Chapin in whose honor the gift was made. Mr. Chapin was born at Petersburg in the house now occupied by the family of Perry C. Carver and as a young man engaged in the grocery business there before going to Covington to study law in the office of the eminent John G. Carlyle. Upon the invitation of a friend to visit Chattanooga, he found that city so interesting and the business possibilities so inviting that he settled there and later joined with a Mr. Probasco in founding the American Trust and Banking Company, now the American National Bank and Trust Company.

Mr. Chapin's gift to the Petersburg community aggregating $10,000 includes the books, costing approximately $4,000 and purchased especially for the new library; furniture and equipment costing $700; a cash gift to the Petersburg Christian Church toward the building of $4,000, plus additional amounts to cover organization expenses.

William L. Brown, a Chattanooga businessman, has joined with Mr. Chapin in setting aside a piece of residential property in Chattanooga, income from which will serve as a permanent endowment for the library. The library has been receiving this income since the latter part of 1946. In recognition of Mr. Brown's generosity, the children and young people's books have been placed in a section to be known as the "William L. Brown alcove," which is designated with an engraved bronze tablet. A large bronze tablet at the entrance to the library reads: "Chapin Memorial Library: the gift of the descendants of William and Betsy Chapin to this community."

A special feature of the library will be a display of mementos honoring four of Boone County's "literary great. Memoralized will be the late Miss Julia Dinsmore, the late John Uri Lloyd and his mother ,the late Mrs. Sophia Webster Lloyd, and a contemporary writer, Mrs. H. C. Steward of Skyfield Farm, who has authored two novels "Let the Earth Speak" and "Take Nothing For Your Journey." Also to be honored are the late J. Francis Grant and the late Charles Schram prominent businessmen of a former Petersburg era.

A second special feature of the library will be a photograph album inscribed "Petersburg Personalities of the Past" and in which are entered photographs of Petersburg residents of bygone years.

Mr. Chapin will be accompanied from Chattanooga by his wife and two grandsons, E. Y. Chapin III, and W. T. Moon, Jr., a student at Vanderbilt University, Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Steward of Skyfield Farm will entertain the Chapin party at luncheon on the day of the dedication. At six o'clock in the evening, officers of the library with their wives and husbands will entertain the Chapins and Mr. and Mrs. Steward at dinner at the Twin Lanterns Tea Room in Petersburg.

Mrs. Lillian Wilhelm, and Wolfe Rosenstein of Frankfort, spent Sunday and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest C. Ruppert and family.

Mrs. Charles Moore of near Petersburg is suffering from an attack of summer flu.

Polio Funds Will Be Expended Within Next Four Weeks

Emergency Fund-Raising Drive Will Be Necessary To Continue Work.

"At the present rate of expenditure, the Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has enough money to take care of polio victims for only about four more weeks," Merle Robertson, Louisville, treasurer of the Kentucky Chapter declared this week.

Robertson said the Chapter's balance as of August 31 was $48,884.20 with incurred expenses exceeding this amount.

"We can expect an equal amount will have to be spent during the months of September and October if we continue to provide the same care we have all summer. If the cases continue to be the type which require long-term treatment, the cost may continue this high for the rest of the year."

In reviewing the expenditures for the eight months of 1949, the Chapter's treasurer said $102,858.16 had been spent on polio victims this year, with heavy expenses beginning in May. He said the figure included expenses for hospitalization, orthopedic appliances, patient transportation to and from hospitals, hospital equipment, establishment and operation of clinics and treatment centers, nurses, physicians fees and physical therapists. He said the figure did not include cost of administration, training and education.

Robertson said a total of 514 persons had received treatment-aid from the Kentucky Chapter since January 1 of this year. This includes persons stricken this year and those receiving continuing treatment since 1942. Of the total, 144 were stricken in 1948, 220 were stricken during the years since 1942. Of the more than 300 cases reported so far this year, a major portion have received Chapter assistance.

Nine iron lungs have been made available to Kentucky by the National Foundation's pool of supplies and four hot pack machines have been purchased by the Kentucky Chapter.

Robertson said the Kentucky Chapter's net receipts from the 1949 March of Dimes was $134,686.28 He pointed out that the same amount was sent to the Foundation's national headquarters in New York City for research and epidemic aid. Fifty cents of each dollar contributed in all states goes to the National Foundation.

In commenting on NFIP President Basil O'Conner's statement that an emergency fund-raising drive will be necessary, Robertson pointed out that Kentucky was one of 38 states in which the funds have been exhausted. He said Kentucky could not look to the National Foundation for help because their epidemic aid fund has also been depleted and he declared:

"It will be up to the people of Kentucky to say whether they wish this great work to continue."

His has been a rich and lasting experience for himself and others. From this experience he will speak and the public is invited to share with the church members the spiritual wealth of a great soul.

Attendance at this service will be a token of respect and good will to this man who has poured out his cup on the soils of the great continent of Africa as a sacrifice offering to a great people.

Burlington and Hebron Chalk Up Two Victories

The high flying Burlington Leftovers marked up two impressive victories in the Boone County Outlaw League Saturday they tangled with the Bullittsville Tigers and emerged on the long end of a 5-4 count. Bob Brown went the route for the winners allowing 7 hits and whiffing 9. The victory was four in a row for Brown. Joe Pepper turned in a neat 6-hit performance for the Tigers as he set 14 down on strikes. Wayne Jones paced the winners with 2 triples and a single while Pepper aided his own cause with a double and a ninth inning three bagger.

The Leftovers unleashed a terrific 26-hit attack against the Bullittsburg All-Stars Labor day to win by a score of 18-1. Joe Smith was on the hill for Burlington and set the Stars down with 5 hits and struck out 12. Joe Hogan started for the Stars and was very effective the first five innings holding the winners to three scattered hits. However, the Burlington boys began to connect in the sixth and continued to hit until they had amassed 18 tallies.

Milly Pepper set the Stars down with but 4 hits Saturday as Hebron Cards marked up another victory 13-3. The Cards are closely trailing the Leftovers and have lost but two games. Pepper whiffed 16 batters as he recorded his fourth win. Bill Holladay was on the mound for the loser. Deatheridge swung the big bat for the Cards as he drove out five safeties, while Price's two bingles, paced the Stars.

Hebron tallied their second straight as they trimmed Bullittsville 12-2. E. Hodges was the winning pitcher and Joe Pepper, the loser. Complete details were not available.

Saturday's games pit the two top teams Burlington and Hebron at Burlington and Bullittsburg will tangle with Bullittsville.

Florence Youth Observes V-J Day Aboard Destroyer

At Sea With Destroyer Division 122, Sept. 3—Paul F. Middendorf, fireman, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Middendorf, Florence, Ky., joined shipments in respectful observance of V-J Day as this destroyer division steamed toward Vera Cruz for a two-day liberty.

Although these four modern warships were commissioned too late for the Tokyo Bay ceremony that ended the shooting war four years ago today, they are seasoned veterans in battle maneuvers and hold important rolls in training the navy's bulwark of ready-made civilian sailors.

This division includes the 2,200-toners USS Bristol, USS Beatty, USS Hyman, and USS Purdy. They are on a two-week training cruise with some 400 naval rescrvists aboard. Underway since August 29 when it left New Orleans for mock war maneuvers off Key West, the division is headed for Vera Cruz and a Mexican-style Labor Day week-end.

Reservists on this cruise are part of over fifty thousand part-time sailors who will go to sea for training duty in the naval reserve program this year.

Following shore liberty in the Mexican port, the destroyers will return to New Orleans Sept. 9 to disembark trainees.

CARTHAGE FAIR SET FOR SEPTEMBER 13-17

Thrilling harness races, a horse show, the finest of purebred live stock and "the cream of the crop" of field, farm and garden will be in the spotlight at the 94th annual Greater Cincinnati and Carthage Fair, Sept. 13 to 17, inclusive.

The fair will open at 5 p. m. on Tuesday, Sept. 13—one evening earlier than usual. And a very unusual program will be offered. The featured attraction will be a great "Parade of Progress," tracing the history of transportation and industry in the Ohio Valley. A 400-piece band, composed of bandsmen from the combined high school bands of Hamilton County, will participate. There also will be drum corps contests and other special entertainment features.

The agricultural and industrial exhibits, the harness races and the horse show will open on Wednesday, Sept. 14, and continue daily through Saturday, Sept. 17. More than $30,000 worth of prizes are being offered in displays of the skills of farm and home. Many awards are scheduled for 4-H Club children; and rural housewives will share in a big budget of cash premiums for the best examples of culinary, needlework and home art skills. Two $7,500 Futurities are on the program for the harness races.

An entirely new feature in the horse show will be a stock horse class, listed in the Western Division.

Women will be admitted free except for last day WEDNESDAY, Sept. 14, up to 5 p. m. Boy Scouts in uniform and children under 10 will be admitted free at all times; and all children will be admitted free on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16 and 17, except for tax.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Ten years ago this week Hitler's legions were marching across Poland and the great war was underway. Much has happened since that day. Here in Washington not many more than a handful of legislators are still on hand directing the affairs of the nation.

Take Kentucky for example. Only three men from the Bluegrass hold the same positions today that they held in the fateful year of 1939.

Noble Gregory is still the congressman from the First District. Joe Bates still represents the Eighth. And Brent Spence, the lawmaker from our own Fifth District, is dean of the Kentucky delegation. That's all!

Recall these others! Beverly Vincent has retired as the congressman from the Second District. Emmet O'Neal is practicing law and no longer represents Louisville. Andy May is fighting a battle in the court. John Robinson of the mountains is dead. And so is Ed Creal of the Fourth Kentucky District.

Virgil Chapman is still on the scene but he no longer represents the Bluegrass District. He's a senator.

Alben Barkley, as the world and gossip column know, is the Vice-President. And Happy Chandler is the baseball commissioner.

A backward glance at 1939 and a survey of the situation today proves again there is little security in politics. The best paid are those who survived—and left the political arena.

The Mail Bag

Lawmakers receive some weird things in the mail. But one Kentucky Legislator received quite a start the other day when he opened the morning offering from the post office.

Out popped a picture of a man in a casket. With it was a request for a pension. And the picture was the widow's proof of her husband's death.

Another letter—not so ghastly—made a request for world series tickets and asked the congressman where the games are to be played this year.

Man With Gavel

Senator Withers is getting a reputation as a lawmaker who can keep the senate in order and put a stop to all the time-consuming oratory.

The freshman lawmaker from Kentucky gained nation-wide publicity lately when he took over the chair from Vice President Barkley. Almost immediately, Majority Leader Lucas and Minority Leader Wherry got involved in a bitter argument. But they were cut short when the senator from the Blue Grass stamped down his gavel and told them—in parliamentary language, of course—to stop the argument and get back to business.

After the quiet had been restored and peace reigned, Presiding Officer Withers explained, "I didn't make the rules. You fellows made 'em. Now follow 'em."

And both Senator Lucas and Senator Wherry admitted that the Kentuckian had been absolutely right in stopping all the talk.

When You Sell Your Crops . . .

You do more than sell bushels of grain, tons of hay, or bales of cotton. You are actually selling out of your farm land the fertility that it took to grow them.

Calcium and magnesium (lime) are two of the important plant-food elements that all crops feed on. Some are heavier feeders than others. Alfalfa requires a lot—the equivalent of 100 pounds of limestone in each ton of hay—so do clover and the other legumes.

Keep your farm productive and profitable by replacing what you take out of your soil.

We shall be pleased to supply the limestone for your entire farm or any part of it. Let us quote you.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Serving liver once a week is recommended by nutritionists, as it is an excellent source of vitamin B and iron. Mrs. Pearl Hank, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, suggests this recipe for a tasty variation.

Liver Patties: 1 pound beef liver, 3 slices bacon, 1 cup bread crubs, 2 eggs, one-eighth teaspoon dry mustard, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, flour.

Pull the skin from the edges of the sliced liver, then drop the slices into boiling water for about five minutes. This cooks the liver slightly, making it easier to put through the food chopper.

Cook the bacon until crisp, leaving the fat in the pan for frying the patties later on. Put liver and bacon through food chopper. Mix in bread crumbs and slightly beaten eggs. Add mustard, salt and pepper. Mix well. Shape into six flat patties. Roll in flour to cover lightly, then brown in bacon fat.

Millions Suffer Without Knowing The Reason Why

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

A prominent "foot specialist" stated that it may be a far cry from a case of headache, or backache, or indigestion to a pair of bad feet, but the sooner the sufferer realizes that the pain in the back of his head CAN be related to the pain in the bottom of his feet—the sooner he is going to get relief. Cramped nerves in the feet send "Nerve Reflexes" to distant parts of the body. Cramped blood vessels slow up circulation, letting chemical deposits and waste matter form at the joints of feet and legs. The next step is INFLAMMATION and PAIN at the joints that is often mistaken for arthritis or rheumatism. Why suffer longer? Why take chances with your health, comfort, and piece of mind. Go where schooled men will fit you with scientifically correct shoes for your type of foot.—Adv.

A Lesson To Remember!

There is a lesson here for parents, too! No child can do his best at homework if eyestrain caused by poor light makes him drowsy and unable to concentrate. Make sure your child has plenty of good light at his study table. See that the lamp he uses for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts, and that it is well shaded to eliminate glare. Better light means better grades.!

Here's Better Light for Home Study!

Homework's quickly done with a Better Sight Table Study Lamp like this. Its wide-angle shade and extra tall standard spread light over a wide area. Its white glass diffusing bowl sifts out harmful glare. Equipped with a 150-watt bulb it provides plenty of light and the right kind of light for safer, easier seeing.

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Erlanger Ford Dealer Enters Dealership

In $100,000 Car Safety Contest Sponsored by Ford Division.

Jos. A. Kuchle, president of the Jos. A. Kuchle & Co., Inc., Ford dealer at Erlanger has entered his dealership in a $100,000 car safety contest sponsored by the Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Kuchle is one of 8,400 Ford dealers throughout the nation who has entered his dealership in the contest during September and October.

Seven hundred prizes totaling $100,000 will be awarded winners of the safety contest. The prizes are 25 new Fords including five Ford trucks; 25 $1,000 U. S. Savings Bonds, 100 $100 Bonds, 200 $50 Bonds and 350 $25 Bonds.

The contest has the support of the National Safety Council, the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee and other safety organizations.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, in a letter to L. D. Crusoe, Vice-President and General Manager of the Ford Division said:

"Certainly every motorist should check and double check the mechanical condition of his car for safety's sake, and you at Ford are making such a check easily available for all drivers throughout the country.

"And I am sure that this free check-up and safety contest, with its attractive prizes, will make Americans more safety conscious—it will save lives."

In order to participate in the contest, Mr. Kuchle pointed out, motorists must bring their car or truck, of any make, to the dealership for a safety check at absolutely no cost or obligations to the motorist.

Free checks will be made on the brakes, steering, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, glass, horn and rear view mirror.

The Jos. A. Kuchle Co. will place an attractive safe driver reflector insignia on the car or truck inspected and motorist will be given an entry blank to participate in the contest.

The motorist must then complete in no more than 50 additional words the following statement:

"All cars and trucks should be safety-checked periodically because....."

A jury of prominent persons in national safety circles will judge the winners. Only one entry per car or truck may be entered.

Grain Pests Cause Damage To Local Wheat Crop

Grain Moth Is Common In This Section of Country Says County Agent.

Pests of stored grains, particularly corn and wheat, cause extensive damage in Boone County each year, according to Bill Davis, County Agent. Damage has already started in threshed wheat that is stacked or stored in bins. Damage to corn will begin soon after it is cribbed.

The Angoumois grain moth is one of the pests common in this section of the country, and it attacks all cereal grains. The moth is small, buff or yellowish brown with a wing expanse of about one-half inch. Infestation may begin in the field when the moth lays eggs on the wheat heads or tips of corn ears. When the egg hatches the larvae bores into the kernel and then the damage begins. Moths may be seen flying about in bins or granaries after the wheat is stored. These moths are also laying eggs that will hatch into the damaging larvae. The moth is unable to penetrate very deep into stored wheat therefore the damage from this late infestation will be in only the top 10-12 inches of the grain.

Grain stored in tight bins can be easily fumigated with carbon disulphide. Carbon disulphide is applied by sprinkling over the top of the grain. The heavy vapor penetrates through deep bins of grain and is highly toxic to the insects. Apply 3 lbs. of carbon disulphide for each 100 cubic feet of space. Carbon disulphide is highly inflammable and extreme care should be taken to keep lanterns, cigarettes or sparks of any kind away from places where it is being used. The grain will quickly absorb the fumes of the gas and the damage from fire is not prolonged. The vapors should not be breathed for prolonged periods. Small quantities of carbon disulphide can be handled safely by the ordinary person, but persons having any heart trouble should take no part in its use.

Ear corn stored in ordinary granaries is difficult and often impractical to fumigate unless the granary can be made almost air tight. Infestation under such conditions can be reduced by removing all old corn and throughly cleaning the granary before storing new corn. Since grain kernels and dust accumulate in cracks and are not easily removed by sweeping, the use of commercial fly spray containing pyrethrum is helpful in preparing a granary for the storing of new corn.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Yelton and Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Nunnelley attended the Licking Valley Medical meeting at Maysville, last Thursday.

Four Herds Report Heavy Butterfat Production In DHIA

Burlington Man Has Highest Individual Cow With 560.3 Lbs. Butterfat

Joe Rust, supervisor for the Northern Kentucky Dairy Herd Improvement Association, reports that four herds in this association produced over 370 lbs. of butterfat per cow for the testing year just completed.

The highest herd was Robert Jackson of Kenton Station who had five registered Jerseys to average 7451 lbs. milk and 418.1 lbs. butterfat, with an average test of 5.5 percent. Eisen Bros., California, Ky., 16 head of registered Holsteins averaged 11,880 lbs. milk and 402.4 lbs. fat, with a 3.4 percent test. Franklin Wolf's, Alexandria, Ky., herd of 12 registered Holsteins averaged 11,060 lbs. milk and 389.6 lbs. butterfat with a 3.5 percent test. Goebel Dawson's Alexandria, Ky., herd of 13 head of registered Holsteins average 10,262 lbs. milk and 372.0 lbs. fat, with a 3.6 percent test.

The highest individual 305-day lactation record made by a cow from each breed are as follows:

Guernsey—A grade Guernsey owned by Dr. R. C. Garrison, Burlington had a total of 13,853 lbs. milk, 4.05 percent, 560.3 lbs. butterfat. Value of her product above feed cost was $501.40.

Jersey—Raleigh Majestic Actress 1441292, owned by Robert Jackson, 9,995 lbs. milk, 5.45 per cent, 544.1 lbs. butterfat. Value of product above feed cost was $424.70.

Holstein—Halden Fayne Nellie 2182610 owned by Franklin Wolf, 13,479 lbs. milk, 3.67 percent, 494.6 lbs. butterfat. Value of product above feed cost was $419.60.

Brown Swiss—Silver Beauty Maid 104607, owned by Dr. John Caldwell 11,799 lbs. milk, 3.61 percent, 425.1 lbs. fat. Value of product above feed cost was $323.60.

These records did not just happen, the owners of these herds have been members of the D. H. I. A. for several years and have improved the producing quality and increased the profitableness of their herds by following these three practices in herd management: Cullings, feeding and breeding. None of these practices can be conducted with any assurance that they will lead to herd improvement or greater profit, without records of production on every cow in the herd.

The monthly records show each cow's production, value of her product, and cost of her feed, so that the low producing, non-profitable cows can be found and culled from the herd and replaced by better ones as soon as possible.

D. H. I. A. records enable the herd owner to feed each cow the amount of feed she can convert into milk most efficiently and profitably. Many cows are low producers simply because they are not given as much feed as they are able to convert into milk, others may be unprofitable if they are given more feed than they can use for milk production. With production records to guide him, the dairyman can easily determine how much feed each cow should have in order to make the greatest profit.

The herd owner must also have production records to select his best cows for breeding stock and to measure the breeding worth of cow-families and individual sires so that he can improve his herd by raising the best heifer calves for herd replacements.

RASPBERRIES VINES PUT FORTH SECOND CROP AT COUNTY INFIRMARY

Raspberry vines in the garden of the County Infirmary are producing their second crop this season, according to Sal Winkle, who brought a sample of the berries to The Recorder office last week.

The berries are fully developed and apparently are as perfect as the first spring crop.

These berries are on display at The Recorder office to those who desire to check on our story.

Many older citizens of this county say this is very unusual, as they had never heard of raspberries producing a second crop.

New Game Law Effective Nov. 5th

The Division of Game and Fish, Frankfort, Ky., have recently issued a new regulation on the present hunting law in Kentucky which makes it illegal for anyone to have a shotgun in the field for any purpose between the dates of November 5th and November 20th.

The new law is intended to stop hunting out of season this year and anyone in the field with a gun between these dates, can and will be brought in and handled under penalty of the law.

Heretofore Game Wardens were required to find game on persons before they could be arrested, but under the new law, anyone in the field with a shotgun is subject to arrest and will be fined according to law.

The public's cooperation in notifying authorities of violators of this regulation will greatly reduce the out-of-season hunting which has been so prevalent in Boone County for the past few years. To report game violations, call Edwin Johnson, Walton 853, or the Sheriff's office, Burlington 33. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Booth Hospital Reaches 1949 Campaign Goal

Final Official Figures Show Total of $54,022.80 Contributed.

Due to the hundreds of faithful workers, and to the warm response of the public, the William Booth Memorial Hospital Annual Maintenance Campaigns have always gone over the top. This year has been no exception.

The needs of the hospital, largely arising out of the amount of "free care" rendered, necessitated an appeal for $54,000. The campaign lasted for some three weeks and the final report meeting for workers was held on June 21st, at which time a total of $51,949.50 was reported.

Following that report meeting, which was $3,050.50 short of the goal, late reports came in and special effort was put forth by several of the campaign and hospital leaders and the needed amount was secured.

The hospital can now announce that the final official amount received is $54,022.80.

R. D. Martin, public relations director of the hospital, and director of the campaign says that great credit is due J. Wayne Rusk, Jr., chairman of the hospital advisory board and general chairman of the campaign, and the more than seven hundred workers who made up the campaign organization.

Each year the faithfulness, loyalty and fine efforts of his army of "Booth" campaign workers is a source of inspiration to the leadership and each and every one of them deserve high praise for their untiring service in a great humanitarian cause.

On behalf of the hospital, the advisory board and the many people who are served by "Booth" Hospital, Mr. Martin extends thanks and commendations to the workers and to the contributing public.

In a special manner thanks are extended to the citizens of Boone County for their response to the appeal. $1,502.05 was contributed by Boone County and its citizens.

The working force of Boone County was led by chairman Kirtley Cropper of Burlington and co-chairman Dan Roberts of Walton aided by Mrs. A. E. Stephens, Burlington leader and her workers: Mrs. Warren Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Nelson Poston, Mrs. Carroll Rice, Mrs. Gerald Clore, Mrs. Dudley Rouse, Mrs. Charles McFarland, Mrs. Harry Scroggins, Miss Mattie Kreylich, Mrs. Galen Kelly, Mrs. Irvin Rouse and Miss Pat Day; Mrs. Lawrence Rodamer, Constance leader, and her workers, Mrs. A. Aurora Farmers' Fair Dates Announced

The 41st annual Aurora Farmers' Fair and homecoming will be held at Aurora on September 30 and October 1st.

This fair has been promoted and continued through the years as a medium which encourages the farmer to produce better fruit, grain, poultry, vegetables and live stock. This was the purpose for which fairs were originally promoted.

It is a long remembered sight to see the fine results in the women's department. Much interest is shown by young people in the 4-H club activities.

The management stated that this fair has become a homecoming time and that they are pleased to meet and greet visitors and bid them a hearty welcome. Parking meters in the city will not be in operation on October 1st, it was announced.

The Aurora ferry will run until midnight on Saturday, October 1st to accommodate late traffic.

DIRECTS MALE CHORUS

Pictured above is O. A. Fields, prominent northern Kentucky business man, who is the director of the Northern Kentucky Male Chorus.

If you haven't heard them be sure to come to this service and get acquainted. All are welcome.

Big Bone And Petersburg To Meet In Co. League

Elimination Series Saturday; Other Contests Promise To Be Exciting.

The feature game of the Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League elimination series will be Big Bone at Petersburg Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Two other important contests will be Constance at Burlington and Florence at Sand Run.

In the Petersburg-Big Bone game Deck and Carver will probably be the home team battery with Black or Afterkirk pitching and Overberg catching for the visitors.

For Burlington in their game against Constance Bill Mumm or Ivan Gulley will be on the hill with J. Gulley receiving and for the visitors it will be Ernest and Bloebaum. Batteries for the Florence Sand Run game have not been announced.

Elimination Standings

	Won	Lost
Petersburg	2	0
Burlington	2	0
Constance	2	0
Florence	2	0
Sand Run
Big Bone	1	1
Belleview	0	2
Hebron	0	2
Pleasant Haven	0	2
Union	0	2

Last Week's Results

In games last week Burlington had their hands full in defeating Big Bone by a 11 to 9 score at the local lot. Ivan Gulley was on the mound for the winners and though touched for 12 base hits was not scored on after the fourth inning. Bowman, Williamson and Miller led the loser's attack.

Gerald "Peewee" Clore, with three singles and a triple led the Burlington assault on Cliff Afterkirk and C. Black. The payoff blow of the contest however was a base-unloading triple by Jim Ryle in the sixth inning.

In other games Constance won over Belleview, (results of this game were not available at press time). Florence won by forfeit over Pleasant Haven, Petersburg won by forfeit over Hebron and Sand Run won by the same route over Union.

The number of forfeits were due to teams having a ball player shortage, team managers stated. Many of the players were in the process of cutting and housing tobacco, managers said.

Fish-Game Club To Meet

The Boone County Fish & Game Protective Association will hold its regular meeting at the club, Burlington-Idlewild Road, tonight Thursday, September 15th, according to Edwin Walton, president.

Reception Planned

The Women's Society of the Florence Methodist Church will give a reception at the church on Friday evening, Sept. 23 at 8:00 p. m. honoring the new pastor Rev. C. N. Ogg and family.

A musical program is being arranged and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Don Loomis Bitten By Rabid Dog Saturday

While Working At Calvin Cress & Sons Shop, Dogs Placed Under Quarantine.

Don Loomis, employed as a mechanic at Calvin Cress & Sons Shop near Burlington, was the victim of a mad dog attack early Saturday morning, which resulted in Mr. Loomis being bitten in the face near the left eye.

According to reports, Loomis and other employees were working inside the shop when a dog appeared and without any warning the dog attacked Loomis, who was in a stooped position. Loomis did not realize that the dog was near until he had been bitten. Loomis was rushed to Dr. M. A. Yelton, Burlington, who started administering vaccine for hydrophobia, since the dog had acted very strange and was thought to be rabid.

A large crew of men, including the Sheriff and his men, started a search for the dog, which was found near Price Pike road not far from the airport. The dog was killed, and a collar tag had the name of Harry Sheets, Union, Ky., as owner of the lemon and white hound.

Mr. Sheets was contacted and stated that he had notice the dog was not right and had tied him in his kennel. The last time he saw the dog was when he went to do his chores at the barn Saturday morning and when he returned he noticed the dog had broken the chain and escaped.

The dog apparently traveled the Union-Camp Ernst Road to Burlington Pike, then to Limaburg and to the airport road. All persons living in this locality should pay particular attention to their pets and stock as the dog was known to have bitten several dogs on his journey.

The head of the dog was sent to Lexington for examination and the examination showed the head so badly infected that the Lexington office called authorities here by telephone and stated the case was very dangerous and to use every precaution available.

A countywide quarantine on all dogs was issued by Sheriff R. I. Rouse, which is to have a two-fold purpose. Mr. Rouse stated that the county is infested with stray dogs that have no owners and after a short period a campaign will be started to kill all dogs not confined to kennels or on chains.

The quarantine will be effective for 30 days and it is the duty of all persons to either kill all stray dogs or notify the sheriff's office and they will do so as soon as possible after Saturday, September 17th, which is the time set for everyone to have their pets confined.

Your cooperation in this matter will help rid the county of all stray dogs as well as help to protect all animals exposed to the rabid dog, which was said to be the most dangerous Boone County has had for several years.

A Lesson To Remember!

There is a lesson here for parents, too! No child can do his best at homework if eyestrain caused by poor light makes him drowsy and unable to concentrate. Make sure your child has plenty of good light at his study table. See that the lamp he uses for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts, and that it is well shaded to eliminate glare. Better light means better grades.!

Here's Better Light for Home Study!

Homework's quickly done with a Better Sight Table Study Lamp like this. Its wide-angle shade and extra tall standard spread light over a wide area. Its white glass diffusing bowl sifts out harmful glare. Equipped with a 150-watt bulb it provides plenty of light and the right kind of light for safer, easier seeing.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves* THE Best FINANCING in the world!

There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.

Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.

Remember this,—there are no application fees, no appraisal fees, and no renewal commissions. So, protect your business, your future, and your family. Finance the farm you buy, or refinance debt you now have through your locally-owned, farmer-control national farm loan association with a long-term, 4 percent Federal Land Bank loan.

For your convenience I will be at the Old Recorder Building in Burlington each Friday at 10 to 12 a. m.; and at other times at my office in the Wiggington Building in Williamstown.

Burlington Man Admitted To Practice Law

Is Graduate of University Of Cincinnati College Of Law.

A. D. Yelton, of Burlington, was admitted to the practice of law on the same as The Recorder's today—$1.50 per year. Although the dollar value has decreased many times during the past 100 years The Recorder continues to offer subscriptions at $1.50 a year.

One item carried in the 100-year-old issue of interest was an editorial commenting on the rude treatment received by John Norris at the hands of an Indians group when he went to that state to claim several Negro slaves who had escaped from his farm near Petersburg.

Other items of interest were sprinkled throughout the pages, among them being the report of the State Convention. The sheet is on display at our office, but will be returned to Mr. and Mrs. McGuire within the next 10 days.

admitted to the practice of law in August 22nd, after being sworn in before the Court of Appeals in Frankfort, Ky., and before Hon. Ward Yager, Circuit Judge, the same day.

Mr. Yelton is well known in Boone and adjoining counties, having served as Circuit Court Clerk and Master Commissioner of Boone County since December 7, 1933.

He is a graduate of Burlington High School, and in February 1948 completed the law course at University of Cincinnati College of Law.

Remodeling work is now in progress on the building, which will be occupied by him as soon as the work is completed. He will occupy the entire second story of the building.

Veterans' Training Notes

Twenty-five veterans were enrolled in farm training at Hebron School September 1, 1949. The new class is under the direction of Mr. Caywood, graduate of University of Kentucky. Any veteran desiring to qualify for this training should apply at the Hebron School, as there will be some vacancies Jan. 1.

On the farm operated by Earl Kennady and his father, a study was made of the overall farming program, including rotation, soil building practices, farm water supply, pasture management, buildings and livestock management.

At the farm of Mr. Hempfling's a study was made of tobacco housing and curing practices. Mr. M. F. Judy, who with his son Orville, produced the tobacco, gave the group an interesting discussion on his experiences of housing and curing tobacco. An observation of firing tobacco was the main point of this trip. Mr. Judy is one of the outstanding tobacco producers of Boone County.

One of the outstanding laying flocks in Boone County is owned by Mr. R. Stoddard of near Burlington. Mr. Stoddard, a member of the veterans' class, purchased 300 austra white pullets in the spring of 1948. The pullets were 4 weeks old when purchased. After culling, 270 birds were put in the laying house. They were in production by September. These hens up to September first this year, or in twelve months time, averaged slightly over 209 eggs per hen. The income above original cost of the chicks and feed cost from time of purchase of chicks to Sept. 1, 1949 was $3.23 per hen, with 150 hens still in the flock. These will be sold soon. Mr. Stoddard has followed the recommended production and management practices. He sells graded eggs and has averaged better than fifty cents per dozen. This year Mr. Stoddard changed breed and has 500 white leghorn pullets just beginning to come into production.

One item carried in the 100-year-old issue of interest was an editorial commenting on the rude treatment received by John Norris at the hands of an Indians group when he went to that state to claim several Negro slaves who had escaped from his farm near Petersburg.

Petersburg Oust Big Bone Nine In Elimination Series

Burlington and Sand Run Victorious In Saturday Afternoon League Series.

Three interesting and well played games featured the third round of Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League elimination series last week. Only one team of the previous six survivors was eliminated in the two and out series. The team dropped was Big Bone, regular season runners-up nine.

In Saturday's contests Petersburg kept their record intact with a seven to six win over the Big Boners at Petersburg. The winners with D. and E. Deck on the mound and L. Deck behind the plate, were pushed to win the game in the ninth. The big blow of the inning was Mahan's triple. He also had two other bingles and R. Bradburn chipped in with four hits for the home team. C. Stephens and Bowman did the mound duties for Big Bone with Overberg catching. Bowman's home run was the chief offensive work for Big Bone.

Mumm Stars

Bill Mumm, Burlington's combination outfielder-pitcher, was the big star in his team's 6-2 win over Constance at the local park Saturday. Mumm allowed the visitors eight scattered hits, fanned nine and was especially effective with men on base. He also had two of the winners' nine hits. Gerald Clore added two more, both with men on the sacks.

Though pitching for the losers, Ed Ernest took part of the spotlight of the game as he held Burlington hitless for four and two-thirds innings, and with a tighter defense his record for the game would be better. Pete Fox led the loser's offensive with three hits.

Overtime Game

It took Sand Run eleven innings to beat a stubborn Florence team at Sand Run. The score was seven to six. Roland and Brooks formed the losing battery with Campbell and Buford Smith pitching for Sand Run and McWethy catching. Smith went in the game in the second inning and received credit for the win. Chick Stephens was the slugging star with a four for five day.

Elimination Standing

Petersburg	3	0
Burlington	3	0
Florence	2	1
Sand Run	2	1
Constance	2	1

Sand Run at Burlington.
Constance at Florence.
Petersburg (bye).

Sand Run will be fighting with their backs to the wall to stay in the elimination play as they meet Sam Ryle's Burlington nine Saturday. Another loss will drop that team from the playoffs. George Stahl, manager of the Sand Runners, has indicated that big Buford Smith, former Holmes High School star, will pitch for his team and Ryle, Burlington manager, has named either Ivan Guiley or Bill Mumm for mound duties.

Either Constance or Florence will bite the dust this week as both teams have had one loss. Red Layne, of Constance has named Ed Ernest, Wilshrow High School star, to pitch and for Florence it will probably be Roland.

In Contest With Hudepohl Nine Sunday; Verona Game Postponed.

Bob and Gene inflicted the second defeat of the series upon the pennant winning Hudepohl nine Sunday by a score of 8-2 in the Kentucky Athletic Goods Semipro Baseball League.

Bob and Gene with two losses in the series were fighting to maintain a spot in the finals. Earlier in the series Bob & Gene downed the Hudepohl nine by a score of 5-0.

Ray Miegnerey was on the hill for Bob and Gene, allowing seven hits, while Menkedick and Hank Rizzo gave up 14 hits for Hudepohl. Miegnerey hit a home run for the winners, while Smith and Thomas cracked out doubles. Bob Kruger got the loser's only extra base blow, a double.

The game scheduled between Verona and Constance, was postponed on account of rain. League officials announced that this game will be played this week at a time and date to be determined by league managers. Verona has lost one game, while Constance will be fighting to avoid elimination, as they have lost two games.

Bellevlew, another Boone County league team, was disqualified in elimination play by league officials last week. The disqualification came as a result of use of ineligible players, league leaders said.

Wheat May Be Used As Cover Crop By Farmers

Although wheat acreage allotments are being established for Kentucky farms where wheat is to be seeded for harvest in 1950, all farms in the state may seed wheat this fall as a winter cover crop without loss of farm price support benefits, R. O. Wilson, chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration state committee, said today.

In order to avoid loss of wheat price support eligibility, however, farmers with wheat acreage allotments are required to obtain approval of county ACA committees before seeding wheat as a winter cover crop, Wilson said.

No prior approval is necessary for farms without wheat allotments.

Thousands of farmers throughout Kentucky seed wheat every fall as a winter cover on cultivated land to reduce erosion and leaching of soil minerals, the state PMA chairman said.

In order to qualify as a practice in the Agricultural Conservation Program, a good stand and a good growth of wheat, providing a protective cover, must be obtained and left on the land or plowed under. The crop may not be harvested for hay or grain.

Small grains, including wheat, barley, rye, oats, or mixtures of these crops, established on the land this fall and left on the land or plowed under are included as a practice in the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Conservation Conversation

By J. C. Acree

This pastoral view will not only attract the eye of the artist, but the townsman and the farm will also bring his machine to a stop and gaze at the contented cow in a pasture of mixed grasses and legumes.

Good farmers are improving their pastures and year by year less row crops are grown. They have found it more economical to let the cow harvest the grasses than to haul in the hay and feed it to the cow in the barn and then haul the manure back to the field. By following good pasture management some farmers are grazing profitably ten months of the year. A good pasture must have a growth of legumes and grasses, the more varieties the better. Several farmers are sowing a trial field of meadow fescue and ladino clover. These seed are rather expensive, yet why not sow a trial field of this combination and the remainder of your pasture fields to orchard grass, brome grass, and in the spring sow your legumes of alfalfa, alsike, red clover, and by all means lespedeza. Fortunate was the farmer who put a few pounds of lespedeza in his grass mixture this year.

Of course there is much to be done before seeding time. Most northern Kentucky land will respond to two tons of limestone and three hundred to five hundred pounds of phosphate per acre or its equivalent. You might have noticed where the grass has been grazed shorter in one part of a field than the rest of the field. A soil test will no doubt show that this part of the field has been treated to a heavier application of phosphate than the rest of the field. Most pastures are grazed too hard. It takes two to five acres of ordinary pasture to keep a good growth for one milk cow. When you can graze one or two cows on an acre of pasture you can say you have good pastures.

Make your pastures on the cafeteria style and let the cow eat what she wants and what she needs. Good pastures make profitable grazing and also your erosion problem will be almost eliminated.

Mr. W. G. Loftin, Hopeful Pike, Florence says that mud has been washing into his pond and he is going to stop it. He has terraced the six-acre field where the pond is located, applied two and a half tons of limestone and five hundred pounds of 20 percent superphosphate per acre and is making a fine seed bed. He will sow a bushel of wheat and in October he will sow a bushel of bluegrass to the acre. In the spring several legumes will be sown. In addition he is planning to mulch the bank above the pond. This field will be worth watching. He states that the terraces recently built slowed down the runoff from the heavy rainfall of last Sunday.

Millions Suffer

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

It has been proven that you cannot be well with unhappy feet! Those headaches, those backaches, those leg pains are caused by the shoes you are wearing. Why not demand the same progress in shoe construction as in trains, planes and other transportation. You walk miles each day, stand hours and yet wear shoes that will surely lead to ill health and awkward posture.

Parents scold children for slouching and slumping when their shoes are to blame. People suffer mental upset nervousness, aches and pains when proper shoes (shaped to fit and support those fifty-two bones in your feet) would benefit the entire body and preserve your general health.

Fortunes are spent on patent medicines and appliances when a correct shoe alone is the answer.

Why suffer longer? Why take chances with your health, comfort and peace of mind? Visit the store that has men schooled in foot anatomy and foot mechanics to insure getting the proper type shoe for your particular feet.—9dv.

KENTUCKY FARMERS RECEIVE $645,343.56 IN GASOLINE TAX REFUND

Kentucky farmers got back $645,343.56 in tax on gasoline used in farm operations in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949. This was announced this week by David K. Walker, Director of Division of Excises, Kentucky Department of Revenue.

The 1946 legislature passed the Kentucky Agricultural Refund Act which allows farmers to be re-imbursed for tax paid on gasoline used exclusively in actual farm operations.

As of February 1, 1949, all gasoline subject to refund was colored purple with a special "identifier dye" furnished to gasoline distributors by the Department of Revenue.

At the close of the fiscal year of June 30, 1949, the Department had 16,200 active refund permits on record, an increase of 4,000 permits over last year.

Refund gasoline cannot be used in vehicles that operate on the highways. In the ten months ending August 1, ten permits were revoked for violations of the Department regulations governing the use of refund agricultural gasoline.

CHANGES NOTED IN FARM FAMILY LIFE

Dr. Ward Bauder, University of Kentucky rural sociologist, recently made some observations on the way things are going with farm families.

In the first place, he notes that farm families are smaller than they used to be. There are only about half as many children in farm families as there were 150 years ago and about two-thirds as many as there were 50 years ago.

Because of automobiles and good roads and movies and other outside attractions, families spend less time in the home. Members are more likely to get out and go places than to join in the family circle. At that farm families stay closer together than do members of city families, Dr. Bauder said.

Smaller families and increased conveniences have taken some of the drudgery out of the farm home and eased life for the mother and wife, was another observation of this sociologist. Fifty years ago he said the woman of the house had so much work to do she didn't have time to leave home. But today the situation is different and many farm women belong to homemakers clubs and other organizations and take an active interest in community affairs.

These changes mean to some extent the end of patriarchal rule of husband and father in the family, Dr. Bauder admitted, but at the same time they make for greater democracy in family life, which he considered good for everybody concerned.

LEAF YIELDS UP AFTER 38 YEARS

David Lear of Jackson county has grown tobacco on the same field for 38 years with the exception of one, increasing his yield from 800 pounds the first year to 2,100 in 1948. Liberal amounts of manure, fertilizer and cover crops have gradually brought up the yield, said Farm Agent K. C. Mills. Kentucky 16 has been the variety grown for the past several seasons.

Thirty-three 4-H club members in Rockcastle and Southern Madison counties realized about $3,000 from their strawberry crops.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!
There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.
Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.
Remember this,—there are no application fees, no appraisal fees, and no renewal commissions. So, protect your business, your future, and your family. Finance the farm you buy, or refinance debt you now have through your locally-owned, farmer-control national farm loan association with a long-term, 4 percent Federal Land Bank loan.
For your convenience I will be at the Old Recorder Building in Burlington each Friday at 10 to 12 a. m.; and at other times at my office in the Wigginton Building in Williamstown.

IN MEMORIAM

Of John C. Whitaker who became a member of Bradell Chapter No. 443 when this chapter was installed passed away from this earthly home to his eternal rest on August 20, 1949, having been a member of the Eastern Star four years, one month and twenty-one days.

Whereas, the Supreme Master of the Universe in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst, and from his earthly labors, our beloved brother John C. Whitaker,

Resolved, That this chapter extend to the wife, relatives and friends of our departed brother, our heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to the loving care of Him who doeth all things well.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be attached to our records, a copy sent to The Recorder and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

The days grow shorter, the nights grow longer,
The headstones thicken along the way,
For those who walk with us day by day.

Then let us be kind to one another,
And let us speak softly in love's sweet tone,
For no one knows on the morrow,
Whether we too pass by—or but on—alone.

"The Watcher"

She always leaned towatch for us,
Anxious if we were late;
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.

And though we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish care
The long way home would seem more safe,
Because she waited there.

Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget;
And so I think that where she is—
She must be watching yet.

Waiting till we come home to her
Anxious if we are late—
Watching from Heaven's window
Leaning from Heaven's gate.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... it is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act. ..."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
3—Decision by arbitration.
4—Decision by neutral referee.
5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employes, and are the most highly paid of all employes on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employes of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

Lawn Care Explained By County Agent Davis

Home owners, during late summer and fall often look at their neglected lawns and wonder what can be done to restore them to their original good stand of desirable grasses and legumes.

In most cases the poor stands of grass are due to a deficiency of plant nutrients, according to Bill Davis, County Agent. Old soils can be improved by fertilizing, rolling, reseeding and regular clipping. Fresh soil should be added to fill depressions and the entire lawn reseeded with good seed. If the old sod is reasonably good, two pounds of blue grass seed per 1000 sq. ft. of surface should be sufficient. Reseed the lawn in September. Blue grass prefers a soil that is neutral or slightly acid rather than one that is alkaline therefore too much lime should be avoided. A top dressing of 800 pounds of superphosphate and 300 lbs. of muriate of potash per acre should be sufficient to build up a reserve of plant food in the old lawn. Rolling the lawn in the spring does much to correct the unevenness of the surface.

Old lawns where practically no grass is present should be treated as new lawns.

New lawns, especially those where sub-soil has been used for grading should be fertilized with 1000 lbs. of superphosphate and 800 pounds of muriate of potash per acre before seeding. The soil should be tested to determine the need of lime. These fertilizers should be turned under a depth of six to eight inches. If manure is available a liberal application of it should also be turned under. After the soil has been prepared it should be raked to finish the preparation and remove stones and trash.

The new lawn should be seeded with a mixture of 4 parts by weight of Bluegrass and 1 part by weight of Redtop. Sow at least 4 pounds of seed per 100 square feet of surface.

Tobacco stalks placed on the lawn as soon as the tobacco has been stripped and left until March or April is an excellent way to feed a new lawn. When the grass is about two inches tall the application of 5 lbs. of nitrate of soda per 1000 sq. ft. of surface will supply an abundance of nitrogen.

Let the new grass grow 4 or 5 inches tall before cutting the first time and do not clip is closer than two inches.

Watering lawns in the summer is not always advisable as bluegrass is usually making little or no growth in late summer and the water used may merely encourage the growth of crab grass.

Information on the control of weeds, moles and ants in lawn may be obtained from the county agent's office.

IS AN INEXPENSIVE FARM OPERATION

It costs less each year to keep each acre of your farm properly supplied with lime than it does to:

1. Plow an acre of land.
2. Take a 30-mile trip in your car.
3. Take the family to the movies.
4. Buy the seed to sow an acre of wheat.
5. Prepare the land and plant an acre of oats
6. Harvest an acre of corn with a mechanical picker.

Make liming one of your regular farm operations—the cost is low and the returns are high, not only in the money you get for the higher yields of better crops, but in the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing a better job of farming.

See us about your limestone needs.

TRUCK SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR CHECKING PLATFORM SCALES

Frankfort, Ky.—Commissioner of Agriculture Harry F. Walter has announced purchased by the Division of Weights and Measures of the Department of Agriculture of a specially designed test truck for use in checking platform scales.

"The Division of Weights and Measures will, for the first time, be in a position to thoroughly check the accuracy of large platform scales," said Walter. "Top priority will be for stock yard scales and grain warehouses."

George L. Johnson, Director of the Division of Weights and Measures, termed acquisition of the new machinery as "the first step to protect purchasers of commodities to assure correct weights, as well as to protect those who might operate scales."

The truck weighs approximately 15,000 pounds and will carry a test load of 15,000 to 17,000 pounds, making a gross test load of more than 30,000 pounds. The equipment for loading and unloading is operated by a hydraulic system, powered from a power take-off. It will load and unload three 1,000-pound test weights. When the weights are placed on a scale platform they may be shifted and moved about by a two-wheel dolly.

Johnson said that while the Department primarily will concern itself with testing stock yard scales and grain elevators, that other scales will be tested on request.

The new testing equipment will tell whether scales weigh long or short.

Two More Teams Eliminated In Sat. Elimination Series

Burlington Takes Lead In Elimination Series With Four Victories.

Two more teams were eliminated from the Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League elimination series last week when Constance lost to an inspired Florence team and Sand Run lost to Burlington. The two losers automatically are out of play as it marked their second defeat in the series. The remaining trio and their standings are:

Florence	3	1

Florence, a team that won only one regular season game, has been a thorn-in-the-side outfit in elimination. They were fortunate in gaining a couple of forfeit decisions and those, coupled with two good baseball exhibitions have hung on with Petersburg, regular season winners, and Burlington. The Florence nine trimmed Red Layne's Constance team Saturday by a 3-1 count at Florence behind the seven-hit pitching of Utz. Bloebaum pitched for the losers and was touched for ten bingles. Manager Roy Brooks caught for Florence with McGlasson receiving for Constance. Bloebaum had a homer for Constance's only run.

Burlington Wins

Manager Sam Ryle's Burlington team won their ninth straight game and fourth consecutive elimination series game Saturday with a 5-1 win over the charges of George Stahl from Sand Run at the local park.

Johnny Woods, Burlington handy-man, pitched for the winners and was in complete charge throughout. Gulley was his battery mate.

Buford Smith was on the hill for the losers and was touched for 11 base hits. Woods, McBee and J. Gulley led the winning attack. Woods had 3 singles and the latter had two singles each.

Drawings for this week's games match Florence at Petersburg, with Burlington drawing the bye. Batterles for the contest as announced by the managers will be: Petersburg—D. Deck and L. Deck; Florence—Utz and Brooks.

Frank Maurer Sells Milk Route After 24 Years' Service

A business that was begun by a 12-year-old Burlington boy twenty-four years ago changed hands last week when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maurer sold their bottled milk route to the John Trenkamp and Sons Company, of Covington. Mr. Maurer began delivering milk in 1925 on his daily trip from home to school and within a few years he was furnishing milk to a majority of Burlington families. Mr. Maurer told The Recorder this week that only once in those 24 years he failed to make his route delivery. It became almost a Burlington tradition to see Frank or Lee both night and morning "going on the double" setting out bottles of rich Guernsey milk.

Mr. Maurer said he wanted to express his sincere thanks and appreciation to his many patrons during these years and especially did he appreciate the trust his customers had in him since it was a daily occurence for them to leave a note "gone, please put milk in refrigerator" or "how much is the bill, we never keep a record of it." Frank also said that the total amount of unpaid milk bills in those 24 years wouldn't amount to enough to buy a dozen milk bottles.

Mr. Maurer will have a public sale Saturday afternoon, Oct. 1, beginning at one o'clock at which time 18 head of his Guernsey cows and heifers will be sold. An ad. of the sale will be found on another page of The Recorder.

Florence-Burlington Draw First Blood In Football Conference

Hebron and Dry Ridge Furnish Opposition In First Game of Season.

The Northern Kentucky Six-Man Football Conference got off to a flying start last week in two interesting, if not thrilling contests. In the Conference opener Thursday night at the local field Florence Knights trimmed Hebron's Cardinals by a 12-6 score. The winners got to pay dirt in the first quarter when Martin ran sixty yards for the score. The kick for extra points failed.

Hebron tied the score in the third quarter when Tanner pushed over from the five yard stripe. They failed to score extra points. The Knights won in the final half minute of play when Bill Markesbery, speedy back, passed to Jesse England for the winning marker. Florence again failed on extra points.

Both teams showed well for opening game play and a large crowd of enthusiastic fans went through the pay gate, conference officials stated.

Eagles In Romp

The Burlington Eagles using second and theird stringers practically all the way had little difficulty in running rough-shod over an inexperienced Dry Ridge Tiger team last Friday night at Dry Ridge. The charges of Coach Walton scored a touchdown on the second play of the contest and added two more in the first quarter. They led 38-6 at the half. The losers added another six in the third quarter and Burlington piled up 21 more tallies during the last half for the final count of 59-12.

This Week

The schedule for this week places Hebron at Burlington Thursday night. This promises to be a natural since the rivalry between the Cards and Eagles is as usual "present" and each team had a win over the other last year. Coach Chuck Ransler, though minus several of last year's stars, still has plenty of power and speed in boys like Jim Tanner, Bill Bailey and Jack Ziegler. Burlington, loaded with letter winners from last year's conference champs, will reign as slight favorites according to neutral fans.

Florence at Dry Ridge

Florence will have a good chance to win their second consecutive game Friday night when they travel to Dry Ridge to take on Joe Reed's Tiger team. The Knights appear to have a well-balanced team paced by such two-year veterans as Rowland, Markesbery and Martin. Dry Ridge is expected to be considerably stronger though as the season progresses. They have a number of tough and fast youngsters who have plenty except experience.

Conference Standings

Burlington	1	0
Hebron	0	1
Dry Ridge	0	1
New Haven	0	0

Fans following six-man football in the N. K. Conference should be proud of the two fields on which all games are played. The Burlington field, located at the Boone County 4-H fair grounds has been generally improved this year and has a new permanent lighting system. The Dry Ridge field is also an excellent field and it, too, has a permanent lighting system.

New Haven Practicing

New Haven's Tigers, under the direction of Bill McAllister, have been working hard the past two weeks in readiness for their opener Oct. 11 against Florence at Burlington.

Notes and Comments

From the Editor's Desk

It Happened In China

Not many Americans will read the "White Paper" on China which the State Department published a few weeks ago. It runs to more than 1,000 pages and much of it would make impossibly dull reading for the layman. But the story it tells, and the inferences and conclusions that it leads to, vitally affect this country and all the rest of the non-Communist world.

First of all, the story is one of unmitigated failure. We spent billions in China, and every dollar was supposed, directly or indirectly, to help check the Red tide. We sent distinguished emissary after distinguished emissary—General Stilwell, George Marshall, Patrick Hurley, General Wedemeyer—to try to bring order out of an impossible chaos. None succeeded, and if the State Department is to be believed, none could have. Secretary Acheson has written, "Nothing that this country did or could have done within the reasonable limits of its capabilities could have changed that result; nothing that was left undone by this country has contributed to it."

Not everyone will totally accept this point of view. The most interesting part of the White Paper is the report made to President Truman by General Wedemeyer after his 1947 mission. This report had never before been published, and it was kept a closely guarded secret. The General was a prophet of a high order. He said that events in China were "as portentous as those leading to World War II," and that if we pursued a wait-and-see policy "the Chinese Communists would emerge as the dominant group." This is precisely what happened. His proposal was that we embark on a sweeping five-year China aid program, including both military and economic aid for the nationalists. However, he said further that this must be accompanied by drastic reforms on the part of the corrupt, ineffectual Chiang Kai-shek government. Apparently, the U. S. government believed this would offend Chiang. In any event, the Wedemeyer recommendations were both ignored and suppressed.

Of the China debacle, Time magazine writes: "No one could deny the U. S. diplomats in China had faced fiercely stubborn problems, equally stubborn men . . . Yet in a world racked by the evil and destruction of first fascist, then Communist aggression, the American job was to work with the world it found and know what world it wanted. In China, it tried and it failed. At no point in the long chronicle of its failure had it displayed a modest fraction of the stamina and decisiveness which had checked Communism in Europe."

That last sentence is significant—we have done infinitely better in Europe than in the Far East. And a fear is held by many thoughtful men today that Communism may eventually flow over all of Korea, the Dtuch Pacific possessions, even Japan and the Philippines.

CALDWELL FARMERS SEE REVAMPED FARM

When Caldwell county farmers visited Raymond Stroube in the Hobson community they saw several results of good farming methods. There was a 22-acre field of corn planted on the contour with terraces which, it is estimated, will produce 100 bushels to the acre where only 30 bushels were harvested 15 years ago. They also saw well-built sodded waterways and good pasture and hay crops.

In his livestock program, Mr. Stroube has 12 grade Guernsey cows which averaged almost 8,000 pounds of milk and 400 pounds of butterfat last year. All the cows were raised on the farm. Through the use of good registered bulls and by saving the best heifers, herd production was raised from an average of 250 pounds of butterfat and 5,000 pounds of milk to its present level.

Mr. Stroube also keep four sows from which he markets 40 to 50 pigs annually. This year he used two sloping farrowing houses without the loss of a pig, although two sows usually mash three to four pigs out of each litter.

Farm Agent R. A. Mambry reports that Mr. Stroube also has a flock of 30 ewes which grossed about $30 a ewe.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express thanks to all our neighbors and friends who sent cards and flowers and those who called on me in Christ Hospital. I also wish to thank Brother Johnson, Brother Reed, Brother Holland, Brother Wilson for their prayers and may God bless everyone. 1p

ON KENTUCKY FARMS

Green county producers of Ky 21 fescue harvested 30,000 pounds of clean seed for sale locally.

It is expected that Pendleton county farmers will produce the highest yield of corn on record in that county.

It is estimated that more than 10,000 acres of corn in river bottoms of Ballard county were sprayed with 2,4-D for weed control.

Clark county homemakers made more than 350 cotton dresses for afternoon and dressup occasions, play-time and housework.

Sudan grass was the leading emergency pasture in July for dairy farmers of Hickman county.

About 2,000 acres of Ladino clover were seeded in Russell county this year.

Bath county farm entrances are being improved and stencilled mail boxes, painted gates, stock grossings and plantings.

Approximately 98 percent of the corn grown in Lyon county this year was of the hybrid variety.

As a result of the 1948 drought in Fleming county, 10 times as many dairymen as formerly seeded Sudan grass and soybeans.

Shelby county homemakers clubs purchased two sewing machines and five pinking shears for 4-H club use.

Paul D. Combest of Casey county has an acre of Kenland clover that produced 108 pounds of seed at the first cutting, instead of 108 bushels, as stated before.

MAKES HILLY LAND INTO PAYING FARM

How the sale of two hens in 1933 indirectly resulted in a 3,000-pound crop of Burley tobacco on a farm in Green county is told by County Agent John H. Ewing, Jr.

In 1932, Charlie Morrison bought a 70-acre run-down farm for $1,000. Wanting to grow grass on 1.6 acres of his most level land, he sold two hens in order to buy grass seed. The previous summer, that piece had yielded only a few sacks of corn. In 1948, it produced 3,300 pounds of tobacco.

Due to the lay of the land, Mr. Morrison divided his farm into at least 25 small plots, the largest being about five acres. One of his biggest worries has been the control of water. To solve this problem, he made diversion ditches, dams and water runways. After building a big dam, he reclaimed two acres on which he is now growing corn.

Mr. Morrison is a real conservationist, says the county agent, using all of his tobacco stalks, manure and corn stalks along with plenty of fertilizer and good seeding of grasses. His farm has considerable marl on it, and this too is being utilized.

As a result, this thrifty farmer now has a nice home, a herd of good cattle, pastures of alfalfa, orchard grass and other grasses, and fields of corn.

KENTUCKY 4-H BOY HAS CHAMPION PIG

A 225-lb. pig owned by Charles Truitt of Daviess county was grand champion at the 18th annual Evansville 4-H show and sale for Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky. It sold for $1.50 a pound. Five hundred and thirty-seven hogs were exhibited.

James Bennett of Lyon county had the reserve champion ton-litter and Glen Royster of Henderson county the reserve champion pen of three light hogs.

Other Kentuckians winning high awards included Peggy Bogarth, McLean county; D. B. Gray, Lon county, and Donald Vowels, F. S. Speaks, and Ben Gertrude and Louise Hancock, all of Union county.

50 COMBINES USED IN BRECKINRIDGE

A recent check in Breckinridge county indicates that about 50 combines are now in operation in that county. Inasmuch as the saving of home-grown seed is encouraged by the Agricultural Extension Service, their use is highly commendable, points out Farm Agent Kenneth A. Brabant. To Aug. 1, the machines had harvested almost 40,000 pounds of redtop seed, 10,000 of timothy, 5,000 of orchard grass and more than 100,000 pounds of Ky. 31 fescue. During past favorable seasons, approximately 50,000 pounds of red clover and 100,000 pounds of Korean lespedeza were harvested annually in the county.

KITCHEN CHANGES SAVE WORK, TIME

Homemakers in Southern Madison and Rockcastle counties are finding that small improvements in their kitchens often mean big savings in work or time. Here are some of the ideas gained from a storage lesson, and reported to Mrs. Lelia W. Jasper, home agent.

Mrs. C. G. Stewart covered all shelves with linoleum for easier cleaning, added racks to cabinet door for spices and small supplies and made three step-shelves for added shelf space in cupboards. Mrs. Edgar Shivel placed hooks on the inside of cabinet doors for hanging measuring cups singly, with a handy memo pad and pencil nearby. Mrs. Clay Colson placed cup hooks at eye level on a cupboard door for hanging the recipe card being used, and Mrs. B. T. Humfleet sealed cracks and corners of drawers for meal and flour by brushing them inside with melted paraffin.

PICKLE PROBLEMS CLEARLY EXPLAINED

Tested recipes for making pickles made in the fall, such as piccalilli, chili sauce, cabbage chow chow and corn relish are given in a new circular, No. 404, "Making Pickles and Relishes." Written by Miss Florence Imlay and Mrs. Pearl Haak, canning specialists at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, it tells how to avoid some of the common faults of pickles, such as shriveling, softness, or too dark or too pale coloring. Recipes for pear and cantaloupe pickles as well as cucumber, are included. Copies may be had from offices of county or home agents, or from the college, Lexington.

CLUB HOUSE POSSIBLE THROUGH COOPERATION

The thriving farming community of Steele Creek in Gallatin county has an attractive club house due to the cooperation of the Fiscal Court, the local 4-H club, the homemakers club and of other adult leaders, relates Miss Jewell Wilson, home demonstration agent.

Formerly a one-room school house, the building was deeded to the 4-H club upon consolidation of rural schools in the county. Renovation started in the fall of 1947 when 4-Her's and their leaders painted the exterior. Next was the wiring of the building for electricity, the young people paying their share with funds raised at an ice cream social. Then came the painting of the interior. Old benches and chairs were painted by the homemakers, husbands having repaired them. Present plans for the light, inviting room were completed with the hanging of cream window shades and floral draperies.

Future plans of the homemakers clubs of 14 members include providing equipment for serving refreshments, sanding and refinishing the floor and buying additional chairs.

LAND BUILT UP

On a field too poor to grow corn 10 years ago, John Blandford of Washington county is now producing from 50 to 80 bushels of corn to the acre. He did it, said County Agent Trell Young, by using marl and superphosphate and growing a good grass and legume mixture.

How grass, Ladino clover, small grain and sweet clover prevent erosion on bottomland was seen in Cumberland county, following heavy rains.

4-H'ERS DRIVE TRACTORS

A 4-H club tractor-dirlving contest attracted a large crowd at the Greenup County Fair. Boys enrolled in the tractor maintenance project checked tractors, hooked them to manure spreaders and ran the outfits around a prescribed course, and then backed the spreaders into a machine shed.

E. W. Richmond of Daviess county has increased his ewe flock to 350 head, one of the two largest flocks in the county.

BETTER SEASONING OF LUMBER ADVISED

A plea for better seasoning of lumber is made by W. E. Jackson, extension forester for the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Buildings constructed of improperly seasoned or green lumber may bring big repair bills later on, as a result of checking, splitting and warping, he said.

Farmers making lumber on their own farms were advised to cut trees in late fall or winter. Sawing before the following summer may head off rot, strain and insect damage. If sawing cannot be done, the logs should be rolled in piles in dry places, with the low logs off the ground.

Sawed lumber is seasoned by staking so air can circulate under and through the stacks. This means on a foundation raised off the ground, and boards between layers, to permit free circulation of air.

Some points made by Forester Jackson:

Cut timber and have it sawed in late fall, or not later than early spring.

Locate piles of seasoning lumber on well-drained sites.

Roof the piles of lumber to prevent excessive season of top planks and to protect from weather.

Season lumber long enough to reduce moisture content to 15 percent.

Eyestrain Season Is Here!

Shorter days and longer nights mean that you and your family will be spending more time indoors, reading, studying, sewing and otherwise giving your eyes more work to do. Make sure you have plenty of good light for easy seeing by doing these three things now.

1. Clean lamp shades, diffusing bowls and enclosing globes of light-robbing films of dust and grime.
2. Fill empty sockets and replace blackened bulbs with bright new bulbs of the correct sizes.
3. Stock spare bulbs in assorted sizes to replace burn-outs as they occur.

Your lamp bulb dealer or this company will gladly recommend the right-sized bulbs for every lamp and fixture in your home. Get the bulbs you need today. Enjoy better light tonight.

BUILDING MATERIAL FURNISHED BY FARM

A. B. Brown of Casey county has cut at least 50,000 board feet of lumber from his woodland in the past 20 years. His house, barn and four outbuildings were built from home-grown lumber. Most of the fence posts used on the farm were also cut there. Wilson J. Mitchell, assistant in forestry, stated that 3,745 board feet of lumber were recently marked for cutting.

2,4-D USED TO KILL COCKLEBURS IN CORN

Farmers in Estill county who used 2,4-D on their cornfields have found they no longer dread cockleburs. Clay Dixon of the Pryse community, for example, treated about 40 acres of river bottom land. On an acre which was not treated but plowed, the cockleburs in the row looked like they had been drilled in with the corn, while the treated plots were practically free of all weeds. According to Farm Agent Fred Brockman, 2,000 acres of corn in the county were treated with 2,4-D this year, and chiefly with hand sprayers. Excellent results in controlling cocklebuns were noted throughout the county.

What is a Call of God?

Lesson for October 8, 1950

IF YOU knew exactly what God wanted you to do, would you do it? Of course you would. The trouble is: How does any one know what God's will is?

Dr. Foreman

For example, a young man is thinking about his life's work; what shall he choose? Most young men would do what they were sure God called them to do, but what is a call?

The story of Isaiah throws some light on this problem. (We are beginning this week a three months' study of the great prophets Isaiah and Jeremiah.) True, he lived some 2700 years ago, and half way to the other side of the world; but human nature has not changed in 2700 years.

• • •

From Man about Town To Man of God

ISAIAH was a young man about town, in the small but wealthy city of Jerusalem, about 700 years before Christ. He was a personal friend of all the important people, a man of good education, with wide horizons of interest, of independent means, eloquent, polished, the sort of man who makes a good career diplomat.

He tells in some detail the story of how he came to be a prophet. The story is in Isaiah 6. Perhaps if we had been there with a camera and a wire recorder we might have been able to photograph the seraphim and take down their cries, just as Isaiah saw and heard them.

What we do know is that that experience changed Isaiah's life. Up to that time (on his own showing) he had been a "man of unclean lips;" from that time on he began to be a spokesman for the Lord. Let us try to say what the story of that life-changing vision, that call, means in terms of our own experience.

• • •

The Flame of God

FIRST there was the overwhelming sense of God's reality and power and holy majesty. No one can ever experience a call who does not take God seriously.

A God "afar off," a God who is only a problem, an idea, a hypothesis, never called any one. God alone can make himself real to man; and only a man with a real sense of a living God is going to hear his call.

Next came Isaiah's realization of his own unfitness and sin. A man who feels equal to a great task is probably not equal to it. "Them as knows nawthin' fears nawthin'," as the Irish say. A man who feels good enough to serve God, just as he is, is not good enough. A man without a sense of sin is too full of it.

Then comes the burning coal from the altar; Isaiah feels that his guilt is gone. No one can fully do God's will with an unforgiven heart. Isaiah was not sinless at one stroke, of course, yet it is possible to turn from all known sin; it is possible to devote one's loyalty to God; and this Isaiah did.

It was only then that he heard the call: Whom shall I send? In modern and less picturesque language, Isaiah was conscious of a need he had not felt before—that is, of God's need, of his people's need.

What those needs were will come out in later studies. The point is that young Isaiah, who hitherto had lived only for himself, now saw the need of the city and the people among whom he lived.

• • •

"Here Am I; Send Me."

THEN comes the last stage—Isaiah's willing offer of himself. His great talent was the ability to use language. He could make words march and sing as few men of any race have done. But up to that time, it seems, his gift of eloquence had been used chiefly in telling dirty stories.

Now he has repented, and been forgiven, and he says to God: Use me. His voice, his knowledge, his eloquence, which he had been using against God (or at best, only for Isaiah) he was now to use for God and man.

So there is a call: A sense of God, near and commanding and holy; repentance; forgiveness; a sense of need; willingness to devote all one's gifts to fill that need.

X-Ray Shot Fitting Can Be Dangerous, Report

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

"Shoes fitted by X-ray," sounds like a good idea doesn't it? You put on the new shoes, stand with your feet under a machine and tell by looking at the encased bones within the shoes whether they fit or not. Well, it may seem a good idea, but it doesn't work, according to the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists. In fact, says the conference, it's a potentially dangerous practice and ought to be stopped or restricted by law.

As a customer you're interested in getting a pair of shoes that fit. A competent shoe salesman can do a good job of fitting shoes without the use of an X-ray machine, says the conference statement. "The method has doubtful scientific basis and is used mainly as a sales promotion device."

Besides being largely worthless, X-ray shoe fitting machines can be dangerous, according to the conference statement. When you are X-rayed in the course of a physical examination the doctor or technician takes elaborate precautions to protect you and himself from being over exposed to radiation. The X-ray machine must be checked frequently to make sure that its rays are not too powerful. The operator works behind a lead shield or wears a heavy apron to protect himself from prolonged or frequent exposure.

The shoe salesman is not an X-ray technician, and cannot be expected to know how to protect himself or his customer from getting an overdose of X-rays. Many manufacturers claim that their machines have automatic devices to eliminate the dangers but there are many makes of machines in many shoe stores and it would be costly for authorities to check up on all of them in view of the fact that they are of little or no value.

We don't use X-ray machines and never did use X-ray in our store.—Adv.

SAY YES FOR YOU and YOURS

It's you, fellow Kentuckian—it's all of us everyday citizens—who suffer because the state constitution limits public salaries to $5,000 a year.

Because of that limit we can't open our five new tuberculosis hospitals. Doctors with the necessary training and experience can't be had for $5,000. And so Kentuckians will die and others will sicken, and you and yours and all your kinsfolk and friends will have to run the risk of infection.

Because of the limit, our hospitals for people ill in mind are kept to a care-taker basis. The help that would make useful citizens out of thousands now in custody can't be hired at the 1891 level of pay.

Because of the limit, our whole school system suffers. Who wants to enter a state profession in which the highest officer can earn only $5,000?

Because of the limit, our colleges and our university suffer, too. They lose men and women to out-of-state institutions. They lose men and women to industry. They feel insecure.

Because of the limit, our public-health program throughout the state is badly crippled, and is being crippled more and more day by day.

Because of the limit the farmer is poorer. Agricultural specialists, research men, conductors of experiments—these aren't attracted to a state that offers them no future. If attracted, they don't stay. The men we do have remain in their positions only out of great devotion to their institutions and their state.

Because of the limit we can't develop and operate our park and recreational system so as to give healthful enjoyment to our own people or so as to attract tourists and get the tourists' dollars.

Because of the limit our highway program is faltering and expensive. We have to engage on a part-time or job basis—at far more than a $5,000 annual rate—the experts without whose help we just can't proceed.

Because of the limit every service of state itself is limited. Every one is made needlessly expensive in terms of performance.

What we're saying is: Because of the limit, you suffer. You pay. But you don't get full service for your tax dollar. You get a partial, unsatisfactory, expensive, pinch-penny service. And it's your fault, and ours, and every citizen's. It's our fault because we haven't seen earlier that we'd have to remove the constitutional barrier to progress.

At the election November 8 you'll have an opportunity to make a better Kentucky—a better Kentucky for you and yours—by voting for Constitutional Amendment No. 2. It will make possible an adjustment of official salaries. And it will help mightily to cure our ills.

If you want to know more about the working effects of the salary limit, fill out the coupon below. We'll send you, without charge, a booklet that tells the full story. It's honest, it's factual, it's informative.

Petersburg And Burlington To Meet For Championship

In Three-Out-of-Five Series, Beginning Saturday, Oct. 8.

It will be Petersburg against Burlington in a 3-out-of-5 series for the championship of the Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League championship beginning next Saturday, October 8 at the Petersburg ball park. Game time will be 2:30 and admission will be fifty cents.

Pete Eliminates Florence

Petersburg, regular season winners, eliminated Florence last week with a nineteen-hit barrage good for 21 runs as against five runs and five hits for the losers. Eddie and D. Deck pitched for the winners and each fanned nine of the would-be Florence hitters. The big blow of the contest was a home run by Edwards, Pete first sacker, with two aboard. L. Deck and S. Shinkle were on the receiving end for the winners with Utz, Roland and Brooks forming the losing battery.

Manager Bolivar Shinkle of Petersburg will select his starting nine next week from the following squad: Ruthford C. Llyons, Henry R. Deck, Claude G. Edwards, H. D. Deck, Galen S. Burns, Louis H. Deck, Ralph Bradburn, John Ed Carver, Bill Toadvine, Edward M. Deck, Harold P. Huey, Samuel P. Shinkle, Boyd Mahan, Albert Sebree and Al Relbling.

Winner Gets Trophy

The series winner will be presented a trophy at the close of the final contest. The trophy is being presented by Mr. Robert Eades, league president.

Merchants To Sponsor "Covington Days"

Prompted by the great success of "Covington Days" last June, Retail Merchants' Association of Northern Kentucky will sponsor another one of these outstanding shopping events, with most of the Covington stores participating.

The dates are Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15. All co-operating stores will remain open that Friday until 9:00 p. m. in addition to the usual Saturday night opening. Opening hours remain unchanged.

As the purpose of this major two-day sale is to promote the City of Covington as a shopping center, participating stores are preparing to offer extremely low-price "specials" of high-grade merchandise in sufficient quantities to satisfy the most economically minded shopper.

As formerly, The Recorder will carry many of these announcements in next week's issue.

Mrs. Reynold Todtenbier returned home Sunday after being ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington for several days.

Burlington And Florence Football Teams To Tangle

Tonight At Burlington Field In Six-Man Football Conference Tilt.

One of the feature six-man football games of the season will be on tap at the Boone County field in Burlington tonight (Thursday), October 6, when Burlington's high flying Eagles tangle with the Florence Knights. Both teams have won two games and lost none and tonight's winner will take undisputed lead in the Northern Kentucky Six-Man Conference.

Florence holds a 12-6 win over Hebron and a 50 to zero shellacking over Dry Ridge while the Eagles swamped Dry Ridge 59-12 and Hebron 53-20.

Eagles Over Cards

With versatile Jim Ryle putting on a one-manshow plus some brilliant play by Bill McBee, Bill Cave, Wayne Kelly and Gayle Rouse, Coach Edwin Walton's Burlington Eagles overpowered Hebron's Cardinals last Thursday night by a 53-20 score. The Eagles scored in the first minute of play and the first time they handled the leather on a long pass from Ryle to McBee. Ryle also threw three more touchdown passes to McBee and added three touchdowns himself on long runs. Bob Patterson, another fast back, tallied Burlington's eighth toughdown and McBee kicked two through the uprights for four extra points and threw a pass to Ryle for the winner's other score.

Tanner, Bowman, Zeigler and Day looked best for Hebron. Tanner scored two of Hebron's touchdowns and looked especially sharp on many plays.

Florence Takes Ridgers

Florence rolled over Dry Ridge last Friday night at Dry Ridge's field by a 50-0 score. The Knights held a 43-0 halftime margin with Markesbery, Roland, England, Hennemann and Brown hitting pay dirt. The Knights substituted freely in the final period of the game.

Local Schools To Participate In State Essay Contest

Sponsored by Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers.

All schools in Boone County are eligible to participate in a $400 State Essay Contest announced this week by the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers. Prizes will be given the best essays urging voter approval of a Constitutional Amendment to raise the State's $5,000 salary limit.

Topic for the 750-word essays is "How We Can Make a Better Kentucky by Passing Kentucky's Health, Welfare, Salary Limit and Education Amendment." Rules and background material have been mailed to all schools.

The author of the best essay will win $100. Second prize is $50 and third, $25. Nine Congressional District prizes of $25 will be given. All will be U. S. Savings Bonds. All these winners also will be given a free trip to Louisville with a parent on November 5 to receive the awards.

Mrs. John E. Kirksey, Congress president, said her organization hoped the contest would bring home to students and parents the vital need for raising salary limits. At present, she said, good teachers and administrators are moving out of the State. The contest has the enthusiastic support of Boswell B. Hodgkin, State superintendent of public instruction.

All schools are to turn essays into the county superintendent prior to October 22. He has been asked to select a judging board to meet Oct. 24. Winning essays in each county will be forwarded to Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, 227 S. Fifth, Louisville, prior to October 26. State Judging is set for October 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meiners, of Valley View, Florence, were visitors at the county seat on Friday, September 30th.

Verona Suffers Defeat In First Game of Series

Verona suffered defeat at the hands of the Hudepohl nine in the opening game of the championship series Sunday in the Kentucky Athletic Goods Semipro Baseball League by a score of 3-0 at the Verona park.

Verona and Hudepohl will meet in the second game of the series at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Martz Playgrounds, Ross.

A crowd estimated at 2000 people attended the game which was a thriller until the seventh inning with neither team scoring until that inning. The winners collected two in the seventh and added another in the eighth.

Steffen started for Verona, pitching seven innings. He allowed two runs on three hits, while fanning five and walking three. Mike Ryan finished the game and allowed one run on two hits. He struck out two and walked two. In the first six innings, Steffen gave up one hit.

Rizzo was on the mound for the Hudepohl nine and gave up seven hits. He struck out one and walked two.

Robinson led the attack for Verona with three hits out of four trips to the plate while Bob Andres led the winners with two hits in four times at bat.

Both teams played poorly in the field, according to reports. The winners were charged with six errors, while Verona had three errors chalked up against the team. Poor base running in the ninth prevented Verona from scoring. Bill Mumm led off the inning with a single when pinch hitting for Dyke Vest. Wendell Ryan came in to bat for Mike Ryan and singled to center, but a runner in place of Mumm was thrown out attempting to take third on the play.

The Northern Kentucky Independent Food Dealers' Association's Seventh Annual Pure Food Show comes to a close Sunday night, after probably establishing a record for large attendance.

Thousands are nightly visiting this big show at the Kenton Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse, 201 Scott St., Covington, proclaiming it the best of all such exhibitions this organization has staged.

Radio stars and casts, featuring Robert Q. Lewis, appear every evening at 8:15 with audience participation and silver dollars given away. Other attractions are cooking school, radio broadcasts, free social entertainment, 100 exhibition booths; free groceries and other major awards.

Small Grain Cover Crops Approved For 1950 ACP

Credit Rates Will Be $2.50 Per Acre on Wheat and Rye; $1.50 on Barley

Establishing winter cover on cultivated land from seedings of small grains in the fall of 1949 is an approved practice in the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program, W. M. Smith, chairman of the Boone County ACA Committee, announced today.

Credit rates for small grain cover crops in the 1950 ACP will be $2.50 per acre on wheat or rye and $1.50 per acre on oats or barley.

Any mixture containing either oats or barley will qualify only for the lower rate, Mr. Smith said.

To qualify for payment under the program, a good stand and a good growth of the crops, providing protective winter cover, must be obtained and left on the land or plowed under. The crop may not be harvested for hay or grain.

Seedbeds should be well prepared and seed sown sufficiently early to permit plants to withstand winter freezes.

Although wheat acreage allotments will be in effect for 1950, all farms in Kentucky may seed wheat this fall as a winter cover crop without loss of farm price support benefits.

In order to avoid loss of wheat price support eligibility, however, farmers with wheat acreage allotments are required to obtain approval of county ACA committees before seeding wheat as a winter cover crop. No prior approval is required for this practice on farms without wheat allotments.

The "Barn Dance" show with those grand hillbilly funmakers from the hills of Old Kentucky, regular program artists of the Columbia Broadcasting Company, is being sponsored by the Boone County School News, school newspaper of all Boone County Schools.

This will be the Renfro folks first appearance in this section for several seasons and it affords their followers an opportunity to see and hear them in person.

For further information on this outstanding show of Hillbilly stars see next week's Recorder and listen to their Saturday night broadcast announcement concerning their Burlington performance.

Burlington Church Plans Rally October 9

The Burlington Methodist Church is having a rally day program Sunday, October 9th at 10 a. m. in the Sunday School, according to Howard Wilson, superintendent.

A special treat will be given the children. The public is invited to attend this service.

Florence Community Center Popular Meeting Place.

Many Activites Scheduled During Month Of October.

Florence Community Center has at once become a center of community activities. When plans for a Fire Hall were first begun it was thought that it should be combined with a meeting place where organizations could meet, entertainments be held, and around which the social and civic activities of Florence could center.

The dedication afternoon and evening drew the largest gathering Florence has ever seen. The building answers a need that has been felt for a long time. No other city in the area has such facilities for public gatherings. Nearness of motor courts and restaurants has caused Florence to be considered for a small convention to be held early next year.

Many requests have come in for use of the Community Center. Mrs. Lewis Houston and Mrs. Garnett Lucas are in charge of all arrangements and any one wishing to use the room should see them.

October 5—Youth Center.

October 6—American Legion Auxiliary card party.

October 7—Fire Prevention Week program; movies.

October 8—Mrs. Kennedy's reception.

October 12—Youth Center.

October 13—Garden Club night meeting.

Inquiries, indicate that future programs will include musicals, picture shows, amateur dramatics, hobby show, flower show, group parties, community dances and dinners.

No charge is made for use of the room. However, it is hoped that users will contribute toward the cost of heating and lighting the room for their meeting.

All persons who desire to take advantage of this discount must pay their taxes at the sheriff's office on or before November 1st.

Fifteen Ounce Apple Brought To Recorder Office

Wilbur Gray, son of William Gray of near Idlewild brought a large Clark's red delicious apple to the Recorder office Tuesday. The apple weighed 15 ounces, measured 12½ inches in circumference and was 4½ across. The apple was grown in the orchard of William Gray, of Idlewild.

Mrs. Lutie Graddy, of Wheatley, is visiting Miss Mattie Kreylich.

Florence Fire Prevention Week Set October 9-15

City Has Good Record During Past Years, According To Report.

The residents of Florence and its community are invited to a meeting at the Florence Community Center on Friday, October 7, at 8:00 p. m. Fire Chief Al Huw has prepared a most interesting program of motion pictures and exhibits showing developments in fire prevention and fire fighting methods.

Florence has a good record for fire prevention and its loss by fire through the past years has been small. As a result of this and of the efficient work of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department its fire insurance premiums rates are low. The State Fire Marshal and members of his staff have been most complimentary of the public spirit shown by the residents of Florence through their support of the Volunteer Fire Department. Pictures of the Fire Hall and Community Center, taken at the dedication, will be shown throughout the state as an example of community cooperation.

During Fire Prevention Week your attention is called to that pile of papers and magazines you have been saving to look at again. In the attic is a box of treasured, but discarded articles. There is an improperly made electric connection you have been intending to fix. The kerosene stove may leak or the box of matches may be within the reach of small children. These are hazards capable of causing loss of property or life. The recent steamship fire is an example of the power of uncontrolled fire. Building Codes are prepared and Building Inspectors are appointed in an effort to insure that homes and business houses will contain no structural features that may cause fire.

Come to your Community Center on Friday, meet your firemen, see some good pictures, have a good time.

Boone Corn Acreage Information Necessary To County ACA Office

Many Boone County farmers have not yet visited the Boone County A. C. A. office to furnish the information necessary for determining the 1950 corn acreage program for Boone County. It is necessary that all Boone County farmers come to the office not later than Friday, October 7th and furnish acreage information for corn and other crops for the years 1947, 1948, 1949.

The report is urgent and all farmers who have not yet made this report are urged to do so immediately.

BURLINGTON P.-T. A. TO PLAN HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Members of the Burlington P.-T. A. will make plans for the Hallowe'en party at the regular meeting Monday, October 17th at 7:30 p. m., it was announced this week.

All members of the organization are requested to be present for this session.

Three Hundred Boy Scouts Attend Meeting At Scout Reservation.

Dedication services for the new Van Winkle Troop Lodge of the Boone County Boy Scout reservation were held Sunday during the third annual "Wilderness Camp-o-ree" at 2:30 p. m.

The new building was constructed as a memorial to Frank Van Winkle by his son, J. M. Van Winkle Ft. Mitchell. Mr. Van Winkle was the first president of the Northern Kentucky Council.

The lodge will accommodate 32 Scouts and their leaders on an overnight hike. When used as a dining hall, it will accommodate 80 persons. A small kitchen and store room is located at the rear of the hall.

White cedar logs and stone were used in the construction of the building which is 22 by 50 feet, with a large fireplace at one end.

ONE SAFETY ARGUMENT

Some people say that the state's constitutional salary limit is high enough. As proof they point to the fact that Kentucky always has candidates for office, from governor on down.

The argument won't hold water. For one thing it doesn't take into account the unsettled problem of what constitutes an officer. Elected officials are officers, of course. But what about engineers who are appointive? What about the heads of the hospitals for the mentally ill? What about tuberculosis hospital directors, whom the state can't hire now because it feels itself bound to the limitation?

Are these officers or employees?

The nationally known Syrian Temple Shrine Chanters are giving a concert at the Lloyd High School auditorium on Thursday, October 13, at 8:15 a. m. This male chorus of forty-five voices are tops with high class music and singing, and all people in the community and adjacent towns should hear them.

The concert program is being sponsored by the Erlanger Methodist Church, which holds the tickets on sale at $1.00 each. They are going fast, so hurry and phone Dixie 7431-M or Dixie 7401.

AT

BURLINGTON SCHOOL

October 19th

At 8:00 P. M.

Are they or are they not subject to the limitation? Who knows? The Court of Appeals itself has given varying interpretations. In one opinion it said professors were employees and could be paid more than $5,000 a year. In a later one it said school superintendents were officers and came under the limitation, and it appeared to imply in that opinion that it would reverse its previous ruling if the case of the professors came before it again.

The situation obviously is intolerable. It obviously is injurious to the state, which can't be sure what it can or can't offer to the trained men we need. It discourages those very men.

There are other holes in the argument that the presence of candidates shows the limit is all right. It is bad business, bad organization, impossible administration for employees of a department to get higher salaries than the officials over them. Things just won't work that way. The salary limit does and must press down from the top on the whole personnel down to the humblest janitor. Without differences in pay, scaled down from the $5,000 there can't be difference of rank and authority.

Finally, we get down to this question: If political races always fill, what do they fill with? Not always with the best men certainly. Not always with the citizens who might be attracted to government service if the rewards were greater and financial room existed for genuinely good and helpful administration. Turf fans could testify that cheap plating races fill, too.

1000 Attend Baptist Simultaneous Rally

More than 1000 representatives of thirty-three Northern Kentucky Baptist Churches attended a giant rally at the First Baptist Church, Newport, Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Presiding over the meeting were Rev. O. J. Steger, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Newport and various other committee chairmen who had a part in the planning of the campaign. The speaker was Dr. S. F. Dowis, Secretary Department of Cooperative Missions, Home Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention, who is the general director of the evangelistic effort. Dr. Dowis' main emphasis was on personal soul winning. He stated that no single follower of Christ is absorbed from the duty and privilege of winning others to Christ. He commended the various committees for their excellent preparatory work.

Previously there had been five other special rallies in connection with planning for the simultaneous revivals. The men's rally was held at the Latonia Baptist Church with 500 men present; the speaker was Dr. Ellis Fuller of Louisville, Ky., president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. The women of North Bend and Campbell County Associations held special meetings in connection with the meetings of their missionary societies. There was an attendance of over 600 in the two youth rallies held in Newport and in Covington. Student gospel teams from Georgetown College and the University of Kentucky led these meetings.

All of these rallies led up to the Baptist Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign, which is now under way in the thirty-three Baptist churches in Campbell, Kenton and Boone counties.

Scout Executive Speaker At Florence Rotary Club

Guest speaker at the Monday night meeting of the Florence Rotary Club was Mr. Edward J. Boudrie. Mr. Boudrie is Field Scout Executive of the Northern Kentucky Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The history of the Boy Scout movement in the United States was the subject of his talk. The northern Kentucky area should be proud of its part in this movement, Mr. Boudrie pointed out, because a native of northern Kentucky, Daniel Beard probably has done more than any other individual in leading the Scout movement during the 39 years of existence in this country.

Mr. Boudrie also told of the location and development of the Boy Scout Camp on Gunpowder Creek near Union. It is the desire of the Northern Kentucky Council to interest every eligible boy in the county in the Boy Scout or the Cubs and to enlist the aid of as many adults as possible in developing this movement in Boone County.

THE ABC's THAT FEW PEOPLE KNOW

There's a new set of ABC's since you went to school. It's a shorter alphabet, but it is far more difficult to master than the one you learned in first grade. Instead of "A for Apple, B for Boy, and C for Cat," it goes "A for preventing certain eye disorders; B for certain types of loss of appetite, and nervous fatigue; C for certain diseases affecting the teeth and gums; and D for safeguarding against weak bones."

This is the start of the Vitamin Alphabet. With it you can spell better health for yourself and your family if you know which letters to use. It isn't easy, however. The infant, adolescent, the adult, the convalescent, and the woman expecting a baby have different vitamin needs and no one product fits them all.

Few adults know their vitamin ABC's well enough to use them properly . . . and so they depend upon their physician to advise and their pharmacist to supply them with exactly the product they need. Such products can't be bought as you would buy butter and eggs. In vitamins, as in all matters affecting your health and well-being, there is no substitute for professional guidance.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!

There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.

Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.

Burlington Eagles Take Third Game In Conference Tilt

Hebron Cards Trounce Dry Ridge Friday by Score of 21-0.

The Burlington Eagles, who are rapidly becoming the standout team in the Northern Kentucky six-man Football Conference won their third consecutive game last Thursday night with a convincing 53-13 victory over a game but outmanned Florence Knight team at the local field.

Scoring in every quarter, the Eagles were on top at all quarter stops and held a 41-0 lead before several regulars gave way to some lighter and less experienced boys. The quarter scores were 21-0, 34-0 and 41-6.

On the second offensive play of the game by Burlington, Jim Ryle intercepted a Knight aerial and hot-footed it for sixty yards and pay dirt. McBee on a series of line plunges finally went over from the eleven yard stripe for the second score and late in the first quarter Cropper scored from the thirteen yard marker on a quarterback sneak.

Butch Walton opened the scoring in the second period with a twenty-five yard run and McBee scored later in the same period on a 15-yard jaunt. The Eagles added four more to their total in the first half on a kick conversion by McBee and two passes.

In the third quarter Walton hit pay dirt on another 25-yard sprint and then the Knights picked up their first score on a long pass from Martin to England. The last period saw Burlington add two more TD's on Kelly's line plunge from the five and a 25-yard end run by Cropper.

Section 246 of Statutes Should Be Amended. Attorney General Says

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 12—The Kentucky constitution with its salary-limit section "not only confuses the public generally, but the lawyers and our Court of Appeals," Attorney General A. E. Funk said this week.

"In order to obtain competent personnel for the operation of various institutions of our state government, it can readily be seen that Section 246 (the salary-limit section) of our present constitution of Kentucky should be amended so salaries within a limited boundary may be fixed by the General Assembly," he went on.

"Until this is accomplished, it will be impossible to obtain competent personnel for our institutions . . ."

General Funk cited three opinions of the Court of Appeals.

The first of them held that by "public officers" the constitution meant both officers and employees of state, and that all of them came under the salary ceiling.

The second ruled that an employee was not an officer; hence that a university professor as an employee was not subject to the limit.

The third and most recent of the three opinions held that a city school superintendent and an assistant superintendent were officers and hence couldn't draw more than five thousand dollars a year.

The court split, four to three, in the third case. The complexion of things could be changed, General Funk pointed out by the "change of one person on our Court of Appeals, agreeing with the dissenting opinions."

Even if the limitation, as interpreted at present, doesn't apply to employees, "it can readily be seen," said General Funk, "that professional men will not accept employment with the state government where it is possible that they may in the future be limited by the provisions of Section 246."

Earlier, in a talk at Louisville, Judge Charles I. Dawson had said a "no man's land" existed in the state service as a consequence of the salary limit and the opinions interpreting it. He referred to the question of whether a man in any given case is an employee or officer, indicating that in advance of a specific opinion from the court, no one could be sure about the application of the salary limit.

Both men are supporters of Constitutional Amendment No. 2, to be voted on in November, which would raise the salary ceiling and clarify the language.

Baldwin, in practice at 27 East 7th St., Covington.

Interesting Information Concerning Burlington Found In Collins History

The community has two schools, seven lawyers, five doctors, five stores, two taverns, one shoe and boot store, one wool factory, eight mechanics' shops, and a population of 200."

Boone County Names To Be Listed On Memorial Colliseum at Lexington

Work has commenced on the lettering of the namcs of Kentuckians who lost their lives in the armed services during World War II for the Memorial Colliseum at the University of Kentucky, according to an announcement received by this paper Monday.

This list is to contain the names of members of the armed services who lost their lives between November, 1940, the date the first draftees were inducted, and December 31, 1946, the date of the President's declaration of cessation of hostilities. Those who died in service before or after these dates are not to be included; nor are those whose death occurred after discharge. Every effort has been made to obtain exact information so that no name is omitted that should be included, and, also, so that no name is included that should not be.

Persons who have failed to send in the required information requested by the University should do so immediately. There are four names included in the County list according to the report, with information incomplete.

Information should be sent to Ezra L. Gillis, Director Kentucky War Memorial Survey, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky.

Petersburg drew first blood in the three-best-out-of-five Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League series last week at the local park when they trimmed Burlington ten to two. The winners banged out 18 hits and scored in seven of the nine innings.

Johnny Woods started on the mound for Burlington but was relieved by Ivan Culley in the fifth. For Petersburg, the veteran Dutch Reibling was on the hill. He gave up only eight bingles and fanned ten.

Sebree, L. Deck and Reibling were the big sluggers for the winners with each getting three safeties. H. Deck also waded in with a homer and single. For Burlington "Tots" Gulley had three singles.

Next Game at Pete

The second series game will be played at Petersburg next Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Probably starting lineups and battings orders will be: Petersburg—Bradburn 3b, Mahan 1b, Shinkle cf, Reibling p, Sebree lf, Edwards ss, E. Deck rf, L. Deck c, and H. Deck 2b; Burlington—King cf, Ryle ss, Mumm lf, Conner 3b, Clore rf, McBee 1b, Gulley c and I. Culley p.

Good Game Expected

The second game is expected to see both teams at full strength. Burlington's regular and most reliable pitcher Ivan Gulley, who failed to start last week because of a severe cold is reported to be in shape for the coming contest and as all baseball fans know a Petersburg ball club, and especially a good one as they have this season, will be tough in their own back yard.

Local Boy Member Of University Band

MAKES PROTEIN

Protein is the nutrient which, when eaten by farm animals, is converted into lean meat, hair, hide, hoofs, eggs, and milk. Their rations must contain a goodly amount of it.

You can buy it in a feed bag or you can grow it. Smart farmers grow all they can. The first step is to lime the soil. Practically all high-protein plants, such as the legumes and better grasses, require a properly limed soil.

Use agricultural limestone regularly on your farm and you will grow not only more feed but it will have a higher content of protein and minerals.

CHRIST AND THE FIREMAN

"The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10:10.

Fire, like all forces of nature, when understood and controlled, is the finest thing in the world. When it is not understood and controlled it can be like the thief who comes only to steal, kill and destroy. This will cook our food, warm our bodies and bring us comfort. It will also steal our possessions, kill our children and destroy our homes. The fireman's duty can well be summed up in, understanding and controlling fire.

Christ and the fireman have a unique relationship. For Christ, anything is a thief that robs man of the abundant life, whether it be man or element. Fire can sneak into a cluttered attic, a littered cellar, a faulty chimney, a bad electric connection or by electric storm without a moment's notice. Each year millions of dollars and thousands of lives are lost by fire. Fire through explosives and flame-throwers was the war's most dangerous weapon. Thus it can truly be said that fire can rob man of the abundant life.

The fireman with Christ in his soul, sees his service in terms of saving and protecting human life. Christ is the Chief of all operations. When a lifeless body is carried in his arms from a burning building, Christ is always by his side. Christ holds the ladder that holds the friend of the family, the fireman. The fireman answers each call with the strength and courage that Christ brings as they work together in a common cause.

During this Fire Prevention Week, we ought to pause to see how Christ and the Fireman may be one, as together they bring and preserve the abundant life that we all love. Christ must be more appreciated in Florence, Boone County and the world. Our volunteer fireman must be more appreciated by the people. We owe our fireman our gratitude for their courage and faith and that portion of abundant life that they are able to bring—H. L. (Sam) Reid, minister Florence Christian Church.

THE Best BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Deserves THE Best FINANCING in the world!
There's no better, no more friendly source of long-term, low interest rate farm loans than the cooperative, farmer-owned system of national farm loan associations. It is through these associations that more than one million farmers have obtained Federal Land Bank loans. Every farmer who gets a Federal Land Bank loan becomes a member of his local national farm loan association. Only farmers can become members and only members can vote in the association affairs.
Yes, farming is the best business in the world. And, Federal Land Bank loans are the best financing in the world. They're first choice with farmers throughout the nation.
Remember this,—there are no application fees, no appraisal fees, and no renewal commissions. So, protect your business, your future, and your family. Finance the farm you buy, or refinance debt you now have through your locally-owned, farmer-control national farm loan association with a long-term, 4 percent Federal Land Bank loan.
For your convenience I will be at the Old Recorder Building in Burlington each Friday at 10 to 12 a. m.; and at other times at my office in the Wiggington Building in Williamstown.

Care of the Feet

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

The human body is a wonderful structure of energy and beauty, and like an architectural structure, depends primarily on the strength of its foundation—the feet. The feet are the most overworked part of the body and function under unfavorable conditions, usually resulting in (1) weakening, (2) impairment, and (3) discomfort.

Facts—Ninety per cent of all people in the country suffer from some kind of foot trouble, and many of them suffer all their lives without knowing the source of their ailments.

Just think, the skeleton or frame work of the human foot contains 26 bones (a person's feet contain more than one fourth of the two hundred bones of the entire human frame). When the bones become abnormally positioned, as when the metatarsel bones or arches drop, it affects other component parts of the feet such as muscles, ligaments, tendons and nerves.

The same applies when a bone is pressing on the blood vessels that traverse the foot when pains are the result of this pressure they can and should be relieved.

Always remember this, painful feet interfere with one's work, discourage the exercise as vital to health, spoil life's pleasure and make a person feel miserable. One should never neglect the feet.

Never was there a truer saying than "WHEN YOUR FEET HURT, YOU HURT ALL OVER."—Adv.

Verona Chalks Up Second Victory In Semipro Series

Needs One Victory To Cop Championship of KAG League.

The Verona baseball club moved to within one game of the championship of the KAG Semipro Baseball League by trouncing the Hudepohl nine 12-5 Sunday afternoon at the Verona park, in the third game of the series.

Verona now has two victories to its credit and needs but one more game to cop the championship. The teams will meet at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Marts Playgrounds.

Mike Ryan was on the hill for Verona and allowed 10 scattered hits. He fanned four and walked eight. Hank Rizzo, who pitched a shutout against the Verona boys in the opening game of the series was touched for 11 hits. His teammates contributed to his defeat by committing eight errors. Rizzo walked two and struck out five.

The local boys scored four times in the first inning. Robinson opened the batting by drawing a base on balls. Bauman sacrificed and was safe on an error. Alexander moved both runners up with a sacrifice. Brown doubled, scoring Robinson and Bauman. Williamson singled, scoring Hayes, but was out attempting to take second.

Verona added four more runs in the second frame. Mike Ryan singled with one out. Dyke Vest, who replaced Robinson in left field, sacrificed and beat it out for a hit. Bauman hit to short and when Alessandro tossed wild to second, Ryan scored, Vest went to third and Bauman to second. Alexander was purposely passed to fill the bases. Brown grounded to third and all hands were safe on Hesse's low throw to home as Vest scored. Hayes hit to short and on the attempted double play, Michael threw wild to first and Bauman and Alexander scored with the third and fourth runs of the inning.

The losers chalked up one run in the third on a walk to Rizzo and a triple by Andrea. They added two in the first of the fourth.

Verona collected their final run in the fourth. Brown led the winners with three hits, while Vest, Alexander and Hayes added two each.

E. & W. Eliminated

Petersburg Youth Loses Fingers In Accident Friday

Kenneth Stephens, Jr., 18, son of Kenneth Stephens, Sr., Petersburg, suffered severe injuries to his right hand Friday while attempting to clean out a corn picker on their farm.

The corn picker had choked up and young Stephens attempted to remove the obstruction without stopping the machine. His glove was caught by the machinery, twisting his hand into a set of rollers. He lost three fingers and part of a thumb on his right hand in the accident.

He was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington for treatment, where his condition is reported as "fair."

Ryle-Humphrey

Miss Norma Ryle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan Ryle, of Hebron and George Humphrey, of Francesville were quietly married Saturday afternoon, Oct. 15 by the Rev. Harmon Eggleston, uncle of the groom, at his home in Ft. Thomas.

The attendants were Miss Hazel Lee McWethy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley McWethy, of Union, niece of the bride; and Earle Sprague of Taylorsport, cousin of the groom.

After the ceremony the wedding party journeyed to Doc's Place, Dixie Highway, Erlanger, where a lovely wedding dinner awaited them.

The happy young couple left immediately for DuPont Lodge, Cumberland Falls State Park, for their honeymoon. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends in New Castle, Ky., where the groom will be associated in business with his uncle, R. H. Eggleston dealer in hardware and Westinghouse appliances.

Kennedy-Utley

An early Autumn event of particular interest in the Florence community was the candlelight wedding at 7:30 p. m., Oct. 8, 1949 performed in the Florence Christian Church uniting Miss Jean Kennedy and Mr. Roy Nelson Utley. The bride is the daughter of Walter L. Kennedy of Birmingham, Ala., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cam Kennedy.

The altar was banked with palms, ferns and other greenery, intermingled with baskets of white chrysanthemums and spires of white gladioli and over all fell the soft glow of candlelight. Pews for close friends and relatives were marked with bows of white satin ribbon.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Robt. Moore, soprano, sang 'Always," "Because" and the traditional 'I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harold Martin who also played Lohengrin's Wedding March as the bridal party entered the church.

After the vows had been spoken Mrs. Moore sang the "Lord's Prayer." Rev. H. L. Reid performed the impressive double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather Cam Kennedy.

The bride's white slipper satin gown was fashioned along princess lines with full skirt and train that fell from a fitted long-sleeved bodice. Her illusion veil was held to her head by a coronet of seed pearls caught on either side by a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried red roses and baby breath.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Florence Community Hall with Mrs. Rowland Hinsch, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Victor Lampe, a cousin, presiding at the punch bowls.

The happy couple departed by plane for an undisclosed destination. Following their honeymoon trip they will reside on McAlpin Ave., Erlanger.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. G. R. Lemons, of Pontiac, Mich., and Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Stella Harter, Dayton, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Connelly, of Frankfort; and Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Hinsch and daughters Mary Rowlyn and Nancy Ann of Middletown, Ohio.

We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Utley much happiness and prosperity as they embark upon the sea of matrimony.

Mrs. J. K. Cropper, Mrs. C. L. Cropper, Mrs. R. I. Rouse, Mrs. Wm. Oliver, Mrs. Robert Clore and Mrs. A. H. Jones spent last Friday in Aurors, Ind.

Petersburg Takes Second Game Of Championship Series

Over Burlington By Score of 12-5; Third Game Set at Petersburg.

Petersburg's baseball club looks more like the "Yankees' of Boone County Saturday Afternoon Baseball League series after the first two games of the three-best-of-five encounters between them and Burlington. Petersburg won the second game Saturday by a 12 to 5 score.

Both teams scored three runs in the opening inning and it was a close, well played game until the fifth when the winners found the range and added three more. They scored two more in the sixth, three in the seventh and added a single tally in the eighth. Burlington scored one in the fifth and another in their half of the ninth.

Burlington opened the first inning scoring when Gulley singled with one down, Conner fanned, Mumm walked and Jim Ryle drove out a long home run to left center to clear the sacks. Petersburg tied the count in their half on singles by Bradburn and Mahan and a double by Shinkle combined with an outfield fly and a Burlington infield error.

Petersburg's big inning came in the fifth when successive singles by Bradburn, Mahan and Shinkle, a base on balls to Reibling and a single by Sebree accounted for three more tallies. The loser's added one on a single by Gulley, a stolen base and a single by Clore. The next two for Petersburg came in the sixth when Deck and Mahan were hit by pitched balls and Shinkle tripled. Their three run seventh was a result of E. Deck's single, a triple by L. Deck, an error and Bradburn's single.

Burlington's last run came in the ninth on hits by Rouse and Clore and a fly by King.

The third game of the series will be played at the Petersburg park Saturday, Oct. 22, according to managers Shinkle and Ryle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. May entertained for dinner on Tuesday night, Mrs. A. N. Morrison, Miss Rita Bellersen and Miss Ruth Wright, all of Cincinnati.

Farm Program Committees Get New Name

Under Regulations Set Up September 29; Officers Elected Annually

Elected county and community committees responsible for local administration of Production and Marketing Administration programs of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are designated as "Production and Marketing Administration County and Community Committees" in U. S. D. A. regulations issued September 29.

The committees were first established under the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to provide for local administration of AAA programs. In later years the committees became known as ACP (Agricultural Conservation Program) Committees. More recently the committees were known as ACA (Agricultural Conservation Association) Committees or just Agricultural Conservation Committees.

In 1947, after the Production and Marketing Administration was formed in the U. S. Department of Agriculture in 1945, State Committees responsible for administration of PMA programs were changed to "State PMA Committees," but the titles of county and community committees were left unchanged.

The September 29 regulations officially designate these county and community committees as Production and Marketing Administration County and Community Committees.

National farm programs administered by the committees include the Agricultural Conservation Program, Marketing Quota Programs, Price Support Programs, and certain phases of the Federal Crop Insurance Program.

Present members of the Boone County PMA Committee are W. M. Smith, William Hill, and Joseph A. Huey. Both county and community PMA committeemen are elected annually.

Sixty-Third Year Of Constance Building and Loan Co. Started Oct. 10

The Constance Building & Loan Company of Constance, Ky., began its sixty-third year of incorporation on October 10, 1949 by the annual election of directors and officers. Freeno, assistant secretary; Frank Fisher and Elsa Howard, tellers.

The regular meetings of the company are on Monday evenings from 7:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m.

Many Farmers Fail To Complete Acreage Reports

The Boone County A. C. A. Committee has announced that although over 1000 Boone County farmers have completed their farm acreage reports, there are still many who have not called at the office and made this report.

This report is necessary in order to determine if Boone County will have corn allotments for 1950, and all farmers should make this report even though they do not sell or harvest any corn.

It is hoped by the committee that allotments will not be necessary for this county, but the only way we can avoid having allotments is for all farmers to cooperate and get these reports completed immediately. The State PMA office has set the deadline on these reports up to Friday, October 21, 1949 in order that a more accurate figure may be obtained on the amount of corn raised in this county. All farmers who have not yet made this report are urged to do so immediately.

County Surveyor Is Speaker At Rotary Club

The program for the Florence Rotary Club last Monday night was presented by Rotarian Noel Walton, who spoke on the "Mineral Resources of Northern Kentucky" and particularly of Boone County.

Mr. Walton started with a brief geological history of this area, describing the various formations and their origin. This history was brought down to date with a list of the various valuable minerals known to be available in commercial quantities in this county.

The program was concluded by a question and answer period concerning the mechanics of drilling for oil. The interest in this type of discussion was evidenced by the active participation of members in asking questions.

Burlington Eagles Take Fourth Straight In Conference Tilt

Florence Second In Standing With Only One Defeat.

Burlington's Eagles made it four straight wins in the Northern Kentucky six-man Football Conference last Thursday night when they won an easy 51-18 victory over the Cardinals of Dry Ridge at the local field.

Coach Edwin Walton's entire squad took part in the rout, with the regulars playing little more than a quarter of the contest.

The Eagles scored a touchdown on their third offensive play of the contest. They took over on the Cards twenty-yard stripe and after two plays Walton ran 16 yards to pay dirt. McBee's conversion was good to make the count eight to nothing. The Eagles added another six points a few minutes later when Ryle intercepted a Card pass on their 22-yard stripe and ran it for a touchdown. McBee failed on the kick.

With two minutes remaining in the opening period Burlington blocked a Dry Ridge punt on the visitor's six-yard stripe. At this point Eagle reserves took over and Deck went through the middle on the first play for the score. A pass from Ockerman to Holbrook was good for the extra point. The quarter ended Burlington 21, Dry Ridge 0.

Dry Ridge came back early in the second quarter to score a touchdown on a pass from Lawrence to Hubbard. The conversion attempt was blocked. The Cards scored again late in the quarter on a five-yard left end run by Lawrence. Again the extra points failed. The half ended 21-12.

Burlington drew first blood in the second half when Ryle ran 35 yards on Burlington's second offensive play for a touchdown. McBee's kick was good. On the very next play after the locals had kicked Ryle again got away for 30 yards and touchdown after intercepting a Card pass. McBee's kick was again good to bring the score to 37-12.

On a few plays later Ryle threw a pass to Gayle Rouse for a score and McBee again sent the leather through the uprights for extra points.

Verona Fox Hunt Postponed By Local Community Club

Was Scheduled For November, According To President Scroggins.

The annual Boone County Fox Hunt, scheduled to be held at Verona during the month of November has been postponed until next year, according to William Scroggins, president of the Verona Community Clubs, sponsors of the event.

The meet was postponed due to the recent outbreak of rabies among Boone County dogs, Mr. Scroggins said. The decision was reached after consulting with Sheriff Rouse and other county officials.

This event has attracted lovers of the sport from many surrounding counties as well as from the states of Ohio and Indiana. Last year the meet was reported a success from every standpoint, and was highly enjoyed. It is hoped that the meeting will be held next year if conditions permit.

Mr. Scroggin, one of the county's most ardent supporters of wildlife conservation, and active in both the Verona Community Club and Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association urges, all dog owners to have their dogs inoculated against rabies, to make an effort to eliminate stray dogs in the county. He stated that if dog owners would follow this policy, there would be little danger of an outbreak of rabies.

Dairy Tips Given By Bill Davis, County Agent

What are you going to do with your dairy heifers this coming winter? How about those blue ribbon heifer calves which should be blue ribbon yearlings next year?

The level of production of your future herd depends on two things—the inherent ability to produce, or the breeding of the heifers that you save for herd replacements and the development or size of these heifers at first calving.

Many dairy heifers are given little care, and are fed poor roughage. The result is they are out of condition and actually lighter in the spring than they were in the fall. Other dairy heifers are fed heavily on grain to acquire fast gains and large size before freshening. These heifers are usually thick, coarse or beefy in the spring. Either of these practices is expensive to the dairyman, and little thought on management and feeding of the dairy heifer will pay dividends in large, good quality dairy cows.

Dairy heifers over a year of age will develop size, quality and hardiness if turned out to pasture all winter and allowed to get all the green feed they can. However, they should have plenty of good quality dry roughage available to supplement the pasture, and adequate supply of reasonable warm water, and protection from the bad storms.

Younger heifers (6-12 months) will need to have a small amount of grain to supplement their roughage if they make the fastest gains.

While arranging this winter pasture plot, it would be well to locate this pasture where these heifers may be observed easily for heat periods so that as many heifers as possible be bred during November, December, and January for fall freshening cows.

HUGO LANG DISMISSED FROM ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL

Hugo Lang, owner of Lang's Feed Store, Covington, Ky., has been dismissed from St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and is convalescing at home. The burden of proof is always upon you to show that you have paid a bill. If you pay in cash you have no evidence of payment and may be required to pay again unless you have a receipt. Your check is your receipt when you have a bank account with us.

We have seen many instances where our customers would have been required to pay a bill twice had he not been able to produce his canceled check or refer to our bank records.

EDISON'S LAMP 1879 — 70 YEARS OF PROGRESS — ELECTRIC INDUSTRY 1949

OCTOBER 21st. MARKS THE 70th. ANNIVERSARY OF THE INVENTION OF THE INCANDESCENT LAMP BY THOMAS A. EDISON. IT WAS THE BEGINNING OF THE GROWTH OF THE BUSINESS-MANAGED ELECTRIC INDUSTRY WHICH HAS CONTRIBUTED SO GREATLY TO AMERICA'S INDUSTRIAL AND SCIENTIFIC LEADERSHIP—

EDISON HELD 1,097 PATENTS—356 OF WHICH DEALT WITH LIGHTING AND POWER DISTRIBUTION. HIS SUCCESS INSPIRED MANY OTHER INVENTORS.

DOCTORS, BUTCHERS, CLERKS—MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN ALL WALKS OF LIFE—OWN THE BUSINESS-MANAGED ELECTRIC COMPANIES.

IN THE PAST 20 YEARS ALONE, THE ELECTRIC INDUSTRY HAS MORE THAN DOUBLED ITS GENERATING CAPACITY, TO KEEP AMERICA FAR AHEAD OF ALL OTHER COUNTRIES IN WAR AND IN PEACE.

THE COST OF ELECTRICITY IS PROBABLY THE LOWEST SINGLE ITEM IN THE AVERAGE FAMILY BUDGET.

YOU BUY A GIFT OF SCIENCE

With the dollar or so you spend to have this prescription filled, you buy millions of dollars worth of research and the time and work of many men.

One of the ingredients of your prescription is a new drug that is particularly effective in overcoming skin infections. Its development a year or two ago was the crowning achievement of a decade of study by a group of research chemists in a midwestern laboratory.

Another ingredient, which likewise hinders germ growth, is a drug developed out of research that originated abroad. It, too, made headlines when its discovery was announced a few years ago.

The third ingredient is a new water-soluble ointment base that has the ability to penetrate tiny cracks and crevices of the skin.

Your pharmacist skillfully combines these ingredients . . . the new germicide, the drug from across the sea, and the water-soluble base. With the art that is his, he prepares a smooth, greaseless ointment, following the prescription written by your physician.

In the finished prescription you purchase a truly priceless gift of science . . . the science of pharmacy, chemistry, and medicine that went into the research, development, and production of its ingredients.

Verona-Hudepohl Even With Two Each In KAG Series

Deciding Game Will Be Played At Verona Park Sunday.

The race in the Kentucky Athletic Goods Semipro Baseball League was even Sunday when the Hudepohl nine scored a 3-2 victory over the Verona Community Club in a ten-inning game at the Marts Playgrounds, Ross. The teams will play the tie off in the fifth and deciding game of the series at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at Verona.

Verona needed only one victory to end the series. However, Bob Menkedick, on the hill for the winners held the hard-hitting Verona club to five hits, striking out five and walking two. Menkedick led his team at bat with three hits, scoring the deciding run in the tenth inning with none out.

Bill Mumm was charged with the loss for the Verona team and although giving up eights hits could have just as easily scored the victory. The Hudepohl tying run in the eighth and the winning run in the tenth were tainted with fielding miscues. Mumm struck out five and walked three.

Hudepohl drew first blood in the first inning when Jack Michael led off with a base on balls and after Bob Kruger filed out, Michael was tossed out attempting to steal second. Frank Harvey walked. He took third on Frank Caliguir's single to right. Hesse hit a hot grounder to third and Harvey scored when Gulley juggled the ball for an error.

Verona evened the count in the top half of the second inning. Whitey Brown walked and stole second. Hayes struck out. Mumm grounded out to Menkedick for the second. Dyke Vest hit a slow roller down third base and Menkedick threw home to get Brown but the catcher, Beyer, dropped the ball for an error. Bob Gulley singled, but Vest was out attempting to take third.

Verona forged ahead in the fifth when Dale Williamson dropped a double into center field and raced home on Wilbur Bauman's single over short. Hudepohl tied the score in the eighth inning.

The winners threatened in the ninth by getting two on base with one out, but failed to score. In the 14th Menkedick singled through short and took second when Alexander was fumbling Michael's sacrifice and all hands were safe. Kruger also beat out a bunt to load the bases. Frank Harvey scored Menkedick with a long fly to right field that Elmo Steffen dropped.

Florence Knights Take Fourth Game By Trimming Hebron

Most Interesting Game Of Season, According To Fans.

The Florence Knights won their fourth Northern Kentucky Six-Man Football Conference game last Tuesday night when they trimmed the Hebron Cardinals by a 28 to 24 score before one of the largest crowds of the season at the local field. The contest was the most interesting from spectator standpoint that has been played this season, according to many fans.

The first quarter ended with the Cards ahead 12 to eight. Florence opened the scoring on a pass from Markesbery to Noel and Roland kicked for two points. Hebron tallied two touchdowns in the opening quarter on runs by Tanner thru the middle for 15 yards and pay dirt and a ten-yard end sweep by Bowman.

Roland of the Knights did all of the second quarter scoring when he plunged over from the five-yard line after a sustained Florence drive down the field. The half ended 14-12 in favor of the Knights.

The scoring tempo picked up in the third quarter as Florence scored twice and kicked for two points. A pass, Roland to Bethel was good for the first touchdown and Markesbery's 40-yard run accounted for the other. Roland's first kick was good but the second was blocked. The Cards scored a third period touchdown on a ten yard run by J. Tanner. The extra points failed.

In the final quarter Hebron rebounded and scored on a 35-yard reverse by Bowman. The try for extra points failed again. Late in the final quarter Hebron was on the Knight 1-yard line but failed to get over and as the game ended Florence had driven back to the Hebron 3 yard stripe.

First downs and total yards gained were about even in the contest. The difference was Hebron's inability to score extra points after the touchdowns.

Dry Ridge Over New Haven

Coach Joe Reed's Dry Ridge Cardinals won their first game of the season Friday night at their home field when they defeated the New Haven Tigers by a 52-12 score. Three Sites Are Suggested In Grant, Pendleton and Boone County.

A tour of the northern Kentucky area by the Board of Directors of the Fifth District Park Association to inspect suggested sites for the proposed state park will be made Wednesday, November 2nd, it was announced, following a meeting of the association held in Covington, Thursday, October 20th.

The above announcement was made Friday by association officials who said the deadline for receiving site suggestions has been set November 2, and that a decision will follow the inspection tour report November 3 at a general meeting at the Covington-Kenton Chamber of Commerce.

Three sites have been suggested, which include Sutton site in Pendleton County, Eagle Creek in Grant County and Big Bone in Boone County.

At the meeting held Thursday it was agreed to set November 3 as the date to agree on a site in order that a land purchase budget could be presented to the State Budget Committee in time for consideration by the next Legislature.

DODGE OFFERS 356 TRUCKS IN NEW LINE

Hebron Garage of Hebron, Ky., local Dodge dealer, today announced a new and expanded line of Dodge trucks comprising 356 basic gross vehicle weight models. The enlarged line compares with 248 models offered previously.

The Dodge "Job-Rated" truck line now ranges from 4700 to 23,000 pounds gross vehicle weight and up to 60,000 pounds gross combination weight to meet more than 97 per cent of all hauling needs. Nominal ratings have been increased to include some 2½ and 3½-ton models.

The broadened coverage includes conventional truck models, dual purpose models, school bus chassis, the four-wheel drive Power-Wagon, and Route-Van delivery trucks.

Among the many new features announced on the new B-2 Series are: an electrical system which assists in improved engine performance, a new 5-speed synchro-shift transmission, new 5-speed synchro-shift overdrive transmission, cycle-bonded brake linings as standard equipment on all models, and a steering column gearshift and a convenient hand brake under the center of the cowl ½, ¾ and 1-ton models.

Fourteen new models have been added to the 1½-ton group to broaden the Dodge coverage in that group to 92 GVW options. Dodge now offers three basic models in the 1½-ton group ranging from 7,000 to 16,250 pounds in seven different wheelbases.

Important engine features which provide long life and reduce operating costs are continued in the new trucks. Some of these features include the use of four piston rings with the top ring chrome-plated, exhaust valve seat inserts, and all-chrome exhaust valves. The J and K models (2½-ton) have silchrome intake valves and sodium-cooled exhaust valves as standard equipment.

The R (3½-ton, T (3-ton) and V (5½-ton) models have engines fitted with sodium-cooled exhaust valves faced with stellite, and both intake and exhaust valve seats are fitted with silchrome inserts.

The new engine included in the line is for the R (3½-ton) and RA (3½-ton) dual purpose models. The new engine of 308 cu. in displacement develops 122 hp at 3200 r. p. m. and replaces the previous 113 hp engine.

The new steering column gear shift lever and hand-pull parking brake control incorporated on the ½, ¾ and 1-ton models remove all obstructions from the floor of the cab.

Rear loading height on the three models has been reduced more than one inch by means of a change in spring contour. Two body heights —17 and 22 7-16 in.—are now offered on the ½-ton pickup to meet varying loading requirements of users.

F, G, and H models have special heavy frames which do not require the use of reinforcements. R, T and V models have cast steel spoke wheels as standard equipment to replace the ventilated disc type wheels used formerly. The new type wheels reduce unsprung weight and also improve brake cooling.

Dodge first offered the cycle-bonded brake linings as standard equipment on ½-ton trucks. The bonded linings are being used on all models of the new B-2 series.

Cross steering is standard on all conventional models of the new B-2 Series. This feature, together with the wide front axle, gives Dodge trucks a 37-degree turning angle and provides easy maneuverability.

Among the features in the large line of new C-O-E models is the accessibility for checking the oil level or the battery or for adding water to the radiator by merely raising the hood.

The electrical system on the new Dodge trucks is completely dust and splash-proof through use of a moisture-proof distributor and rubber caps on the distributor wires. A new 40-amp shunt-wound air-cooled generator replaces the former 35-amp equipment on all models. Choice of 45-amp or 50-amp generator is offered as extra equipment. A generator with high charging rate at slow engine speeds also is available to meet special operating conditions.

Resistor-type spark plugs with built-in 10,000-ohm resistor used in conjunction with a high-out-put coil, are used to help maintain smooth engine idle at low speeds, to increase electrode life and to aid in reducing radio and television interference.

Choose The Best!

Lesson for October 30, 1949

IT HURT Isaiah's patriotism, and his religion too, to see how fast his country was going down hill. Most of the troubles Isaiah saw are with us today. Wealthy women spending more and more on themselves; leaders who are irresponsible, self-seeking and incompetent; poverty unprevented and uncared-for; drunkenness high and low. Isaiah, and other prophets as well, saw in the sin and drunkenness of the times the sign and symbol of national decay. To the careless, the selfish and the wild, to those who were "leaders" but were leading in the wrong direction, Isaiah kept saying, in many different ways, Choose the best!

Dr. Foreman

• • •

The Prophets' Successors

THERE WAS A TIME when the church put most of her preaching emphasis on individual religion: Get right with God! was the cry. The church of today has not by any means given up her emphasis on personal religion, but we are learning from the prophets what social righteousness means. The church in our time is the logical and actual successor to the prophet's work.

The church is doing more than ever to awaken the conscience of society, in fact the church itself has a duty to be the conscience of society. One of the problems about which our nation needs to be waked up is one that Isaiah and Jeremiah faced, only we have it in a more desperate form.

We call it alcoholism; they called it by an uglier, more suitable word: drunkenness. Even in those days drinking was a problem; it cut down the national health, wealth and wisdom. Nowadays it is worse because of two factors. One is the higher percentage of alcohol in beverages such as whiskey, unknown in those days. The other factor is advertising.

• • •

Where Drunkards Start

AGAINST ALL THIS the church must keep saying and persuading people, Choose the Best! But it does comparatively little good to say this to the confirmed alcoholic. It makes more sense to say it to young people. For the sad feature of alcoholism is that it begins in the high schools.

The Yale School of Alcohol Studies has collected evidence indicating that two-thirds of all alcoholics begin drinking habits in the early high school years.

A recent Gallup poll shows the greatest percentage of drinkers to be in the age group 21 to 39. Today, it is estimated, there are four million alcohol addicts or excessive drinkers who are in more or less constant trouble with their families and employers.

Drunkenness costs industry in America no less than one billion dollars a year, and has a lot to do with the break-up of homes and with crime generally.

Allied Youth

SOMETHING is being done to stop this, which you should know about. There is a movement known as Allied Youth, a national educational organization working in high schools all over the country. Its work is positive, not negative. It is not trying to pass laws or to bring back prohibition. What it does try to do—and it is succeeding remarkably well in many places—is to give young people a way of life that will enable them to meet social pressure for drinking without loss of "face." Every Allied Youth post in a school has three aims: 1. To meet the social and recreational needs of young people.

Every New Year's Eve, for instance, when millions of Americans are getting sickly drunk, more than 6,000 young people gather in Detroit for the biggest dry party in America, sponsored by Allied Youth.

2. To establish within the school a fellowship of young people who do not think it is necessary to drink to be smart. Such a group can change the attitude of an entire school.

3. To build a solid foundation of education for total abstinence. Essentially, Allied Youth is saying to young people everywhere, "Choose the Best!"

X-Ray Shoe Fitting Can Be Dangerous Report Says

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Shoes "Fitted by X-Ray." Sounds like a good idea doesn't it? You put on the new shoes, stand with your feet under a machine and tell by looking at the encased bones within the shoes whether they fit or not. Well, it may seem a good idea, but it doesn't work, according to the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists. In fact, says the conferences, It's a potentially dangerous practice and ought to be stopped or restricted by law.

As a customer you're interested in getting a pair of shoes that fit. A competent shoe salesman can do a great job of fitting shoes without the use of an "X-Ray machine," says the conference statement. "The method has doubtful scientific basis and is used mainly as a sales promotion device.

Besides being largely worthless, X-ray shoe fitting machines can be dangerous, according to the conference statement. When feet are X-rayed in the course of a properly examination the doctor or technician takes elaborate precautions to protect you and himself from being exposed to radiation. The X-ray machine must be checked frequently to make sure that its rays are not too powerful. The operator works behind a lead shield or wears a heavy apron to protect himself from prolonged or frequent exposure.

The shoe salesman is not an X-ray technician, and cannot be expected to know how to protect himself or his customer from getting an overdose of X-rays. Many manufacturers claim that their machines have automatic devices to eliminate the dangers but there are many makes of machines in many shoe stores and it would be costly for authorities to check up on all of them in view of the fact that they are of little or no value.

We don't use X-Ray machines and never did use X-ray in our store.—Adv.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Although Oct. 30 to Nov. 5 have been set aside as National Apple Week, this fruit is so plentiful and so good that it should be served every week. Here is an unusual recipe from food specialists at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Apples Baked in Lemon Custard

Mix small baking apples, 2 cups sugar, 2 cups milk, 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind, 2 tablespoons melted butter, one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Wash and core apples and place in baking dish. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 30 minutes. Beat eggs, add sugar, milk, lemon rind and salt. Add melted butter. Pour over apples and continue baking until apples are tender and custard is set. In place of the lemon rind, one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg and 1 teaspoon cinnamon may be mixed with the sugar. Serves six.

Crops Look Yellow?

If so, they probably are starving for nitrogen, the plant-food element that produces lush, dark green plants.

In the atmosphere over every acre of land there are 35,000 tons of nitrogen in the form of gas. But plants can't use it as gas. It must be converted into a chemical compound which they can absorb through their roots.

Legumes (the clovers, alfalfa, lespedeza, etc.) are a family of plants that can efficiently convert this nitrogen gas into a usable form. Good farming requires that at least one legume crop be grown in every rotation.

Don't waste money by sowing expensive legume seed on lime-needy land. The first step is to apply the required amount of limestone. We will be pleased to serve you.

Florence

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griffin, of Carthage, Ohio, are called to Bracht on account of the death of Mrs. Griffin's nephew, Billy Larry Glenn Biddle. Funeral services were held at Stanley Funeral Home, Williamstown, with burial in Florence Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bob of Florence, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Webster, Sandy and Danny Webster, Charles and Peggy Hon of Big Bone, Ed Kendall, Claudia Shoulders, of Dalton, spent last Saturday and Sunday at Camp Ghent, Ky., and report a large catch of fish from the Ohio River.

Mrs. Leo Bob and twins entertained Charles Hon with a birthday party. Those present were Mr and Mrs. Louis Bob, Mr. Leo Bob, Mrs. James Webster, Sandy and Danny Webster, Peggy Hon and his friends of the 7th grade. All had an enjoyable time and he received many gifts.

A correction. In last week's issue it was reported that William Rosecrup and family had moved into their new home recently purchased from George Howard. This was in error as the property was purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee Wills.

Services for Mrs. Minnie Chore 73, who succumbed from the effects of a hip fracture were held from the Florence Baptist Church Tuesday morning. Rev. C. L. Leopard was the officiating minister. Burriors are her husband, Lon Chore, a brother Rogan Ryle, Hebron and a sister, Mrs. Bert Scott, of Burlington. Ralph Stith, Florence funeral director was in charge of arrangements. Burial was in Florence cemetery. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family in their sorrow.

HEBRON HOMEMAKERS

The Hebron club journeyed away from home for their October meeting. We went to the home of Mrs. Ralph Hoppenjans, 4 Belle Monte St., Ft. Mitchell, she being one of our members, who has moved away.

Those attending were Mesdames Henry Anderson, Charles Birch, R. L. Bowman, George Casper, Jr., Geo. Casper, Sr., L. Crutcher, John Dye, Myron Garnett, Joe Hogan, Herman Oberjohns, Edward Peel, Emmett Riddell, Norris Riddell, Lafe Smith, Charles Winston, Albert Rogers and our hostess, Mrs. Ralph Hoppenjans. Our co-hostess was absent, She fell the week before. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Our roll call "What this Club Can Do For Our Community" was answered with some very good suggestions, which we hope can become realistic.

Mrs. Edward Peel gave a report on "Why Read?" which should encourage all to see the need of keeping up with what is going on about us.

Our lesson was given by Mrs. Lafe Smith and Mrs. Charles Birch, the subject "Living With a Purpose" was a very timely subject, just when we are so pushed for time. They told us of many things we should elliminate and save time for the important things. Our time should be dificlts in eight-hour shifts, sleep, work and play or relaxation.

A delightful luncheon was served by our hostess and am sure all felt it had been a day well spent —Publicity Chairman.

KENTABOO HOMEMAKERS

"Living With a Purpose," is more than a group of words, as was explained by Mrs. H. Mulroney to the Kentaboo Homemakers Club October meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ross Schwarberg, of Ridgeway Ave., Florence.

Mrs. Edith Gordon, president, presided over the meeting.

Those attending were Mesdames Pauline Adams, Rose Schwarberg, Vera Norton, Pearl Durall, H. Mulroney, new members, Ethel Glamer, Cora Satterwhite and Bess Owens. Guest for the day was Lela Dicken.

Over 98 percent of the farm homes in McCracken county now have electric current available.

The best lespedeza hay crop in 30 years was harvested in Monroe county, farmers saving approximately 50,000 pounds of seed.

John Murphy Speaker At Florence Rotary

John Murphy, new and public relations director of WCKY, president of American Federation of Fish and Game, chairman of the Fifth District State Park Association and International News Correspondent addressed the Florence Rotary Club at its regular meeting Monday night. The subject of the talk was "Conservation."

Mr. Murphy stressed the point that conservation did not stop with the farmer but was of vital interest to everyone. He pointed out that conservation will play a big part in forestalling the third World War because the next war may be caused by the population of a country outgrowing its natural resources.

Mr. Murphy also discussed the proposed State Park at Big Bone. A meeting at which the location of a new State Park in Northern Kentucky may be selected will be held at the Covington Chamber of Commerce Building Thursday evening. It was urged that all interested in this subject attend this meeting.

Lieutenant Estes will be in charge of the program next Monday. He will present the State Highway Department Safety Magic Show.

On Monday, November 14th the Rotary Club will have a "Family Night." The entertainment at that meeting will be of interest to the whole family and will inclode a show by a nationally known magician.

Boone County Will Benefit $7,529 By New Amendment

Local Schools Would Be Aided Through Transportation, Is View.

On November 8, the people of Kentucky will express their approval or disapproval of two very important amendments to our State Constitution.

Amendment Number 1 is intended to liberalize the Constitution so as to make it possible for the Legislature to appropriate state funds for public school purposes to be distributed on some basis other than per capita. If this amendment is approved, it will be possible for the Legislature to appropriate state funds to aid in transportation of pupils, in the education of handicapped children, and for school building programs. The need for state aid for transportation, school buildings, and the education of handicapped children has long been recognized. If the amendment is not approved, education in Kentucky will be handicapped for generations. It is not likely that we will soon be given another opportunity to vote on this particular question. This amendment merely seeks to unite the hands of our Legislature, enabling it to distribute funds to the schools for purposes which it deems wise. The amendment would enable the Legislature to appropriate for such purposes an amount not in excess of 25 percent of the total appropriation made to public elementary and secondary schools. It should be clearly understood that authorizing the Legislature to make the above appropriation does not reduce the funds appropriated on a per capita basis, since the Legislature now has the power to determine the total amount appropriated.

The Governor has specifically pledged that the per capita funds of teh school district will be reduced as a result of the enactment of this amendment. The Kentucky Education Association, the Kentucky School Boards Association, and many of the leaders in our House and Senate have likewise insisted that the per capita funds of no district be reduced as a result of the enactment of the amendment.

Every Kentuckian should support Constitutional Amendment Number 1, which would permit the Legislature to grant aid for these needed services.

The last legislature appropriated $21,500,000.00 for school purposes. Out of this amount $2,150,000.00 is to be used for equalization; this leaves $19,350,000.00 to be distributed on per capita basis. The opposition to this amendment figure they will take 25 percent out of this total appropriation, which would leave $16,125,000.00 to be distributed on the per capita basis, consequently some counties would lose money; for instance Boone County would lose $9,400.00.

On April 13, the Governor in a letter to Adran Doran stated the following: "Should this amendment receive voter approval, I shall recommend to the 1950 regular session of the General Assembly a per capita allocation not less than that contained in the present budget."

From a pessimist viewpoint suppose the legislature does not give any more money to the school fund than now, and assume the amendment is passed; what is the outcome for Boone County? The State Department of Education has the following plans on the distribution of this 25%: Fifteen percent will go to the poor schools as equalization, 8% will be used for transportation and 2% for building and special education

No northern Kentucky school will share in the equalization part. The only part any school will share in will be in transportation, which will be about 50% of its cost. It is easy to see why some northern Kentucky school officials are against the amendment for they have no transportation problem and cannot share. Boone County would share in this transportation fund to the extent of approximately $17,000.00. It might cost Boone County from nothing to $9,470.70, but would get in return for transportation $17,000 leaving a profit of at least $7,529.30.

Education must be thought of on a larger scale than our community, it must be thought of on a state or national basis. A few years ago we had a good idea who our neighbors would be tomorrow now we are a movable race. This 25% would mean on the present appropriation, a sum fof $5,375,000.00 to be distributed to schools which are less fortunate than some of the wealthy school systems.

Constitutional Amendment Number 2

Amendment Number 2 seeks to liberalize Section 246 of the Constitution which limits the annual salaries of public officials (other than the Governor) to $6,000. How anyone can oppose this amendment under our present period of inflation is difficult to understand. The present inflation has, in fact, cut present salaries in half. The situation is so critical that able men cannot be secured to fill some of our most important offices, and Kentucky consequently suffers from lack of adequate services. The amendment, if approved, is in itself restrictive. Statewide officials' salaries then are limited to a maximum of $12,000. Circuit judges' salaries will be limited to $8,400 and other public officials' salaries will be limited to $7,200. This does not mean that the above salaries would be paid. It simply means that legislative bodies are empowered to set salaries within the limits above mentioned.

The Kentucky School Boards Association, the Kentucky Education Association, and practically every other professional organization in the state, and a large number of our service groups and civic organizations are wholeheartedly supporting these two amendments. Both amendments should be approved.

Hebron Cardinals Easy Winners In 6-Man Football Tilt

Thursday Night At Burlington Field; Score Is 60 to 6.

Hebron's Cardinals used everybody except the manager and water boy as they drubbed the New Haven Tigers in a Northern Kentucky Six-Man Football Conference game last Thursday night at the county field by a 60 to 6 score.

The inexperienced Tigers, though game and never lacking in effort, were never a match for Coach Ransler's boys. Jim Tanner, Card back, took complete charge of the first quarter and scored all of his team's 13 points. He scored two touchdowns on end runs of 25 and 27 yards and ran the extra point over on his first touchdown.

In the second quarter Hebron scored three points on a safety when Townsend fell on the ball in the New Haven endzone after the Tiger's attempt to punt was blocked. A few seconds later Bowman on a reverse ran thirty yards for a touchdown. Zeigler scored in the same quarter on a 25 yard sprint. Late in the quarter Hebron recovered a New Haven fumble on the Tiger nine yard stripe and on the next play Powers went around right end for the third touchdown of the quarter. All extra points in the quarter failed and the half ended with a 34-0 score in favor of the Cards.

Early in the second half a touchdown pass from Zeigler to Tanner was nullified by a Card penalty. Tanner scored a few minutes later on a five yard plunge after a sustained drive down the field. Townsend's kick was good for two more points.

New Haven's lone TD came midway in the quarter when Crume recovered a fumble by his teammate Stephenson on the Hebron 16-yard line and ran it over. Crume's pass to Jones for the extra point failed.

Bowman was Hebron's big gun in the final quarter as he scored three touchdowns. His first came when he ran the Tiger kickoff from his own sixteen yard line to score. A minute later on a reverse he traveled 24 yards for a score and in the final minute of play he plunged over for another touchdown. All attempts for extra points failed to materialize.

On Thursday night Coach Edwin Walton's Conference leaders will tackle Hebron. Only two more games remain on the conference schedule after this week. Burlington will play New Haven Tuesday, November 8th and Hebron will play Dry Ridge Thursday, Nov. 10th.

Population Increased From 970 to 1250; Many Improvements Noted.

The City of Florence is growing! Since 1941 a total of 141 building permits have been issued for new homes and business houses at an estimated cost of $938,550.00. In addition, 29 permits were issued for repairs, remodeling, and garages amounting to $32,345.00.

The census of 1940 showed a population of 970. The present estimate is 1250. Other indications of growth are the Drive-In Theater, a Motor Court, a new restaurant, a hatchery, a dry cleaning plant, and the Fire Hall and Community Center Building. A new building is being erected to provide quarters for the Post Office.

A new traffic light at the north end of the congested area is an indication of the volume of traffic passing through Florence. It is reported that the junction of U. S. Highway 42 with Highway No. 25 is the busiest intersection in the state. Surveys are about completed for an express highway through Florence. Its completion will have a tendency to influence development of the city toward the east.

The ballots cast by the voters of Florence have great influence in County affairs and for the first time in many years a resident of the Florence community has been elected to a County office.

Florence has 33 streets with a combined length of about eight miles. Repairs and maintenance of these streets average an annual cost of about $1,000.00.

Water bonds, issued for the laying of water mains, are being retired at the rate of $1,900.00, plus interest, annually. Balance due on these bonds, on December 31, 1949 is $16,600.00. The continued growth of the city is causing the use of an unanticipated amount of water. This results in low pressure during certain hours of the day. It is hoped that continued increase of water taps will influence the Kenton County Water Commission to expand its facilities to give better pressure and greater volume of water.

While Florence does not have all the street lights it needs, it is spending $1344.60 annually on them.

Have you visited the Florence Cemetery lately? There are about 17 burials a year. Not many lots are left and before long more land will be needed. Receipts and expenditures about balance each other.

Several years ago the City secured a loan of $4,786.00 from the Community Facilities of the U. S. government for Sewer Planning Engineering fees. This is to be repaid, without interest, when sewers are installed. Sewer plans are completed and approved. Construction can be considered whenever the residents of Florence express sufficient desire for them.

The most recent civic development is the Fire Hall and Community Center building. The total cost of this was $49,300.00. Of this amount $13,500.00 was raised by the Ladies' Auxiliary, the Volunteer Fire Department, and by individual subscriptions. The land was provided by the City at a cost of $3800. An indebtedness of $32,000.00 will be paid at the rate of $2,754.00 a year.

The Community Center room is a popular meeting place. It is used nearly every evening of the week. Persons wishing to avail themselves of its facilities should see Mrs. Lewis Houston or Mrs. Garnett Lucas.

A Rotary Club was organized several years ago. It is reported that a Florence Civic Club, and a Camera Club are being organized. A Florence Youth Center meets each Wednesday evening. The ladies have the Fireman's Auxiliary, the Homemakers, and the Garden Club. The Boy Scouts meet in the Town Hall on Monday night. The P.-T. A. renders a valuable service to the Florence School. These organizations indicate a spirit of civic consciousness and contribute to wholesome community life.

Florence has more churches than most communities of its size. A religious census was recently completed in an effort to widen their range of influence.

Florence has most of the conveniences our modern society requires and has none of the objectionable features so often found in larger cities. Florence is a good place in which to live.

Mrs. Fannie Conner, of Florence, formerly of Burlington, is at Booth Hospital receiving treatments for a broken hip, which she suffered in a fall recently.

Game Regulation Concerning Shotguns Will Be Enforced

According To Information From Stanley Shelton, District Supervisor.

A decided hitch in the program of the Kentucky Division of Game and Fish to prevent "cheating" on the conservation laws of the state by prohibiting the carrying of a shotgun in the field between November 5 and November 21 was believed to be ironed out this week.

Owen Keller, Assistant Attorney General, gave an opinion to the effect that the regulation prohibiting shotguns was void because it contravened provisions of both the Federal and state constitutions and also because it had not been filed and advertised in accordance with a ruling Kentucky statute.

However, technical requirements of filing and advertising had been complied with and Stanley Shelton, Supervisor of the Fifth District of the Division of Game and Fish, has declared that the regulation will be enforced despite Mr. Keller's opinion.

The regulation was made to prevent "cheating" of the game laws. Many hunters take to the fields prior to the opening of season, thus killing much game. Law-abiding sportsmen are cheated of this amount of game. This regulation was made to prevent this practice and will be enforced.

In previous years, the illegal hunter, if apprehended by a game warden, had only to say that he was shooting crows or was in pursuit of some other pest. The game warden then had not a shred of evidence on which to base a prosecution.

Mr. Kellers opinion was delivered Friday, and almost immediately afterward the filing had taken place to comply with the law. Under the emergency provision of the statute the regulation must be filed five days before it goes into effect.

Persons taking the fields between November 5th and November 20th should leave their shotgun at home, or be liable to arrest for violation of the game laws.

EVER WATCH A PHARMACIST FILL A PRESCRIPTION?
Each drug the pharmacist uses was produced by a responsible pharmaceutical or chemical company in which he has implicit confidence. He knows that every medicinal substance on the shelves of his prescription room has been subjected to strict tests and analyses to insure its purity, quality, and strength. He would use no drug which hadn't been so tested.
Even with this knowledge, however, the pharmacist fills every prescription with a deep sense of personal responsibility. He checks and rechecks every ingredient he uses and every step in his compounding technic. He examines the contents of each bottle carefully as he takes it from the shelf. He looks at it critically, he may take the stopper out and smell it, he may even taste a bit of it. He fills every prescription with the exacting care he would exercise if the medicine were for a member of his own family.
The drugs he uses are old friends to your pharmacist. He met them first in his early days at college and he has worked with them daily ever since. Their color, texture, odor, and taste are closely associated in his mind with their actions and their uses.
It is second nature for the pharmacist to check drugs by sight, by taste, and by smell. His knowledge and training are as much a part of the prescription he fills as are any of its ingredients.

WEST IS TESTING GROUND

The proposals of the Truman Administration for greatly expanding the scope, and the cost, of social security have been receiving intense national attention. In the meantime, while the debate over this is going on, a number of the states have gone in for welfare activities on an unprecedented scale, and are now struggling with problems of expense, administration, and policy which the voters apparently didn't anticipate when they okayed the tax raising measures on their ballots.

The Far West seems to be the testing ground. Washington has gone in heavily for state-paid medical care and liberal pensions, and her financial problem is acute. Oregon passed an old-age pension measure at the last election which, in the view of many, would have actually imperiled her credit, but it has been held up by an opinion of the Attorney General, and by legislative action. California shot the works on a unique constitutional amendment, passed by a relatively small majority, which seems to have established a new high in spending for old-age pensions, and which is causing turmoil in the state's financial affairs. What gives the California measure national importance is that it is reliably reported that the sponsor of the measure, who has come in for some big-size criticism in the press for the methods he used in his promotion, intends to expand eastward with similar ideas.

On November 8, Californians will vote again at a special election, and one of the measures on the ballot would repeal most of the provisions of the legislative amendment. The repeal proposition has an impressive list of sponsors: the California Council for the Blind being the leader. And the reason why repeal is being urged, on behalf of the need no less than the harassed taxpayers, are of great interest.

First of all, there is the matter of cost, and there can be no doubt about what is happening. California's Director of Finance told the last legislature that the additional cost to the state entailed by this measure would total $118,000,000 by June 30, 1950. The Legislative Budget Auditor anticipated the cost for the 1949-50 fiscal year at $90,000,000. Experience has borne out these estimates, and then some. For example, California's social security costs for last June were almost three times as great as New York's—yet New York has nearly half again as much population. If this goes on, the advocates of repeal say, the burden to California taxpayers will be intolerable, and the state will be placed in a ruinous financial position.

The amendment also involves some very important questions of principle, and these, the advocates of repeal believe, are as important as the cost element. Under it persons aged 63-64 may qualify for pensions—and the state must pay the whole cost for these age classifications as the Federal government contributes only for people of 65 and over. Residence requirements were reduced which, naturally, further encourages an influx of the aged into the state. The old requirement that relatives who are financialy able must support their own aged was canceled—so the parents of a millionaire could get pensions. And, finally, the law is so drawn that the Department of Welfare is to all practical purposes beyond reach of either the Governor or the Legislature. The Department's director has amazing powers for a non-elective official.

Under the repeal measure, the amount of aid to which an aged or blind person would be entitled would not be reduced. But other provisions, such as age limits, qualifications, protective limitations, etc., would be returned to the status prevailing prior to passage of the amendment. According to the Council for the Blind, pensioners themselves would actually be better off if the amendment is tossed into the discard than they are now. Moreover, there is a very strong feeling that the interests of the aged and blind are definitely endangered by measures which cost so much, and create so many problems, that they may prove absolutely impossible to maintain. Should that happen, heavy cuts in the amount of assistance paid to individuals would be inevitable. The advocates of repeal want to take action before that can happen.

Both sides to the controversy are urging that everybody vote. The size of the demand for absentee ballots indicates that the vote will be a good-sized one for a special election. The results will be widely watched, and they will be of national importance, for the reason that the stand taken by Californians will undoubtely influence sentiment toward similar measures in other states.

God Our Comfort

Lesson for November 6, 1949

AS THE ENGLISH language keeps on changing, words do not always keep on meaning what they once did. "Comfort" is one of these. When our Bible was translated into English in 1611, the translation most English-speaking people use, the word "comfort" had a bigger meaning than most people put into it nowadays. We think of it as meaning soothing; but it is a bigger idea than that. God is not merely a soothing God. We think of "comfort" as meaning to make comfortable; but it is a stouter word than that. God does not always make his people comfortable. The word means to strengthen, to steel against fear and despair, to put backbone into people.

Dr. Foreman

"Fear Not, O Worm!"

AT THE TIME of the prophecies we study this week, the Israelites had been kicked around a good deal. They had felt the conqueror's boots, they were discouraged, as all good people are when somehow God seems to be letting evil forces triumph. Their little world had split wide apart, their little nation had been blown to the winds.

To those people, torn by terrors and bowed down by wretchedness, people who were in serious danger of developing a once-for-all "inferiority complex," people who were about to lose all their backbone, the great prophet brings his messages: "Comfort ye my people, saith your God."

The whole idea is in this one sentence (Is. 41:14): "Fear not, O worm Jacob! . . . I am your helper, saith the Lord."

God does not indulge his people in foolish pride. Beside the Almighty they are worms, insects. Nevertheless, worm though he may be, the man who trusts in God will not be afraid. He will not trust in his own powers, he will not trust in luck, he will trust in God.

A worm by itself is nothing; but with God on his side, the weakest of men can say with Paul, "If God be for us, who can be against us?" God's men do not get their courage up by flexing their muscles or admiring themselves. They grow in courage as they grow in the knowledge of God.

Goodness And Power

ANY ONE who saw "Edward, My Son" will remember the tragedy of that family. A boy's character went slowly to pieces, because his father was determined that nothing should be too good for him. To gain his purpose the father ran rough-shod over everyone who stood in his way, and eventually ruined the lives of all around him, including his son's and his own. The mother, on the other hand, could see, as the father could not, what his indulgence was doing to the boy, making him a weakling and a rat. But she was too weak to stand up against her husband, and her life too was ruined. That story is a kind of parable.

The prophet reveals a God who is both powerful and good; but suppose God were only good but not powerful, or only powerful but not good? Then the world would be in a mess, as that boy Edward was in a mess.

But these three are all in the same God. A God who is power only, might do as Edward's father did, destroy his children without even intending to do so. A God who is goodness only, might want to do right by his world yet not be able to do so, like Edward's mother. A God who knew what was right but neither wanted nor was able to do much about it, would not be a God at all.

God Is Not Weary

SUPPOSE GOD were indeed powerful, good and wise, and yet grew tired from time to time? Suppose all God's good qualities came and went, unpredictably, like the wind on a spring day?

No; God is the Maker and Keeper of Promises, the Covenant God. He does not grow faint or weary; that is our anchor of comfort.

The earth changes, and men with it; but the Word of the Lord abides forever. His "covenant of peace" does not waver. We do not need to lean gingerly on the Almighty. He will bear all our weight.

WATER SHORTAGE SERIOUS PROBLEM

How lack of stock water can become a serious problem in dry years is pointed out in a new circular of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, describing the use of earth dams for farm reservoirs.

A survey made in one year by county agents in 80 counties showed that 1,825 farmers were compelled to drive herds to water, 13,174 farmers hauled water an average of four miles, and 6,300 others sold stock before it was ready for market.

Prepared by Earl O Welch, this circular gives information on all phases of building dams to hold water for farm use. Copies may be had from county agents or by writing to the college at Lexington. Order by number, 470, and title, "Earth Dams for Farm Reservoirs."

Included in Kentucky's 33 representatives were Miss Myrtle Weldon, state leader of home demonstration work, College of Agriculture and Home Economics University of Kentucky; Mrs. W. K. BIG FAT CATTLE SHOW NOVEMBER 9-11

Between 7,600 and 1,700 calves are being fed by members of 4-H clubs for the annual fat cattle show and sale to be held at the Bourbon Stock Yards in Louisville Nov. 9-11. These include about 1,200 Angus, 450 Herefords, 50 Shorthorns and 40 mixed calves.

To encourage the production of better cattle and to speed up selling, all cattle that do not grade good or better will be weeded out to sell either before or after the regular auction.

Most of the calves are expected to weigh 850 to 1,150 pounds at the time of the show and sale. They have been fattened under better-than-average conditions. Grass has been plentiful in most counties, and lower corn prices have encouraged the feeding of more grain. Most of the 4-H calves will have received grain.

Since the first show in 1922, and not including 1948, members of 4-H clubs in Kentucky have sold 20,760 calves at the annual fat cattle show and sale.

The Great Toe And Your Foot

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Do you know that the great toe supports the entire weight of the body for an instant, in the last act of walking?

The foot muscles acting upon the four lesser toes preserve the balance of the body by causing the toe to grip in the shoe and in the last act of walking to give the final spring, or "take off." By their attachment the toes flex at their first (holongel) points and extend at their second and third joints, so that the ends of the toes are pressed upon and grip in standing so as to form powerful propelling levers as the body swings forward upon the toes.

Now, take off your shoes—and look at the bottom of your toes. In every case (there are few exceptions) you will see where the fleshy tissue on the bottom ends of the toes comes to a point, from being forced tight together and in many cases the toes themselves lap over one another. This is positive evidence of ill fitted and ill shaped shoes. This continued distortion of toes and other toe defects.

Lack of balance will cause you to walk incorrectly and create strain in other parts of the body, inducing fatigue, pain and more misery, NOT ONLY in the feet, but even in the back of the neck, and headaches. Resolve right now to correct this condition.

TERRACES IMPORTANT IN SAVING THE SOIL

Cropland should be terraced to save the topsoil and keep it productive. So says John L. McKitrick in "Terracing to Save the Soil," a new circular of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

Terracing means making ridges across the slope of land to slow the flow of water and direct it to an outlet where it can do the least harm to the soil. Terraces are needed on all sloping land not kept in grass, says McKitrick.

The circular gives all necessary details for making terraces. Ask for it at a county agent's office or order it from the college at Lexington. Ask for it by number, 473, and title.

LIKE COMMUNITY NESTS

Magoffin county poultrymen using the new-type community nests think they are a big improvement over others they have used, according to Pritchard Kling, county agent. They say there are fewer dirty eggs, less breakage, and more room for the hens. Copies of the directions for "Community Nests," A-198, may be had from county or home agents, or from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, Lexington.

MORE INTEREST IN RAISING LIVESTOCK

Improvement of the soil, including using more land for grass and hay crops, is creating interest in stock-raising throughout Kentucky, according to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky.

One method of building up herds of cattle advocated by the college is called the "Kentucky Cow and Calf Plan." Beginning with a few cows, and breeding to good bulls, a farmer soon finds himself owning a profitable herd.

Some points in the plan are:

Select healthy, thrifty heifers or cows of fair dairy breeding or mixed dairy and beef breeding capable of producing enough milk to raise a good calf.

Use high-quality purebred beef bulls.

Breed cows to calve in December, January or February.

Breed heifers 15 to 20 months old.

Provide plenty of good pasture for spring, summer and fall, and an abundance of good hay for winter.

Supply salt, fresh water and shade.

Creep-feed shelled corn or cracked small grain whenever there is not enough milk and pasture.

Buy breeding-herd replacements 6 to 12 months old.

FARROWING HOUSES PAY

The seven new individual hog houses which Joe Gill of Todd county built, paid off at once. The first five sows to farrow saved 45 pigs. Mr. Gill got plans for the hog houses from his county agent, Stuart Brabant.

Approximately 5000 in prizes were won at the Kentucky State Fair by Jefferson county vegetable growers.

A tobacco barn 30 by 36 feet has been completed on the farm of J. E. Durrett in Taylor county.

. . . it may well change yours

WHEN you see a new De Soto, your immediate reaction is "There is a wonderful-looking car." It's distinguished and modern in the best sense of the word.

It isn't until you've examined it more closely however, and compared it with other cars, that you realize how much more comfort and value it gives you for your money.

Every detail has been thought of. You don't have to crouch to get in, and you won't knock your hat off. The seat springs can be adjusted to your individual weight. And Tip-Toe Hydraulic Shift with gyrol Fluid Drive lets you drive without shifting.

Yes, this car has changed thousands of minds. See it. Compare it. Then decide.

ON ONE POINT THEY ALL AGREE

The men listed below represent different parties, different factions, different points of view. They come from different walks of life, different sections of Kentucky. Republicans and Democrats are to be found among them, professional men and business men and farmers and spokesmen for labor, educators and politicians and critics of politics, office-holders and former office-holders and people who never expect or want to hold public office. These men are known to Kentuckians more for their strong differences of opinion than for agreements on public policy. But now they say:

"PASS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 2"

The amendment will liberalize the constitutional salary limit and so improve public service in Kentucky.

Here's the statement to which they all subscribe:

"We think the salary provision in the Kentucky Constitution must be liberalized if Kentuckians are to receive adequate public service. The limitation, imposed in 1891, makes satisfactory administration impossible in these changed days of 1949. Therefore we urge all Kentuckians, for their own sakes, to vote 'Yes' on Constitutional Amendment No. 2 at the November election."

Alben W. Barkley	John Sherman Cooper	Ed J. Morgan	William G. Taylor
Joe B. Bates	Charles I. Dawson	Thruston B. Morton	Kenneth H. Tuggle
Paul G. Blazer	J. Lyter Donaldson	James Park	Thomas R. Underwood

DO YOU WANT TO PAY MORE TAXES?

IF YOU FAIL TO VOTE ON NOVEMBER 8

YOU MAY BE HELPING TO INCREASE THEM

At present 90% of the General School Fund of the State of Kentucky is distributed to School Districts on a pupil census basis. On November 8 you will be asked to vote on a proposed Amendment, to the State Constitution to reduce the 90% to 75%. The passage of this Amendment will result in a great reduction of funds available for the support of public schools. If the schools are to continue to operate on the present level this loss must be made up. How? By increased taxes.

Take time to VOTE NO on Amendment No. 1 on next Tuesday. Help defeat the Amendment and save money for yourself and the schools.

The United States of America is about the only country in the world where the BALLOT means anything. If it isn't used, it may be lost.

PROTECT Young Eyes

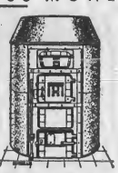
with BETTER LIGHT for easier seeing

Reading comic books is hard work for young eyes. The strain of trying to see small print on grey paper may result in permanent damage to vision unless there is plenty of good light for easy seeing.



Give your children the abundant glareless light of a modern floor lamp equipped with a white glass diffusing bowl and 100-200-300-watt bulb. And see that they do their reading in a chair close to the light source and not while lying on the floor. Remember—eyes are priceless . . . good light is cheap!

Shotgun Law Will Be Enforced Says Division Director

Regular Season Will Open Sunday, November 20 For Quail and Rabbit.

Since the filing with Secretary of State George Glenn Hatcher of an emergency regulation banning the use and carrying of shotguns in the fields for the period beginning midnight November 5 to midnight November 19, the Division of Game and Fish plans to enforce this regulation, Earl Wallace, Director of the Division announced.

Previously, Assistant Attorney General Owen Keller gave an opinion that the Game and Fish Commission and the Director of the Division lack authority to take such action since ordinary regulations must be filed and advertise 60 days before the regulation becomes effective. However, Mr. Wallace points out that this regulation is an emergency and as such may be filed up until five days before it becomes effective. The emergency act was filed with the Secretary of State on Wednesday, October 26, and advertisements on this regulation were carried in three papers of statewide circulation on Sunday, October 30.

Following the filing of the act under the emergency stauts, the Assistant Attorney General made no further comment.

The Division Director declared that the emergency regulation was necessary to prevent out-of-season hunting of rabbits and quail before the opening of the season on November 20 and after the end of the squirrel season on November 5. He declared that many hunters take to the fields during that period and when accosted by conservation officers declare that they are hunting ground hogs or crows. He declared that, by this ruse, many of the early hunters escape punishment and that they formerly could be arrested only when they had either rabbits or quail in their possession. Under the emergency regulation, the Director declared, these violators will have no escape methods, since the use and carrying of shotguns will be barred during the above-mentioned period.

In drawing up the emergency regulation the Commission and Director declared that excessive destruction of game during the November 6-November 19 period threatens the continued supply of game. There is nothing in the regulation that bars the use of shotguns at trap or turkey shoots, or the carrying of shotguns on the highways or the use of the shotgun by a farmer in the control of predators.

Conference Crown Cinched By Eagles Thursday Night

In Victory Over Hebron Cardinals; Record of 7-0 For Season.

Coach Edwin Walton's Burlington Eagle football team cinched the Northern Kentucky Six-Man Football Conference crown last Thursday night when they ran roughshod over a game but outclassed Hebron Cardinal team at the local field by a 58 to 20 score.

The Eagles, though using substitutes freely, kept their more-than-fifty-points per game record for the season. Jim Ryle, fast and hard-driving junior back, opened scoring in the game a few minutes after the opening whistle when he took a Hebron punt on his own ten yard stripe and ran it for a touchdown. Ryle scored again a few minutes later after Cave, Burlington end, recovered a Card fumble on the Hebron 20-yard marker. Runs by Walton, Rouse and Cropper carried the ball to Hebron's eight where Ryle bucked over for the TD.

Abdon Scores

The Cards scored late in the period when Abdon returned Ryle's kick from his own five yard line for a touchdown. Tanner ran the extra point to bring the score to 12-7. Seconds later McBee on a double reverse ran thirty yards to pay dirt. McBee's pass intended for Rouse failed for the extra point. The quarter ended Burlington 12; Hebron 7.

The Eagles added 19 more points in the second quarter. The first score came on a quarterback sneak by Cropper from the one yard line after McBee had carried the ball from Hebron's 22-yard stripe on a reverse. Cropper passed to Ryle for the extra point. A minute later Ockerman of Burlington recovered in Hebron's end zone for another six points. Ryle's pass to Rouse for the point failed. The Cards came back strong and on a series of yard gaining plays pushed to the BHS one-yard line but couldn't get over.

Burlington added their first-half score late in the quarter when with the ball on their own twenty McBee made 14 yards on an end run, Ryle picked up the first down and Walton passed to Cropper good for about thirty and then Ronnie Jones, freshman back, went over on an end run for the score. Walton's pass to Rouse for the point was no good.

Both teams scored single touchdowns in the third quarter. Hebron's came on a return of kick by Abdon from his own end zone. He literally ran through and over the top of the entire Burlington team. The Cards added the point when Tanner bucked over. The Eagle's score came when Jones went through the center after a series of gains from the Hebron 35 yard line. At the end of the third period the score stood Burlington 43; Hebron 14.

In the final quarter Burlington scored first when Cropper on a hand-off and lateral scored from the Card 35 stripe. The extra point failed. Zeigler added Hebron's last score on a 20-yard sprint around right end. The point failed. The game's final score came in the last minute of play when Ryle ran Hebron's kickoff from his own nine yard line to pay dirt. The point again failed.

Prindl, has received national fame as a marching unit.

The band's precision maneuvers and striking formations have made its performances during half-time intermission one of the most popular attractions at U. K. football games. A contingent of the band is usually on hand to support the Wildcats in home basketball encounters.

In addition to playing at athletic contests, the band annually makes a number of public appearances both in Kentucky and other states. These include performances at the Kentucky Derby and the "Kentucky Day" celebration at Crosley Field, home of the Cincinnati Reds.

The band also plays for pep rallies, meets Kentucky athletic teams on their return to the campus and marches for military parades and reviews.

Light Vote Cast In Boone County; Benson Leads Ticket

Constitutional Amendment No. 1 Has Chance Of Passage, Is Word.

Complete returns from Boone County's seventeen precincts showed a very light vote, with the leading candidate C. D. Benson, having 1066 votes.

Early returns from the state showed Constitutional Amendment Number 1 leading by a count of 73,176 to 42,457. This count was incomplete, but supporters of the amendment were optomistic concerning the early returns.

Returns showed Constitutional Amendment Number 2 trailing in most counties by approximately 100 votes, which indicates that the proposed change will be defeated.

Complete returns in Boone County showed Amendment Number 1 defeated by a count of 544 to 415. Amendment Number 2, concerning the compensation of public officers was defeated by a vote of 521 to 414.

Interest throughout the county apparently was low, with only 1306 votes being polled in the seventeen precincts. The vote probably would have been much lighter if there had been no constitutional amendments as there were no Republican candidates.

Community Public Service Win Award In Safety Contest

Plaque Presented At Ceremony Held In Chicago.

Community Public Service Company won national recognition in the safety field with the recent announcement by the National Safety Council that this utility concern had won the 1948-49 National Fleet Safety Contest for Public Utilities, Group I.

Competing on a nationwide basis with 48 of the largest public utilities in the United States, Community Public Service Company's fleet of 208 pick-ups and trucks led the field, with only 12 accidents in 2,238,921 miles traveled, or .5 accidents per 100,000 miles.

Presentation of the first-place trophy, a handsome plaque, was made in a ceremony held at the Palmer House in Chicago on October 27, during the National Safety Congress. Field Superintendent C. C. Wagget of Fort Worth accepted the trophy on behalf of the company.

Among companies competing with the local utility company in the safe driving contests were such firms as Oklahoma Gas & Electric Company, Potomac Edison Company, Mississippi Power & Light Company, Utah Power & Light Company and others. Average accident rate for the entire group was 2.3 accidents per 100,000 miles, as against C. P. S. Co.'s .5. Second place winner was Montana Power Company, of Butte, Montana.

The fleet contest award is the second national first-place award won by the local utility concern in National Safety Council competitions. First place in Group B of combination companies, public utilities division, went to Community Public Service Company in 1945. It was based on lost-time accident frequency rate among employees.

A general safety education program has been carried on by Community Public Service Company among its employees for over 20 years. It is under the supervision of Safety Director W. J. Millican of Fort Worth.

Burley Referendum Announced For November 26th

A national referendum to determine whether Burley tobacco growers want quotas continued on the 1950 crop and also on the 1951 and 1952 crops will be held Saturday, November 26.

The referendum was called today by the Secretary of Agriculture in his proclamation of the Burley quota for 1950. Under the quota there will be a 14.7 percent general reduction in 1950 Burley acreage allotments, except small allotments exempted from reduction by law.

Growers may vote for quotas for three years beginning with the 1950 crop; may vote for quotas for 1950 only; or may vote against quotas. Marketing quotas will be in effect, if approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum.

Persons defined as "growers" eligible to vote in the referendum include all persons having an interest as owner, tenant, or share cropper in the 1949 crop of Burley tobacco, according to R. O. Wilson, chairman of the Kentucky State Committee of the Production and Marketing Administration. No producer is entitled to more than one vote, he said, even though he may have engaged in production of Burley tobacco in two or more communities, counties, or states.

Marketing quotas provide growers with a method of adjusting supply to demand and help them obtain fair prices for the tobacco they produce, the PMA chairman stated. Stocks of Burley tobacco on hand on October 1 were the largest on record.

"Under the law, price support loans at 90 percent of parity will be available on the 1950 crop of Burley tobacco only if producers approve quotas in this referendum," Wilson said. "Regardless of the outcome of the referendum, price support loans at 90 percent of parity (an average of 40.3 cents a pound) will be available on the 1949 crop as protection to farmers." Quotas for three years including the 1949 crop were approved in a grower-referendum October 25, 1946. The vote in that referendum was 95.9 percent for three year quotas, 1.7 percent for one year quotas, and 2.4 percent against quotas. A total of 135,328 ballots were cast in that referendum throughout the Burley producing area.

Marketing quotas have been in effect for Burley tobacco each year since the enactment of the Agricultural Act of 1938 except for 1939 when they were disapproved by growers.

Love So Amazing

Lesson for November 13, 1949

LONG AGO riding in his slow chariot through the southern sands, a puzzled reader with Isaiah 53 in his hands asked the question other readers have asked ever since: Does the prophet speak of himself or of some other? The answer given by Philip (see Acts 8) has been the answer of the church ever since: This prophecy can be understood only in the light from Calvary's Cross. Philip did not say, and we need not insist, that the prophet had Jesus, and Jesus only, in mind when he wrote.

Dr. Foreman

What we do say is that while these words might have described some one the prophet knew, might have described the whole nation of Israel, might even have described himself, still the words make but a poor picture of any one else, compared with the picture they make of Jesus.

• • •

The Scarlet Thread

ISAIAH 53 has been in the center of the church's thinking about Christ from the beginning. It may be said to run like a scarlet thread through the New Testament. It was in the back of the minds of Paul and John and Peter alike. This great prophecy sheds a light on what otherwise had been a black opaque blot—the death of Christ.

What would otherwise be simply a horrible tragedy, perhaps the greatest tragedy of history, the perfect case of complete injustice, the final evidence that there is no God, in the light of Isaiah 53 becomes a center of glory.

Instead of being ashamed of the cross on which Jesus died, the church sings, "In the cross of Christ I glory," . . . "Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all."

We believe that Christ suffered not for his own but for others' sake. Suffering, not forced but willingly undergone, suffering not as mere pain but that others might be saved, suffering on behalf of others and for love of them—this is the key to the riddle of existence, this is the key to the heart of God.

• • •

Not Christ Alone

IF CHRIST'S MEN had refused to follow where he led, if all Christians had been willing to let him carry, alone, the burden of the world's sin and grief, there never would have been any Christianity—for there would never have been any Christians. Peter and James and the rest of the apostles would have refused to die for Jesus' sake. The noble army of martyrs would have been an ignoble army of cowards.

No missionary ever would have left home and comforts and country; no mother would have laid down her life for her children; the unselfish service of those who have cared for the sick and the orphaned would never have been done; indeed, had no one ever been willing to suffer for the benefit of others, one wonders whether the world could have even held together this long.

Christ died that the world might live, yes; but others also had to die to make his death avail. He died for Africa, that Africans might live; but Africans died till men like Livingstone and Schweitzer and many a less famous man and woman also went out and lived there in loneliness and died in pain.

Christ died for the little children of the poor, but until the Salvation Army and others like them went down into the slums and suffered there with and for them, those poor little people died without so much as dreaming that God might love them.

Christ died for all the lepers in the world; but until a Father Damien, and others no less Christ-like, went among the outcast lepers and became outcasts themselves for the love of Christ, those lepers died in the dark.

• • •

"Let Him Take His Own Cross Daily"

YES, Isaiah 53 pictures the self-sacrifice of our Lord, above all. But any one who has any intention of being a true servant of God must be willing to find his own life-direction right here. The world does not need more pain; it does need those who will suffer pain to serve others in Christ's name.

CARBON MONOXIDE HAZARD CALLED TO ATTETION OF KENTUCKY MOTORISTS

A new carbon monoxide hazard has been called to the attention of the people of Kentucky by Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Commissioner of Health. Dr. Underwood stated today that the Division of Industrial Health of the State Department of Health has reported that there is serious danger of carbon monoxide poisoning in many 1949 model automobiles under certain conditions.

Many of the new model cars have fresh air intake vents, used in connection with the heaters, located under the radiator grill at the front of the car. It has been found that, if the heater is being used in such cars, and the doors and windows are closed, a dangerous amount of carbon monoxide can enter the automobile if it is parked immediately behind another car the motor of which is running.

Use of heaters in closed cars of this type is inadvisable in lines of slow moving traffic, where automobiles may be stopped for minutes at a time almost bumper to bumper. In tests made by the Pennsylvania Department of Health, the lowest reading under these conditions after a minute's time was 250 parts of carbon monoxide per million parts of air. After three minutes, under the same conditions, a high reading of 1,500 parts per million was reached, and it was thought the concentration was higher than indicated, since this was the maximum that would be reached with the testing instruments. Cigarette smokers might do well to be even more careful about heaters in such closed automobiles, as a certain amount of carbon monoxide has already entered the blood from cigarettes, and saturation may be reached sooner. The degree to which the blood may become saturated with carbon monoxide is dependent upon the amount of the gas in the atmosphere, the length of exposure and the respiratory rate of the person exposed.

The Division of Industrial Health also pointed out the danger to mechanics in repair garages from running motors of automobiles in poorly ventilated garages. W. W. Stalker, Director of the Division, says the Division is equipped to test the amount of carbon monoxide in the atmosphere of such places.

HENDERSON CLUB CALVES PAY OFF

For the past four years, the total gross income from Henderson county 4-H club beef projects has been approximately $100,000, according to County Agent A. A. Williams. For the current year it is around $31,000. At the Tri-State Fat Cattle Show and Sale in Evansville in September, 89 beef calves brought a net total of $10,907, not including about $800 in prizes. Grand champion calf of the entire show was shown by Randolph Powell of the Corydon 4-H Club. An Angus steer, it weighed 1,135 pounds.

FARMERS TRY MODERN PENS FOR FARROWING

The most modern farrowing pens in Washington county, built by C. P. McClure of Maud are described by County Agent Troil Young.

Using an entire shed of a large tobacco barn, Mr. McClure built 14 pens. Each is 8 by 12 feet on a concrete base, with walls and ceiling double-boxed with tongue-and-groove flooring. Opening into each one is a double-sectioned door; either the lower or upper half may be used.

The pens are all supplied with electric brooders made of plywood, with a 100-watt electric bulb for heat. Guard rails, one of them hinged, extend around the pen. They are made of 2-by-8-inch boards set against the wall about eight inches off the floor.

Mr. McClure has built also a large combination stripping room and brooder house, 14 by 32 feet, with concrete floor. He plans to add a sunporch on the south side and, after tobacco stripping is over, he will use an electric brooder for his chicks.

TOBACCO DAMAGED BY RUBBER BANDS

The use of rubber bands to hold tobacco leaves may give manufacturers no end of trouble, according to complaints received at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station.

Used under the tie leaves, it is almost impossible to detect the rubber bands until they get to the stemming machines, one manufacturer wrote. It is then necessary to stop the machines and search the strips, go back and find the hogshead that is affected and untie each hand to get the tobacco free from rubber bands. This is an expensive job and delays processing the tobacco.

Most of the rubber bands have been found on the flying grades, which probably means that the farmer primed some of his tobacco.

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Ninety-nine out of a hundred babies are born with good feet, even if they do appear to be flat at the start. We say babies are born with flat feet because the bony masses in a new-born baby's feet are held in place by fat pads. As the baby starts to stand and walk, these fatty pads are absorbed and muscles take their place. But about the third year the arch of the foot should be pretty well defined if the child is going to have an arch. We say if, because everyone is not meant to have the same color of hair or eyes.

Perhaps when the child starts to stand he is overweight, or undernourished or has gone through a serious illness. In that event the muscles may not develop enough to produce an arch in the foot. He then grows with a natural flat foot. The condition is rarely painful. However, many cases of flat feet can be averted if the child is provided with shoes that hold the weak foot in alignment. Such shoes are usually wedged slightly under the inner border of the heel bone. This prevents tipping in of the ankles and by over correction has a tendency to cause the muscles on the inner border of the leg to shorten. These muscles are the ones which keep the foot arched.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tanner, Mrs. Lena Bentham and Mrs. Lloyd Aylor were summoned to Hillsboro, Ill., by the passing of Mr. Tanner's sister, Mrs. Ezra Keller 70, Oct. 24, 1940. Mrs. Keller was the wife of Rev. Ezra Keller, who has been pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Hillsboro the past 54 years. Mrs. Keller was in failing health for the past five years and was a helpless invalid the past two years, and more than two weeks prior to her death she lapsed into a coma. "Auntie" Keller as she was lovingly called by many of the congregation, both young and old, was a neighbor and friend to hundreds of people in her community where she served side by side with her husband throughout the many years of his ministry there. Rev. and Mrs. Keller were never too busy to help lift the burden of those around them, especially widowed mothers and young children. Mrs. Keller was a native of Florence and was one of eight children of the late Joshua E. and Sara Frances Tanner. Funeral services were held from St. Paul's Lutheran Church with Rev. Rolland O. Reichmann, pastor of First English Lutheran Church, of Decatur, officiating, assisted by other ministers. Despite the request to omit flowers, the front of the church was banked high, the chancel and altars were filled to capacity as a silent testimony of devotion felt for Mrs. Keller and her husband. Mrs. Keller leaves her husband, Rev. Ezra Keller, her brother James F. Tanner, a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Her body was laid to rest in the mausoleum in Oak Grove Cemetery. The many friends in Florence and vicinity extend sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Rev. H. J. Rehring of St. Henry Church, Erlanger has announced that on Nov. 19 the church will have its annual Thanksgiving festival featuring a turkey dinner and many attractive booths. All are invited.

The ladies of the Hopeful Lutheran Church wish to thank the general public for attending their recent chicken supper which was a tremendous success.

313 days to apply limestone

Weather permitting, there are 313 days in every year to lime the land, the other 52 are Sundays. That's just another way of saying when a farm needs liming the thing to do is to put it on no matter what season of the year it is.

A few years ago most farmers spread their limestone before planting in the spring or in the fall. Today hundreds of thousands of farmers are satisfactorily liming their soil throughout the four seasons. Much of it is being applied to sod ground any time after haying and before plowing for the next crop in the rotation.

We stand ready to serve you throughout the year, except on Sundays.

THE BOONE COUNTY RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 76 | BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1949 | NUMBER 19

Basketball Season Will Get Into Full Swing Next Week

Florence Will Meet Beechwood; New Haven To Battle Simon Kenton.

Boone County high school basketball will get into full swing next week when most of the teams go into action against out-of-county foes. Two games are on tap this week as Florence plays host to Coach Edgar McNabb's Beechwood Tigers Tuesday night and New Haven takes on the Simon Kenton five at Simon Kenton Friday night. Walton, who defeated Holy Cross last Tuesday by a 43-21 score will play the Crusaders at Holy Cross Friday night in a return warm-up contest.

Hebron's Cardinals will open their season Tuesday, Nov. 22, when they entertain the Lloyd High Juggernauts. Burlington's Eagles who were scheduled to open against Simon Kenton at the Independence school Tuesday, Nov. 22, will not open their season until Saturday, Nov. 26, when they are hosts to Dry Ridge's Cardinals. The Simon-Kenton, Burlington game was cancelled due to the Eagle's participation in football.

Strong Teams Expected

An early look at basketball prospects in the county this year indicate that some red-hot games are coming for basketball fans during the season. Probably the standout team of the county will be Walton's star-studded Bearcat team. Coach Hayes, whose team was co-winner with the Burlington Eagles last year in the Boone Conference, has his entire squad back. The team is paced by Dyke Vest, high scoring guard and Mattox, wiry pivotman. Other outstanding Bearcat players are Cheesman, Rice, Meadows, Johnson, Cleek and Ryan. Many experts are picking the Bearcats as the "team to beat" in northern Kentucky.

Eagles Without Miller

The Burlington Eagles prospects are uncertain even though seven lettermen from last year's co-winners return this season. The big and question mark loss was Lafe Miller, high scorer and star pivotman. Coach Maurer's returning lettermen and leading prospects from last year's reserve squad are J. Ryle, McBee, Cave, Cropper, G. Rouse, E. Ryle, A. Rouse Ockerman, Walton, McFarland and G. Ryle. If the Eagles can find a replacement for Miller their chances look bright, if not their conference laurels may be in jeopardy.

Knights—Sleepers

The Florence Knights may be riding dark horses this year. In fact they may be the real sleepers of the Conference. Their new coach, Chuck Henderson, has the nucules of a good squad in Markesbery, Roland, C. A. and E. England. Several other good prospects are Dinn, McKibben and Martin. The team will probably be short on size but fast on speed.

Cards, Tigers Inexperienced

Through the Hebron Cardinals have one of the toughest schedules in the team's history they will have a highly inexperienced outfit. Coach Ransler's entire group of possible starters were reserve boys last season. Fans can look for this team to lose a lot of games early but as the season rolls, watch Hebron improve.

New Haven, under their new coach Bill McAllister, will likewise be short on experience. Their squad will also lack size but you can never tell they may come with another "Flynn."

Coming Games

Nov. 18 Walton at Holy Cross.
Nov. 18 New Haven at Simon Kenton.
Nov. 21 New Haven at St. Henry.
Nov. 22 Lloyd at Hebron.
Nov. 22 Holy Cross at Florence.
Nov. 22 Walton at Beechwood.

H. L. Hudson

H. Lindsey Hudson, resident of Boone County for many years, died suddenly at his home near Union, early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Hudson had been suffering with a heart ailment for several years, but apparently was much improved during the past few months. He was a farmer his entire life and was well known throughout Boone County.

He is survived by five sons, Fred, of Greenup, Ky.; Elwood, Reid, Clay and Leroy, all of Boone County; one daughter, Mrs. Anna Wilherter, of Crittenden and a host of relatives and friends.

Although final arrangements have not been completed at this writing, it was thought that the funeral will be held at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home in Florence on Friday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

Chambers and Grubbs will be in charge of arrangements.

APPEARS ON CHURCH PROGRAM

Mrs. George Kreylich

Bullittsburg Baptists Plan Thanksgiving Services Sunday, November 20th

Short Thanksgiving services consisting of short readings, poems and other special numbers in music will be rendered Sunday morning, November 20th at Bullittsburg Baptist Church.

Services will begin with the Sunday School hour at 10:00 a. m. with a special offering for the Orphan's Home of Glendale and Spring Meadows. Rev. E. L. Patton will bring the message of the hour.

Mrs. George Kreylich will take part in the Thanksgiving program if not providentially hindered. For 73 years she has been a member of Bullittsburg Baptist Church, founded in 1794.

Mrs. Kreylich is historian of the church, preserving the historical archives of the church. She was baptized into the church May 1876, and was married at its altar February 1, 1888. She has been and is a loyal supporter, a faithful member, and a consecrated Christian.

On Mother's Day, Mrs. Kreylich was awarded the corsage for being the oldest mother in the congregation.

Large Potato Grown By Belleview Farmer

A large potato is on display at The Recorder office, which now weighs 2 pounds, but when dug weighed 2½ pounds. The large spud was grown by Lewis Rogers, of Belleview, on the farm of W. B. Rogers. The variety was said to be called "sequoia."

Dedication Services Announced For Petersburg Church

Educational Building To Be Dedicated In Honor of World War II Heroes.

On Sunday, November 20, the Petersburg Christian Church of Petersburg, Ky., will dedicate a new addition to its building to provide for educational and social activities.

The building will be dedicated in honor of two men from that congregation who gave their lives in World War II, Edward F. Helms and Raymond E. Witham. A bronze plaque at the entrance reads: "Dedicated to the cause of Christian Education and in honor of Edward F. Helms and Raymond E. Witham, members of this congregation who gave their lives in World War II."

The Rev. Forrest King, secretary-director of Kentucky Christian Churches, will preach at the morning service and the Rev. Barton A. Johnson, pastor of the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington, will deliver the dedicatory sermon in the afternoon. A basket dinner will be served at noon. At the afternoon service beginning at 2:00, former pastors will share in the program and bring brief words of greeting.

The building, costing approximately $12,000, is of concrete block and brick construction and contains three private class rooms, a kitchen, lavatory, and a large dining room in addition to housing the Chapin Memorial Library of 5,000 volumes, dedication of which took place September 10. A new three-control oil heating plant was also installed and is now in successful operation.

Construction of the building was made possible partially through funds secured from the sale of 50-acre tract of land near Petersburg which was deeded to the church in 1893 by the late Martha Collins. The new addition will be known as the "Collins Annex."

Many Interesting Historical Events Outlined By Florence Man.

The following article was prepared by A. M. Yealey of Florence, after Big Bone was chosen as one of the sites for the proposed State Park. Many interesting historical events are outlined by Mr. Yealey in the following article:

Big Bone Lick has long been remembered for its salt springs, the depository of bones of animals of the glacial age in North America and its geographical surroundings.

We shall now try and inform you of its early history.

The writer 20 years ago published articles stating that M. Longnell was the first white man to visit the Lick, 1739. We should know that the French and Indian wars that were fought in the Ohio Valley from 1744 to 1763 prevented very few settlements in this region, and those that were getting a foothold were attacked and plundered.

Robert Smith, a frequent visitor of the Lick lived in the village of Pickwithanny. This hamlet was situated on the Big Miami River near Urbana, Ohio. Mr. Smith was a frequent visitor to the Lick from 1744 to 1751 and was the first person to realize the value of those large bones, and he had transported quite a number of them to the village where he lived when the French and Indians plundered and destroyed the village. There is no doubt that Mr. Smith being the first visitor that knew these bones would be of great value to the twin sciences, viz. Geolofy and Paleontology had the choice and selected the best. So we may conclude that the first choice was lost or destroyed.

From 1751 to 1780 Big Bone had a great number of visitors. Christopher Gist, who was employed by the Ohio Land Company of Virginia, John Findley a fur trader, Mary Inglis the first white woman in Kentucky, George Croghan, a Kentucky explorer while here collected a great number of bones. During this period Kentucky was a county of Virginia and surveyors were sent to make land surveys. Therefore, John Floyd and William Preston surveyors of Fincastle County, Virginia made the first land grant surveys in 1774.

At the close of the French and Indian war the King of England gave the governor of Virginia the power to give grant lands to American soldiers who fought for her during the last war against the French.

Thomas Jefferson was governor of Virginia during 1779 and 1780, and he made a land grant of 1000 acres to William Christian. This grant included all the springs, being the same tract surveyed by John Floyd 1774.

Mr. Christian did not hold this land very long. In 1780 he sold the

Burley Loan Rates Average 40.3 Cents Pound, Is Word

Ninety Percent of Parity Price Will Be Available To Burley Growers.

Commodity Credit Corporation loan rates on the 1949 burley crop will average 40.3 cents a pound, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced.

The loans at 90 percent of the parity price of tobacco as of September 15, 1949, will be available on a grade basis to all cooperating burley growers.

The schedule of grade rates for burley range from 10 to 62 cents a pound.

Loan rates for 1949-crop fire-cured tobacco average 30.2 cents a pound and for dark air-cured tobacco 26.9 cents a pound. Fire-cured and dark air-cured loan rates, under applicable statutory provisions, are 75 and 66 2-3 percent, respectively, of the burley loan rate.

The loans will be made available to cooperating growers through farmer cooperative associations.

Under the 1948 loan program approximately 96,000,000 pounds of burley, 27,000,000 pounds of fire-cured, and 9,000,000 pounds of dark air-cured tobacco were placed under loan. On August 31, 1949, total CCC loan stocks of these types included about 120,000,000 pounds of burley, 65,000,000 pounds of fire-cured, and 26,000,000 pounds of dark air-cured, from the 1946, 1947 and 1948 crops.

Comparable 1948-crop average loan rates for these tobaccos were: Burley, 42.4 cents a pound; fire-cured, 31.8c; and dark air-cured, 28.3 cents. The lower averages for the 1949 crop reflect a decrease in parity prices.

Final Football Conference Games Played Last Week

Burlington and Hebron Chalk Up Victories Over Dry Ridge and New Haven

The Northern Kentucky Six-Man Football Conference games ended last week with Burlington trampling New Haven 92 to 8 Tuesday night, and Hebron trimming Dry Ridge 39 to 14 Thursday evening.

Jim Ryle of Burlington led the attack against the inexperienced Tigers scoring five touchdowns. Bill McBee and Bob Walton added three and two TD's respectively. Other Eagles making touchdowns were Jones, Holbrook, Kelly, Ockerman and Abdon with one each. Rhodes hit pay-dirt for the lone Tiger TD.

The Tanner brother of Hebron teamed up to lead the Cardinals to victory over Dry Ridge with two touchdowns each. Day and Ziegler each hit pay-dirt once for a TD. Day's touchdown and E. Tanner's two were made on passes from J. Tanner.

Howe and Hubbard each scored for Dry Ridge and A. Lawrence kicked for two extra points.

Christmas Seal Campaign To Open Monday, Nov. 21st

Health Films Will Be Shown At Various Schools In County.

The forty-third annual Christmas Seal Sale campaign in Boone County will open November 21, according to Mrs. Sibbia Reimer, president of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association.

"Health education," Mrs. Reimer said, "is the theme of the local unit's Christmas seal program this year." The local president went on to say that health authorities believe that a good program of health education, whereby people would realize that to prevent a disease is much better than to attempt to cure it later, is the answer to the nation's health problems.

With the above thought in mind, the local association has scheduled a number of health lectures thruout the county with leading health authorities as speakers. They also have a number of health pamphlets and booklets which may be used by any group, club, class or organization requesting them.

Films To Be Shown

Several health films are being obtained by the group and will be shown at schools in the county and to other groups desiring them. Two film strips, "Me and TB" and "TB Facts," are now available to schools for use in health classes. Any of this material may be obtained for use by contacting Mrs. Reimer, Mrs. Carroll Cropper, association treasurer, or Ralph G. Maurer, seal sale publicity chairman.

Health Facts

Following are some health facts gathered by the Boone County Tuberculosis Association reprinted here to help educate the public in this vital social problem.

What causes tuberculosis? The tubervie bacillus. A contributing factor may be anything that lowers the general resistance of the individual, such as undernourishment, unhygienic living conditions, insufficient rest and relaxation.

How is it contracted? The germ, in most instances, is inhaled into the lugs where it sets up an inflammation.

Is tuberculosis inherited? No.

Is it possible to cure at home? Yes, but it is generally unwise to attempt to do so. It is preferable that the patient be hospitalized for the time necessary to render him free from the germ.

How should one make sure he does not have tuberculosis? By having an examination of his chest, an X-ray of his lungs, and a test of his sputem.

Benefit Games Expected To Attract Large Crowd, According to Sponsors.

"The Breakfast Battle"—that's how Larry Shropshire, sports editor of the Lexington Leader, has titled the state championship six-man football game between the Burlington High School Eagles and the Lebanon Junction team at Stoll Field, Lexington, Thanksgiving Day morning. The contest which will be played at 11 o'clock a. m. is the first of a triple-header grid card being sponsored by the Oleika Temple of Shrine.

The Shriners, who are hoping to pull a record crowd for their program with the triple-header offering this year, are as Alolph Rupp, program chairman; said, "offering three games for the price of one." All net proceeds of the program Mr. Rupp said will be used by the Shriners in their work in behalf of cripled children, providing hospitalization, treatment, braces, etc. More than 13,000 attended the program last year.

Strong Opponents

The Eagles, according to downstate reports, are going up against a strong and formidable foe in the Lebanon Junction outfit. The winners of the Blue Grass Conference have been undefeated in their last two seasons, having won 16 consecutive contests.

Coach Edwin Walton's team itself sports an outstanding record. They have won the Northern Kentucky Conference the past two years and have only one defeat on their record during the two year span. The Eagles are considered one of the largest teams in the state (including 11-men outfits) and yet they are blessed with the prime prerequisite of six-man football—speed.

Two 11-Men Games

Selections of 11-men teams to the Shrine event have not been announced as this article is written but teams being considered are Dayton, Louisa, Shelbyville, Mt. Sterling, Flaget of Louisville and Corbin.

No, they're not hieroglyphics . . . they're part of the prescription your doctor gave you the other day.

To you, that abbreviated Latin legend meant nothing, but to your pharmacist it said, "Mix the ingredients of this prescription in the form of an emulsion, and label the bottle 'One teaspoonful three times a day after meals'."

Your physician often uses Latin in writing prescriptions, and for two reasons. First, Latin is the universal language of medical science, and a prescription written in any part of the world, by a physician of any nationality, can be filled by any pharmacist. Second, Latin is a "dead" language, and, therefore, the exact meanings of words are not subject to variation from year to year as are words in the modern languages.

Many drugs that have similar names, have very different actions. Take, for example, mercurous chloride and mercuric chloride . . . one is calomel, a laxative; the other is bichloride of mercury, a violent poison. Then there are phenobarbital and pentobarbital, sodium salicylate and sodium silicate, acetanilid and acetone, aconite and aconitine, and a multitude of other drug names equally confusing to you.

They are not confusing to your pharmacist, however. His familiarity with medical, chemical, and pharmaceutical terms is but a part of his skill as a pharmacist . . . a skill developed through years of college training and experience in compounding prescriptions and rendering other necessary public health services.

5,000 POUNDS OF SCRAP METAL REMOVED FROM ROADS BY HIGHWAY MAGNET

Over 5,000 pounds of scrap metal have been removed from Kentucky roads since last July when the Department of Highway started patrolling the highways with its truck-mounted highway magnet.

Traffic director W. P. Ringo reports 5,672 pounds of puncture-producing scrap metal were picked up on 3,759 miles of roadway, an average of 1.5 pounds per mile, during the period July 11 to October 29.

"Much of this material consists of bent nails, bolts, screws, short pieces of baling wire, spikes, and the like," Ringo said. "Also there were many hundreds of metal beer cans included in the debris. In each pound of this scrap metal there are 100 possible punctures."

The five-ton magnet, mounted on a large truck, was first put into use in July. It is to patrol all state roads throughout the year, except during period of ice and snow.

W. M. U. NOTES

The W. M. U. of the Union Baptist Church met last Wednesday afternoon at the church for their regular monthly meeting. After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Mary Belle Noe was in charge of a very interesting study of the Moslem Lands. Her topic was "Christ is the Answer for Moslem Lands."

The devotional message found in John 14:6 "One Way, One Door," was brought in a most inspiring way by Mrs Clifford Gatewood.

The five distinctive beliefs and practices of Moslem Lands were given by Mrs. Harry Craddock, Louise Newman, Anna Smith, Helen June Gatewood, Bernice Hedges and Mrs. V. G. Young. Mrs. William Greenup was dressed in a Moslem robe and veil which gave us a vision of how the Moslem women are still bound to slavery, and no emancipation for her freedom is as yet been set forth in that country.

Fifteen members and one visitor answered the roll call at this very impressive meeting.

—Publicity Chairman.

God's Open House

Lesson for November 20, 1949

IT IS A WARM chapter, this 55th of Isaiah. Some false ideas about God melt away fast when they are brought close to it. Let us take a look at some of these notions and see how they wilt in the light of God's word. Sometimes these notions are held sincerely, sometimes they are mere excuses to keep from facing God. One of these mistaken notions is the idea that God has two lists; one is a list of people on whom he intends to have mercy, and will save; the other list being a private one, of those on whom he intends to have no mercy and will not save. If your name is on the first list, fine; but if it is on the second list, you are in a hopeless fix; for if God is not going to help you, who can?

Dr. Foreman

This is a terribly wrong notion. It confuses the true God with some sort of sultan in the sky who has a "social register" of persons he will admit to his palace. "Use this invitation as your card of admittance." No, it is not at all like that.

If you really think that admission to heaven is by card only, then cut out Isaiah 55 and present it at the gate. Cut out any verse in the Bible that says "Whosoever,"—John 3:16 for example—and present that. God keeps open house, he does not employ butlers or strong-arm men to keep out the crowds, he wants all to come who will. Do you want God? Then come. Are you thirsty for the living water? Then drink. It is as simple as that.

• • •

No Waiting

THERE IS ANOTHER notion that keeps people away from God. It is a kind of sheyga. It is the feeling that maybe it isn't any use hunting for God. It is the feeling a boy has when he is lost in the woods and has about made up his mind that there is no use in walking any more, he will just sit down and wait till somebody finds him.

It is the feeling that God may be sensitive and doesn't want people coming bothering him. It is the notion that if God wants me, he will knock me down and drag me where he wants me to be. A man with a notion like that, of course, isn't likely to meet with God.

He spends his life paying God no attention whatever, not even thinking about him, perhaps. He may even go as far as he can from the Father's house, believing that God's long arm, like the long arm of the F.B.I. or the Mounties, will reach after him and get him in case God ever wants him.

Now this is a ridiculous idea and a bad one too. Isaiah would not think it true for a minute. "Seek ye the Lord," he says. "Call on God . . . return to the Lord." "Incline your ear and come!" This means you—if you will. But if you won't, God will not force you. He forces no man. He wants willing obedience, loving service, not slavery. God will have no chain on you but the chain of love. God keeps an open house, not a prison farm.

• • •

No House Of Horrors

ANOTHER WRONG NOTION, for which, alas, many a church member is partly responsible, is the notion that the nearer we get to God, the gloomier we shall be.

All the talk about sacrifice and suffering for others, such as we were thinking of last week, all the emphasis in the church on the death of Christ, all the solemnity of most church services, make people think: "God may be all right for solemn people, but not for me; I like life with a smile."

Now that is just another mistaken notion. The very persons who know the deeper meanings of sacrifice are just the persons who don't like to use that word about themselves.

In fact, it could be said that in general it is only Christians who have a right to be gay. Jesus himself, on the same night in which he was betrayed, spoke to his friends about sharing his joy to the full.

Isaiah 55 is certainly no invitation to gloom. Joy, peace, the clapping of hands are there. But how do we know Isaiah was right? There is only one way, and that is not to sit arguing about it. You never know what a party is like by staying at home.

Do you really want to find out what goes on there? Don't be content to hear others say, "It's wonderful!" God's door stands open.

KENTUCKY'S SHARE OF FEDERAL DEFICIT FOR FISCAL YEAR WILL BE $60,000,000

The Kentucky Chamber of Commerce today revealed that Kentucky's share of the cost of meeting the impending $4½ billion-dollar Federal deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, will be $60,000,000, "plus interest for an indefinite number of years."

The Chamber's estimate was contained in a statement by George Mascott, executive vice president, released after a study of the President's midyear review of the 1950 budget made public November 1.

Mascott added that the Federal Government's "record-breaking peacetime spending budget" of $43.5 billion for the fiscal year 1950 will exact from Kentucky taxpayers an estimated $823,000,000.

Mascott explained that Kentucky taxpayers currently bear 1.36 per cent of the total Federal tax burden. Since all Federal expenditures and deficits must be met by taxation, the Chamber computed Kentucky's share of the impending deficit as 1.36 per cent of the $4½ billion dollar deficit, or $60,000,000; similarly Kentucky share of the 1950 Federal spending budget is 1.36 per cent of 43½ billion dollars, or $823,000,000.

Automobiles Novelty Fifty Years Ago

Automobiles were a novelty fifty years ago, according to an item appearing recently in the Fifty Year Ago column of the Cincinnati Enquirer, dated November 13, 1910.

The item carried by the Enquirer fifty years ago follows:

"An automobile created considerable interest in the business district downtown last night. The vehicle was under the guidance of Mr. Max Fleischmann, whose monogram it bore. This is the first vehicle of its kind that has been seen on the streets of Cincinnati when many people were out. Mr. Schmidlapp having tried his in the early morning. The automobile is built in the style of a business buggy and is propelled by a gasoline motor. It can attain a speed on the heavy grade of Hunt Street that will enable its occupant to go from the Post Office to Washington and Forest Aves., Avondale, in 20 minutes. The distance is at least five miles."

Cold Weather May Increase Mastitis In Herds

Frequently Follows Teat Or Udder Injury, Says Foundation Bulletin.

With colder weather coming on, mastitis cases may increase in dairy herds, the American Foundation for Animal Health today warned cattle owners.

"Mastitis frequently follows teat or udder injury," a Foundation bulletin says.

"Many animals which have spent much of the day on pasture are being confined to barns at this time of year as pastures taper off. This means that mastitis hazards are greater."

To safeguard cows, the Foundation advised these precautionary steps:

"Check the barn for high sills, protruding nails, or any objects which may injure teats and udders.

"Have a veterinarian examine all animals for the disease. Infected cows should be put at the end of the milking line and milked last.

"Practice rapid milking, making sure that teat cups are not left on any longer than necessary. Check vacuum gauges; too much vacuum is responsible for numerous teat injuries.

"Disinfect the milking equipment and see that the cow's teats and udders, and milker's hands are washed and dried, since these are the paths by which mastitis infection travels from diseased to healthy animals.

"Keep a close lookout for signs of trouble. If called promptly, veterinarians can save many cases which otherwise might soon become untreatable."

The First Assistant Postmaster General at Washington, D. C., has asked that local postmasters remind the general public of the postage rates for the approaching Christmas season. There are no more 1½ cent stamps for mailing greeting cards. Under the new rates, a 2-cent stamp is required. This applies to unsealed greetings. The Post Office Department prefers that greetings cards be sealed, that a 3-cent stamp be used and that the letter bear a return address. This enables better handling, and if the addressee has moved to another address, the greeting card may be forwarded without extra postage to the new address. If you send your greetings by the 2-cent postage in an unsealed envelope, you are not entitled to directory service, your greeting cannot be forwarded to another address without additional postage. Do your mailing early and patronize your local post office. Your rural carrier will appreciate it if you will have your cards stamped and tied in bundles. He will be only too happy to supply you with your holiday stamps. When in doubt about packing parcels to be shipped to your loved ones in distant cities, consult your local post office. The Postmaster or any of the clerks on duty will be delighted to help you in any way. Parcels to the men in the armed services should be on their way immediately for delivery overseas.

The community wishes to welcome Mr and Mrs Lawrence Kelly and family—new arrivals to the community.

The Car Designed With YOU in Mind!

Come in and see why it offers you more comfort, better engineering and greater value!

Perhaps you have just about made up your mind about the kind of car you want to get. You know what features it offers you. You know its reputation. You know the delivered price here in town for the model you want.

Take our advice. Do as thousands of motorists have already done. See a De Soto before you decide. Compare it with the car you had in mind. Compare it feature by feature. Compare it for roominess, comfort and visibility as well as for looks.

Compare the smoothness of the ride. Compare De Soto's Tip-Toe Hydraulic Shift and gyrol Fluid Drive that let you drive all day without shifting.

Above all, compare dollar-for-dollar value, and see why this is the most wanted De Soto in all De Soto history. Find out how easy it is to own. Then—and only then—make your decision.

NEW HAVEN HOMEMAKERS

On Tuesday, November 8, the New Haven Homemakers met at Mrs. Ed Grater's home for their second lesson, "Living With a Purpose."

An innovation at this meeting was the dinner prepared by Mrs. Grater from quick mixes and canned goods to illustrate that a homemaker can serve a lovely dinner without too much fuss by utilizing these products. The nineteen members and three visitors who were present agreed that it was a delicious meal.

After noon the interesting lesson was presented by Mrs. Jake Cleek and Mrs. Mattie Griffith.

Surgical Shoes

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

HISTORY—Mrs. G. E. M. suffered headaches and neckaches. Her neck ached so intensely at the base of the skull she could hardly see. Days at a time she could hardly see. Days at a time she could not get out of bed because of the severity of the pains. She read one of our ads., telling of the good work we were doing, and decided to see what we could do for her. After a very short time wearing surgical shoes, pain in the head and neck lessened till finally it disappeared entirely and she is well and happy. It is now possible for her to do her own work even when it is necessary for her to climb a stepladder. Surgical shoes seemingly worked miracles for her.

COMMENT — Strain on ligaments and tendons naturally has a weakening effect upon muscles. Continued neglect of these conditions may be the cause of your aches and pain in the neck and back and if you have been unable to get relief, come in and let us see what we can do for you.

If your ankles are weak and you are constantly rolling them, surgical shoes are definitely the answer to your problem.—Adv.

HADACOL HELPS ALL AGE GROUPS

The good news about HADACOL and the blessed relief that it brings so many folks, is carried from person to person who have been benefited. For instance Mrs. W. M. Thompson, of Port Arthur, Texas, took HADACOL because it had helped her husband and he, in turn, had taken HADACOL because it had benefited an elderly neighbor.

Mrs. Thompson's normal weight is 135 pounds but she was down to 110 pounds before taking HADACOL but after a few bottles of HADACOL she had regained her normal weight and felt like a new person.

Mrs. Thompson

"I was bothered with stomach trouble, gastric disturbances, had lost my appetite and was bloated," said Mrs. Thompson. She had tried several other preparations without beneficial results before taking HADACOL. She began to feel improvement with the first bottle of HADACOL.

Mrs. Thompson, like countless thousands of others, was suffering from the lack of B vitamins and minerals in her system, which HADACOL contains.

HADACOL contains not only one, but 5 of the B Vitamins. HADACOL contains not only one, but 4 of the necessary Minerals. It comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have already been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

So it matters not who you are . . . it matters not where you live . . . or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation a trial. Don't go on suffering! Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives again because HADACOL supplied the Vitamins and Minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Give HADACOL a trial.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers will hold their regular meeting Tuesday November 22 at 10:30 a. m. The morning will be devoted to the business at hand. The afternoon study period will be conducted by Mrs. Robert Cox and Mrs. P. W. Van Berg. The lesson will be, "Scientific Housekeeping" or "Planning Your Day."

All members are urged to attend. Mothers with young children are extended a special invitation, for efforts are being made to provide entertainment for the small fry.

GUNPOWDER HOMEMAKERS

"Employ thy time well if thou meanest to gain leisure! And since thou are not sure of a minute, throw not away an hour. Leisure is time for doing something useful. This leisure the diligent man will obtain, but the lazy man never—Industry gives comfort and plenty and respect."—Benjamin Franklin.

This quotation was read by Mrs. Virgil Kelly, club leader as the lesson on "Simplified Living" was concluded at the November meeting of the Gunpowder Homemakers held Tuesday, November 8 at the home of Mrs. Ray Newman, Mt. Zion Rd.

A most important factor in our day's work is planning well our time, said Mrs. Dolpha Sebree, co-leader.

"It is better to be a good housekeeper or a good homemakers?" was asked to the club. A general discussion on short cuts to housekeeping and most profitable paths to peruse when rearing children followed.

same to David Ross, a good friend to Jefferson. Mr. Ross was a real estate operator and held title to about 100,000 acres of land in Ohio and Kentucky. Most all this land was obtained by the purchase of grant lands that were sold by American soldiers, who had received them under the King of England's proclamation.

Mr. Ross finally got in debt so much that he was forced to dispose of the Big Bone tract. Therefore in 1806 he sold this tract to Wilson Allen, Edmund Rootes and Jacob Myers, but held possession of it (through the influence of Thomas Jefferson, who then was president of the United States) until 1808.

Mr. Ross then gave the president permission to make further search for these bones. The president then ordered Geo. Rogers Clark to have his brother William Clark and Meredith Lewis, who had just returned from their famous expedition to the Oregon territory to employ laborers and collect as many of these bones as possible.

After three weeks' work, Mr. Clark shipped three large boxes of bones to Mr. Jefferson by the way of New Orleans. One of these boxes was opened and put on display in the White House, the other boxes were given to the Philosophical Society in Philadelphia and the National Institute of France in Paris.

During the month of August 1808 Mr. Ross completed his deal with Allen,, Rootes and Myers, who became the owners. They did not fancy this wild wilderness and held the ownership but one year 1809, and sold the tract to Mr. Colquohoun, who purchased this for the purpose of establishing a salt industry.

Salt had been manufactured here since 1756, but the cost was about $4.00 per hundred weight, which proved too high to be exported. Mr. Colquohoun thought he could reduce the cost of manufacture, and built two fine furnaces and mantled kettles that would hold from 15 gallons of water to one hundred gallons, but all his work was in vain. He found the great distance over bad roads made it too expensive as Mr. Tanner's shop book shows that he purchased salt on the Cincinnati market in 1812 at a cost of $2.94 per barrel, or about 1¼¢ a pound. This was the end of the salt industry at Big Bone, but the salt industry and the large bones had advertised and made the Springs known for their medical value thru the states of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

A large hotel was built and called the Clay Hotel (named for Henry Clay). From 1815 to 1845 Big Bone was one of the best watering places and health resorts west of the Alleghany Mountains, equipped with a fine hotel, a long row of bath houses, a large open pavillion.

Here in the evening we find the Negro slave fiddling the old Virginia reel, while his dancers and audience consisted of representatives of the best families in Ohio and Indiana who came by steamboat on the Ohio River landing at Hamilton, then traveling afoot or by hack to the Spring. But it was different with the bluegrass families. They came in their family coaches with the slave drivers and servants. It was not only a short visit, but a great many spent the entire summer here.

Mr. Leonard Stephens, who became the first sheriff of Kenton County in 1840 was always deeply negrossed in politics from 1825 to 1845, made it his political domicile and all the politicians over the state would meet him there to plan the outlook for Northern Kentucky. We have records of the Clays, Breckenridges, Marshalls, Johnsons and many others who sought his political advice here.

The old hotel has disappeared, but another was built about 1870 on a hill above the road north of the springs. This never was very popular and it has been rapidly decaying and perhaps today is entirely gone.

Boone County was organized in 1798 and we have given you the owners up to 1810. Therefore you should be able to find all owners since 1898 at the court house.

Numerous Hunters Fined On Various Charges Sunday

Wardens Work U. S. 42 and Highway 25 With State Highway Troopers.

Conservation officers, stationed on U. S. 42 and 25 made a total of 33 arrests Sunday while checking northbound traffic over these two main highways. The conservation officers had asked permission to work with State Highway Patrolmen, who were checking drivers licenses at these points.

Sunday was the opening day of the hunting season in Kentucky, and many hunters took to the fields, and those who were law abiding had nothing to fear from the conservation officers, and were detained only a few minutes while wardens checked their kill and hunting license.

Many however, who were less law abiding, twenty-three to be exact, found that severe penalties awaited them in Judge C. L. Cropper's Court, which was very busy from 3:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. Sunday evening.

Fines levied on the violators totaled $739.00, with fines ranging from $29.50 the minimium, to $139, the maximum.

Fifteen non-resident hunters were fined for failing to have proper license, having over the bag limit or hunting with unplugged guns; seven received fines from out of the county on charges of having more than the bag limit or improperly plugged gun; one Boone County man was fined for failing to have a license.

According to Cincinnati dailies hunters from that city protested action taken by the wardens in checking hunters. Local authorities stated however, that this was the only method whereby a large percentage of hunting licenses could be checked by the number of wardens allotted to this area.

Named as defendents in the new petition are A. E. Funk, attorney general of Kentucky; R. L. Vincent, commonwealth attorney. and Austin Scroggins, Boone county jailer.

Ford has been in the Burlington jail since his trial, awaiting transfer to La Grange Reformatory.

Christmas Seal Campaign Opened In County Monday

Three Thousand Letters Containing Seals Mailed Boone County Families.

Approximately 3,000 letters containing 1949 Christmas Seals were mailed out to Boone County families early this week. The formal opening of the seal sale began Monday in the county.

Mrs. Sibbia Reimer, president of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, expressed her "sincere thanks" to those who so generously aided in preparing, addressing, stuffing, sealing and classifying the seal sale letters. She also stated that it was the hope of the local association that Boone County would again lead the state in per capita sale of seals.

Where Your Money Goes?

Money for the sale of Christmas seals is largely used in the county where given for the purpose of keeping patients in hospitals, X-rays, rehabilitation and health programs. Seventy-five percent of all receipts are used in the county, twenty percent goes to the state association and five percent to the national association.

Local association leaders said "we are requesting those who so generously help in the fight against tuberculosis to mail the money immediately for the Christmas Seals, thereby having this charitable task out of the way before the hurried days of the customary Christmas rush."

Since the beginning of this century, tuberculosis has been forced down from first to seventh place as a cause of death among Americans. During 1900, there were nearly 194 deaths for every 100,000 people. In 1948, the death rate was approximately 30 per 100,000. Even today, however, tuberculosis kills close to 1,000 Americans a week.

Gains against the disease did not come about accidentally. They are the result of an organized, nationwide attack on tuberculosis, spearheaded ,developed, and supported by the American people themselves.

The founding of the National Tuberculosis Association in 1904 marked the first organized nationwide attack on a single major disease in this country. The organizers of the National Association comprised a group of doctors and laymen who were determined to act concertedly against a disease which was then the leading cause of death in this country.

Objectives of the founders were to study tuberculosis in all its forms, disseminate facts about the disease to all the people, and to promote medical research on tuberculosis.

Although the campaign was planned on a nationwide scale, it was obvious that its success called for attacking the disease on a community basis, since the various areas of the country had different problems to be solved before tuberculosis could be controlled.

Financial support to continue the battle against tuberculosis, carried on by the voluntary associations comes from the annual sale of Christmas Seals which opened this year on November 21 and will continue until Christmas. Every American who buys and uses Christmas Seals is actively engaged in the war waged against tuberculosis in his own community.

Traffic Tied Up For One And One-Half Hours On U. S. Highway 42.

Fire completely destroyed a large tractor and trailor truck Monday afternoon on U. S. Highway 42 near Duck Head Inn, according to Sheriff Rouse, who was called to the scene.

The truck owned and driven by James Hopkins, of Warsaw was traveling south on U. S. 42 when the driver discovered flames lapping through the floor of the truck. He pulled the vehicle to the edge of the highway and escaped without injury.

Sheriff Rouse stated that loss was estimated at approximately $30,000. The truck was loaded with automobile tires, nylon cord, welding compounds and acetylene tanks. The truck and its contents were completely destroyed in the blaze.

Traffic on U. S. 42 was halted for 1½ hours due to the fire Sheriff Rouse reported. He stated that the heat was terrific, and explosions of the acetylene tanks made fighting the blaze an impossibility.

Wreckers from local garages removed the truck from the highway later Monday afternoon and traffic was resumed.

Outstanding Ministers Will Be Heard At Festival

Of Fellowship Week of November 27 at Bullittsville Christian Church.

The Bullittsville Christian Church will observe a Festival of Fellowship the week of November 27th. Ministers of the greater Cincinnati area will bring messages each evening 7:30 having to do with the development of and advantages of Christian fellowship. It is believed by the pastor, A. C. Young, that such emphasis is needed today in view of the many concerns which both individual and family are called upon to face. A man's faith is apt to give way under the stress of these concerns unless the Christian community stands together against immorality and materialism.

The Rev. C. O. Cossaboom, minister of the Mount Healthy Christian Church, will be the first speaker. His message, on Sunday evening the 27th, will be followed in the listed order. Monday the Rev. Charles J. Sebastian, minister of Central Christian Church, Cincinnati, will speak. Tuesday the Rev. John B. Bridwell, minister of the First Christian Church, Ft. Thomas will bring the message. Wednesday the Rev. Glenn O. Mills, minister of the Carthage Christian Church, will speak. Thursday the Rev. Wilfred H. McClain, minister of the Norwood Christian Church, will bring the message. Friday, the Rev. C. Duke Payne, minister of the First Christian Church, Covington, will bring the message. Saturday the Rev. Claude R. MacDonald, minister of the Petersburg Christian Church will speak.

Sunday 11:00 a. m. Rev. A. C. Young will bring the special period of fellowship to a close with the final sermon. Following the services each evening the public is invited to share in a Fellowship Hour in the basement of the church. Rev. Young extends a cordial invitation to the public to come.

Boone County Conference basketball teams have held outside opposition to an even split in four early season contests during the past week. Walton's star-studded Bearcats have laced Holy Cross in two games by lopsided scores, but the Florence Knights and the New Haven Tigers have not fared so well against the better opposition of Beechwood and Simon Kenton. The Knights lost to Beechwood by a 65-50 count at the loser's court last Tuesday and the Tigers dropped a 68-22 game to Simon Kenton Friday at the Pioneer's floor.

Knights Look Good

Coach Chuck Henderson's Florence Knights gave strong indications that they are going to be "plenty good" before the season gets very old. Led by "Red" Markesbery on the offensive end and Roland on the rebound end, the Knights made a very interesting evening for Coach McNabb and his Tiger outfit. Markesbery tallied 18 points for the losers while Wilshire tipped in 25 for Beechwood. The Beechie reserves also won.

New Haven Loses

New Haven's Tigers lost to the Simon Kenton Pioneers by a 68-23 score last Friday night. Quarter scores were 17-6, 36-11 and 51-15. The Kenton reserves won 25-14. Ervin and Coppage paced the winners with 16 and 15 points, respectively. Jones had eight for the losers.

County Chairman Urges Growers To Vote On Quotas

Marketing Quotas Will Be Determined by Growers Saturday, November 26.

"Vote as you like, but by all means vote," was the appeal made today to burley tobacco growers of Boone County by W. M. Smith, chairman of the PMA county committee.

"Congress has made it possible for farmers to decide whether or not we want marketing quotas on burley tobacco for 1950 and also for 1951 and 1952. It is up to us to go to the polls and state our preference," the PMA chairman said.

He pointed out that marketing quotas furnish growers with a method of adjusting supply to demand and can help secure fair prices for the tobacco produced.

Burley allotment for individual farms in 1950 will be less than 1949 allotments, except those of nine-tenths acre or less, if marketing quotas are approved. As provided by law, allotments of nine-tenths acre or less cannot be reduced if any burley tobacco has been grown on the farm during the five years 1945-49.

Larger allotments will be reduced 14.7 percent below the 1949 level. Farmers will be notified of their 1950 burley acreage allotments before the referendum.

There will be a small acreage for adjustment of old farm allotments, and for establishing allotments on farms which no tobacco has been grown in the past five years where the operator has been a burley grower in past years.

If the supply and demand situation warrants, the Secretary of Agriculture can increase allotments up to March 1, 1950.

Every person who has an interest in the 1949 crop of burley tobacco as owner, tenant, or share cropper is entitled to vote in the referendum, but no person is entitled to more than one vote even though he produces burley tobacco in two or more communities, counties or states.

"I believe every burley grower ought to vote one way or another in this referendum," Mr. Smith said. "This is the democratic way of deciding this important issue, and I urge that every burley grower in the county go to his community voting place on Saturday, November 26, and cast a ballot."

Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. November 26 at the following voting places: Constance and Hebron, Hebron Fire House; Petersburg, Petersburg School; Grant, Clitsens Bank; Burlington, courthouse; Florence, Florence firehouse; Hamilton and Carlton, Hamilton School; Union and Beaver, New Haven School; Verona, Verona Bank; Walton, City building.

Europe Discussed By Rotary Speaker Monday

John Cox, Executive Secretary of the Covington Chamber of Commerce addressed the Florence Rotary Club at its meeting Monday night. The subject of his talk was "Europe Then and Now." During 1944 and 1945 Mr. Cox was engaged in work with the Military Government in Germany. On a recent trip back to Europe he was very much surprised at the rapid recovery being made by the people of France and Germany. He particularly observed the large number of cattle now grazing the country side and the rapid rebuilding of Stuttgart, Germany.

By way of contrast Mr. Cox, who is English by birth, pointed out that the people of England are suffering a great deal by very stringent rationing laws and other hardships. He stated for example that each person is permitted only nine ounces of meat per week.

At the present time the Irish Free State is the most economical place in which to live of any of the countries visited by Mr. Cox. In that country food and clothing are priced very low because the normal English market for these items has been severely curtailed Mr. Cox pointed out.

Mr. West, president of the Florence Rotary Club announced that a meeting of the Board of Directors will be held next Monday night immediately following the regular meeting.

Town Dads Named

The voters of Florence turned out for one of the most enthusiastic elections the City has experienced in some years. A light vote had been expected because of the fact that all county elections had been determined in the August primary.

Sheriff R. I. Rouse, C. Liston Hempfling, and Lillard B. Scott, election commissioners, reported the following election returns.

For Board of Trustees: Clifford Coyle 187, Alfred Becker 168, George R. Scott 164, John H. Buetteller 160, Bradley Sayers 148, Francis K. Souther 80, Eugene C. Schroder, 71, Harvey Baker, 81, Gilby Green 101, Ed Ott 1, Don Mager 1, Judge Groves 1. The first five candidates listed will serve for the next two years.

No one had announced as a candidate for the position of Police Judge. Thirty-three voters expressed their choice by writing-in candidates as follows: George Groves 13, R. V. Lents 3, M. G. Martin 3, Milton Tritsch 4, Harry Hopper 1, Frank Sayre 1, John Gladwish 1, John Brown 1, Robert Scott 1, Wm. A. Fitzgerald 1, R. B. Taylor 1, Al Davidson 1.

Mrs. Norma Aylor read an article on "Children's Literature."

Mrs. Snell Anderson, live at home chairman, gave a report on care of poultry.

Mrs. Betty Caper, exterior beautification chairman, gave a report on planting your flower bulbs, transplanting shrubs, and gardening in general for this fall season.

The committee to prepare our Christmas menu was appointed. Members are Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Winston and Mrs. Greenwood. The Christmas party gift was not to exceed 50c and each member is asked to bring some kind of canned or cooked food for Christmas gift basket.

Lesson "Planning My Day" was given by Pauline Birch and Mary Smith. All left feeling that to plan their day would save so many steps and we would be able to have more time for our families.

MT. ZION HOMEMAKERS

Mt. Zion Homemakers Club held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Burney Brown, Dixie Highway. After the morning business meeting a delightful covered dish luncheon was served. The group then reassembled for study of the monthly lesson.

Mrs. Frank Dolmaschko spoke on the theme, "Planning My Time." We learned that a good homemaker outlines her duties according to the seasons, selecting jobs to fit the time of year. These then were to be applied to the suitable months, weeks and days.

At the conclusion of this discussion, Mrs. Frank Bresser gave an interesting demonstration on making a corded lamp shade.

Those who attended were Mrs. Frank Domaschko, Mrs. Frank Bresser, Mrs. Roger Maguire, Mrs. Romer Burns, Mrs. Robert Woods, Mrs. David Vols, Mrs. Orville Noel, Mrs. George Reinhart, Mrs. Oscar Hock, and the hostess, Mrs. Burney Brown. We were happy to have as a visitor, Mrs. William Miller.

The next meeting will be our Christmas party to be given at the home of Mrs. Roger Maguire on December 7th.

WOMEN APPRECIATE SEWING SECRETS

Homemakers in Bullitt county have a new appreciation for home sewing since they learned some of the secrets of professional dressmaking said Miss Mary D. Porter, home demonstration agent. As a result of lessons on making a tailored cotton dress, the women reported putting in correctly 209 slide fasteners, making 138 belts with stiffening and 200 without turning them and covering 81 buckles. Eighty-eight hems were finished in the approved manner.

Indicative of the interest in home sewing is that of Mrs. E. E. Popnd of the Mt. Washington Club. She used her improved methods in making 112 garments for herself and family. She also repaired about 100 garments and altered 16 that were readymade.

BUILDING UP SOIL PAYS

Clyde Wilson of Hickman county reported to County Agent Warren Thompson that it has paid him well to build up his soil. Fifteen years ago, a field of 23 acres produced only 150 bushels of corn and one bale of cotton. After using lime, phosphate and fertilizer and seeding legumes and grasses, he has built up the soil until this year his corn crop totaled 1,300 bushels, or an average of 56 bushels to the acre.

SISTERS WIN STATE 4-H CHAMPIONSHIPS

Miss Barbara Ellis, 17, of Boyle County has been named state 4-H club champion in clothing, thereby winning an all-expense-paid trip to Chicago from Nov. 28 to Dec. 3 to attend the National 4-H Club Congress. She is the second member of her family to win that honor, her sister, Jewell Deane, having been clothing champion two years ago.

During the past seven years, Miss Ellis has made 134 garments valued at $667 for herself and members of her family. This year she made a three-piece wool costume for herself consisting of a striped suit and navy blue top coat. She also made a wool suit for her aunt, trousers and shirts for a little brother, and then altered eight garments, in addition to doing other sewing. She has also served as a junior leader of 32 younger 4-H club girls.

A senior in high school this year, Miss Ellis hopes to attend the University of Kentucky in the fall of 1950.

OBITUARY

Charles Arthur Brady, age 78, died Nov. 14, 1949 at the home of his nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardy. Born in Adams County, Ohio, he came to Boone County with his parents when but a small boy. Most of his life was spent in Boone County and for the past 30 years in Petersburg. He has made his home in later years with his nephew.

Mr. Brady was well known and loved by everyone. Lovingly known as Uncle to one and all.

He leaves to mourn his loss, one sister, Mrs. Lyda Bennett, of Aurora; one brother Edward Brady, Aurora. He was the son of Elijah and Sarah Simpson Brady. He leaves a host of relatives and friends. Mr. Brady will be greatly missed in the community, for all who knew him, loved him.

Day by day, he faded slowly
And it caused us untold grief,
As we stood and watched him suffer
Knew we could not give relief.
Then God saw that he was weary,
Saw the hills were hard to climb,
So he gently closed his eyelids.
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

Sadly missed by Betty and Harold Brady. 1t-*

Maybe Your Farm Doesn't Need Liming

THERE'S a good way to find out—have it tested. Dig a V-shaped hole 6 or 8 inches deep with a shovel, spade, or trowel. Then cut a thin slice down one side of the hole and place in a bucket.

Repeat the operation over the entire field so you get at least one sample from each acre. Mix all these samples thoroughly and place not over a pint of the mixture in a clean container. A paper bag, ice cream carton, or glass jar is suitable.

You can find out if your fields need liming by taking or sending the sample to:

Florence

Theo Carpenter was the victim of a painful accident last Wednesday evening. He was unhitching his team of horses from the wagon, and one horse was released when the wagon began rolling backwards, and in some way he was thrown to the ground and dragged a short distance. He received head and face cuts and shoulder injuries. However, he is doing very well at this writing and his friends hope he will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith entertained with a family dinner party Sunday. Guests included were Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Rouse, Ladlow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Carrollton, Mr. and Mrs. Ab Delner, Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Green and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Smith and son Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham, of Park Hills, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dolwick, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Woodward were guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Will Niebording, of Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner entertained relatives from Avondale recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer, of Latonia, were calling on her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Carpenter, Sunday.

Mrs. Carlton Crisler and Mrs. Jane Barth, of Park Ave., entertained with a television party Friday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Irene Renaker, Mrs. John Stephens and Mrs. Lucy Beatty. Delicious refreshments were served and all enjoyed the hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tullis, who were former residents of Florence are now residing on Lexington Ave. They have been living in Winchester the past several years.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, of Covington, were luncheon guests of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Miller, Wednesday.

The Ladies' Auxiliary and the Florence Volunteer Firemen met in a joint meeting at the Fire Hall and Community Center. Following a covered dish buffet supper, each group had a special meeting session—the Firemen to make plans for future entertainment and the Ladies' Auxiliary discussed the forthcoming social in December. The new officers were installed in office following the Auxiliary meeting. Officers taking office were Mrs. Louella Houston, president; Mrs. Clara Scott, vice president; Mrs. Thelma Smith, secretary and Mrs. Garnett Lucas, treasurer. A social hour followed the meeting.

After tile was put in, a field on Millis Newsome's farm in Pike county was plowed, fertilized and sowed to Balbo rye.

CUTS OUT CORN IN FAVOR OF PASTURE

Otto Cann of Marshall county is cutting down sharply on his corn acreage and increasing his pasture program after his experience of the past year. In 1948 he seeded nine acres to Ky. 31 fescue and Ladino clover. Records carefully kept showed that he had $941 left from the sale of his seed crop after hiring all the work done and paying for other expenses. The field this fall is making an excellent pasture for his beef herd, said Graham Wilkins, county soils assistant. In contrast to this field, he has 36 acres of corn which barely paid expenses.

REFINISHES FURNITURE

Mrs. Emery Anderson of Fleming county put to good use the information learned in her homemakers club on furniture refinishing. During the past year she removed the old finish on 14 pieces and refinished them, then seated them with cane or hongkong grass, said Home Agent Kathryn Bebree. Mrs. Anderson was a project leader in the Woodlawn Homemakers Club.

LAMB-ON-PASTURE CONTEST EXTENDED

The 1949-50 Kentucky lamb-on-pasture contest is announced from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. Its purpose is "to demonstrate the most profitable practices in lamb production and thereby create greater interest in sheep-raising." Emphasis is placed on the number of pounds of lamb produced per ewe and on economy of production through finishing the lambs on pasture.

The contest includes individual flock competition on a state-wide basis, flocks to range in size from 20 ewes up. There also will be competition among counties. See a county agent for details.

In addition to cash awards, there will be bronze certificates for farmers who produce a flock average of 100 to 109 pounds of lamb an ewe; silver certificates for flock-owners producing 110 to 119 pounds of lamb an ewe, and gold certificates for owners of flocks which produce 120 pounds or more of lamb an ewe. Entries may be made through Dec. 31.

Five hundred and one flocks in 32 counties were entered in this year's contest, according to Richard C. Miller of the college. Winners will be announced at the Farm and Home Convention in Lexington in January.

60 BOTTLES OF HADACOL PAY BIG DIVIDENDS
Robert Meaux, Box 182, Airport Road, Lafayette, La., has taken more than 60 bottles of HADACOL in the past four years and he considers his HADACOL money brought rich dividends because today he is happy, healthy and able to do any kind of work while two years before taking HADACOL he was unable to do work of any kind.

"I was first taken with stomach sickness eight years ago," said Mr. Meaux. "I was so run down that my friends did not even know me. For two years I was unable to do work of any kind. My food did not agree with me. I suffered digestive disturbances. I had difficulty sleeping and my chest seemed to be stopped up most of the time.
Mr. Meaux
"I thought I would never be able to work again and had just about given up hope when I was advised to take HADACOL. After the second bottle of HADACOL I began to feel better, sleep better and started gaining much needed weight.
"Today at 66 I am a healthy and happy man because I gave HADACOL a trial. I took about 30 bottles of HADACOL the first year, and in the past three years I have taken another 30 bottles of HADACOL to help me stay well."
Mr. Meaux and his son were both suffering from a lack of B Vitamins and the minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.
So it matters not how old you are or who you are . . . it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation HADACOL a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives because HADACOL supplied the vitamins and minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you. Give HADACOL a trial!

Farm Housing Program Started In Boone County

Applications Received At County Office Tuesday Of Each Week.

The farm housing program, authorized by recent Act of Congress, has been started in Boone County. Applications for loans to build or repair farm houses and other farm buildings are being received at the Farmers Home Administration County Office at the courthouse in Burlington, Kentucky, each Tuesday morning from 10:00 a. m. until noon, when a representative of the Farmers Home Administration will be there, according to Samuel T. Harrison, FHA County Supervisor.

Loans may run for a maximum of 33 years, at 4 percent interest, and can be made to farm owners who cannot obtain farm housing loans from their banks or other sources, the supervisor said. Owners who qualify can also get loans for improving housing for their tenants. All loans are subject to approval by the local three member FHA County Committee.

The Housing Act provides for a four-year period of loan making. The appropriation for the current year is $37,000,000 for the entire country. The authorized Congressional appropriation for the four years is $675,000,000. Veterans will receive preference.

Mr. Harrison predicted that most loans will go to farmers with farm earnings and other income enough to repay the loan plus interest without further help from the Government. He expects most loans will be for repairs and remodeling rather than for new construction. A loan may also be made to a farm owner whose income is not now considered adequate to repay the loan on schedule, if his income can be made sufficient by enlarging or developing his farm and by improving his farm enterprises. If the owner follows a previously agreed upon plan for making needed revisions, the Government will help him on his payments if necessary during the first five years. Assistance given farmers under the Housing Act for "decent, safe, and sanitary farm dwellings will help meet a long-felt need in rural areas. Recent figures on the number of farm housing failing to meet this standard are not available but evidence indicates that the number is large.

According to the 1940 census, 2½ to 3 million farm houses fell below this standard. The Census showed that 10 percent of farm houses were over-crowded, 66 percent lacked electric lighting, 72 percent running water, 80 percent a private flush toilet and 88 percent a private bath.

In the 9 years since the Census was taken, there has been a good deal of improvement in the housing on many farms. Surveys made by BAE in 1947 indicated that new houses were being built on 240,000 of our 6 million farms. Nearly a fourth of the farmers interviewed were doing some building or repair work on their dwellings. Nevertheless, more than two-thirds of the farm houses still lacked running water, four-fifths a bath and flush toilet, two-fifths lack electric lights and a tenth were overcrowded.

A representative of the Farmers Home Administration will be glad to explain the program to any interested person at any time.

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 76 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1949 NUMBER 31

Large Majority Of Burley Growers Favor 3-Year Quotas

Results Show Approximately 92 Percent Favor Continuing Quotas.

Boone County Burley tobacco growers favored continuing marketing quotas on the crop for a three-year period by a 18 to one vote in the referendum held Saturday, November 26th.

The result of the referendum was announced by W. M. Smith, chairman of the county PMA committee, who reported that 659 votes were cast for quotas for three years, 31 for a quota for one year only, and 40 against quotas.

In percentages, the quota vote in Boone county was 90 per cent for 3 year quotas, 4 percent for 1 year quota ,and 6 percent against quotas.

Latest available figures on the results of the referendum throughout the Burley belt show that growers favor continuing quotas for three years by approximately 92 percent. A two-third favorable vote is required to continue quotas.

With these preliminary returns indicating that quotas for Burley tobacco will be continued, Burley growers will be assured of price support loans at 90 percent of parity, Mr. Smith said.

Burley Prices Are Slightly Lower Than One Year Ago

Average Well Above Government Support Levels, Is Word.

An average price of $45.39 a hundredweight was reported from 20 houses in the burley belt for the opening-day sales. The opening-day average in 1948 was $49.45. In most instances, however, the average was well above government support levels.

The drop in average was believed due largely to a lower government support price. The support this season is set at $40.30 a hundredweight, $2.10 below last season's support level.

The Covington Independent Warehouse, Erlanger, having opening sales Monday reported tobacco bringing six to eight cents above support prices, with prices remaining steady throughout the day. Finest quality tobacco brought $60 a hundredweight, and the lowest basket selling for $16.

Prices on local warehouse floors are expected to remain steady, due to the smoking quality of the leaf being offered.

Burlington Eagles Take State Championship Title In Thanksgiving Game

By Score of 54-0 In Shrine Game At Stoll Field, Lexington.

The Burlington High School Eagle football team brought the school's first state championship trophy home Thanksgiving Day when they soundly trounced the Lebanon Junction six-man team, champions of the Central Kentucky Conference, by a 54-0 score in the annual shrine-sponsored game at Stoll Field, Lexington.

The Eagles looked and played the part of champions despite the almost continual downpour of rain which made the playing field a "muddy lake." Coach Walton's Blue and White opened the scoring in the first quarter on an unexpected pass from Ryle to McBee on the 30 yard stripe. The extra points failed. Later in the opening period Walton scored from the 25 yard line on a reverse. A pass was good for the extra point and the Eagles led 13-0 at the quarter stop.

The second quarter saw both teams slowed by the mud and blinding rain. Neither team could push over even though the Eagles racked seven first downs in the quarter.

The winners lost little time after the halftime intermission in showing their offensive power. Ryle, Walton and Cropper rang up TDs as Kelly took two passes from Ryle for extra points and Rouse snagged another for the third extra point of the period. In the final quarter the Eagles pushed over three more touchdowns and two extra tallies. McBee, Ryle and Jones scored on runs and Ockerman and McBee scored the extra points.

Warning Issued By Dr. Bruce Underwood Concerning Tularemia

"The opening of the rabbit hunting season in Kentucky last week was accompanied by increased danger from tularemia," reminds Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Commission of Health. Although the germ causing tularemia, more commonly known as rabbit fever, has been found in other small animals, wild rabbits are the most common source of human infection.

Tularemia germs usually enter the body in one of two ways—through the mouth, if poorly cooked infected meat is eaten, or thru cuts and scratches on the hands when rabbits are cleaned and prepared for cooking. Thorough cooking and enough heat will destroy any germs in the meat. Rabbits should be cooked long enough so that no blood or red meat remains. Rubber gloves should always be worn when dressing a rabbit, and, if the internal organs show small white spots, the animal should be burned or buried. The fur of diseased rabbits may also be infectious, so hunters should not handle rabbits they shoot without gloves. Hunters and members of their families are those most frequently exposed to the disease, since domestic rabbits have not been shown to be a source of infection.

People are urged to be very careful in handling wild rabbits, as tularemia is a serious disease, resulting occasionally in death. If there is any reason to suppose you or a member of your family have been infected, call your physician at once.

Just Let Me Tell You A Few Facts About Walking, So You'll Realize Just How Much It Can Do For You

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The normal heart, you know, beats about seventy-two times a minute and pumps about six ounces of blood with each beat. Now, in fast walking, or at the rate of four miles an hour—(which is how fast you should walk to do you some good)—you'll find the normal heart will INCREASE its beat ten times will INCREASE its pumping six ounces of blood at each beat, gives sixty ounces per minute or 3000 an hour, which is 225 pounds. You can easily see that 225 ADDITIONAL pounds of blood pumped DAILY through your veins means just that much more life to your whole body.

There's no use of my telling you to get out and walk if you are having trouble with your feet, because I know you won't do it. BUT—if I tell you how to get rid of those aching, paining feet, first—then there's nothing to keep you from walking every day and benefitting your health by this wonderful exercise.

It has also been found that millions suffer without knowing the reason why—those headaches, those leg pains, and even sleepless nights may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

Finds Life Worth Living After He Takes Hadacol

Al D. Engles, a retired construction worker of 503 Dennis St., Houston, has changed his mind and again believes that life is worth living. There was plenty of darkness before light for Mr. Engles and he would not feel like a new man today if a friend had not rented him a room in his home and showed him how HADACOL would help him.

Al D. Engles

Mr. Engles had been in the hospital for 35 days two years ago with pneumonia and soon was a beaten, despondent man. He was nervous, could not sleep, his food did not agree with him, he suffered digestive disturbances, gas, bloating and pains in the stomach. He lost so much weight that friends sometimes did not even recognize him. He also suffered with rheumatic pains of neuritis.

"To say life was not worth living was putting it rather mildly," said Mr. Engles. "I just figured life was over and the remaining time would be a nightmare on earth."

The fact that he is a changed man today is due to a chance meeting with an old friend. The friend had been unable to work for a year but Mr. Engles was amazed to find him feeling fine and on the job every day. When Mr. Engles expressed amazement at the change the friend urged him to come home with him and see how HADACOL was bringing him relief every day.

"I was impressed by my friend's sincerity and had taken so many remedies that I was willing to try anything," said Mr. Engles. "I went home with my friend and started taking HADACOL just as he did. After taking several bottles of HADACOL I felt better than at any time in years."

Mr. Engles is just one of the countless thousands who found relief through HADACOL. He suffered from a lack of B Vitamins and Minerals which HADACOL contains. Many persons who suffered and waited and hoped for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able to live happy, comfortable lives again.

A WORKING TEAM made for each other!

The JOHN DEERE Model "M"

Equipped with the INTEGRAL 2-WAY PLOW

Like a happily-wedded couple, the John Deere Model "M" Tractor and integral two-way plow are "made for each other."

Prove it for yourself. See this team at work. Note how simple it is to do a good job of plowing right from the seat. The powerful, sure-footed Model "M" pulls right along . . . does the work faster and easier than ever before. Touch-o-matic control assures effortless raising and lowering of the plow from the tractor seat. The plow, with its strong Truss-Frame construction and ample clearance, combines with the "M" to make this a working pair that means good plowing in record time.

Remember—the Model "M" teams up with a wide variety of matched working equipment, making it the best all-round value for your tractor dollar. See us for details.

tion agent, in her annual report. Two hundred and fifty-four women enrolled for lessons in home management.

HOMEMADE DRYERS HELP SAVE CORN

County Agent S. H. Phillips tells how Harlan county farmers made corn dryers from materials found about the place. Much corn in the county was picked during rainy weather and so was in danger of decaying after it was stored.

Bill Hayes used an old blacksmith forge, powered by a three-fourths horsepower motor. In 40 hours he dried 60 bushels of corn at a cost of about $2.80. This insures mold-free feed for his dairy herd.

GARDEN IS PROFITABLE

Lester Morrow of McCreary county produced approximately $448 worth of vegetables from six-tenths of an acre, he told Farm Agent George D. Corder. He did it by applying 600 pounds of 5-10-5 fertilizer and 18 tons of manure at a cost of $77.50. From his garden plot, he harvested 137 bushels of Irish potatoes, 26 bushels of green beans and 73 bushels of corn.

Interest in registered dairy herds is high in Spencer county, 30 registered cows having been bought last month by nine dairymen and 4-H'ers.

Walton Man Loses Life In Ohio River Sunday Morning

Small Boat Capsizes Three Hundred Yards Off Big Bone Island

Ella E. Hopperton, 50, Walton, Ky., drowned early Sunday morning in the Ohio River after the small boat in which he and a companion Arnold Velkey, of Newport, capsised.

Efforts of two Covington men to rescue the pair of duck hunters after the boat capsised were only half rewarded. The tragedy occurred about 300 yards off shore at Big Bone Island.

Del Krebs, 306 Bond St., Covington and Pat McDonald, 317 Altamont Road, Covington, who were preparing to hunt in the area, heard cries from the river and sped to the rescue in their small boat. the rescuers lost an oar in attempting to reach the victims, but finally reached their goal.

Due to the size of the rescue boat, which would accommodate only two persons, Hopperton was strapped to the motor. McDonald held Velkey above the water while Krebs, an Enquirer printer, attempted to row the disabled, overloaded craft to shore.

It was an hour and one-half later that the boat reached shore, meantime having drifted about four miles downstream. The victims were dragged onto the river bank where artificial respiration failed to revive Hopperton.

The rescuers ran to a nearby farmhouse and summoned a physician. Gallatin County Coroner Alouis Carlton attributed death to drown.

Hopperton was well known thruout Boone County, and was owner and operator of an electrical appliance shop in Walton. He was a member of the Walton Rotary Club, Walton Volunteer Fire Department and the Union Baptist Church.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alberta C. Hopperton; two daughters, Linda Louise and Sheila Mae Hopperton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie H. Hopperton, all of Walton; two sisters, Mrs. Alexander Connelly, Cincinnati and Mrs. Elmo Menifee, Fiskburg, Ky., and a brother, Harry Wayne Hopperton, Aurora, Ill.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Union Baptist Church, with Rev. T. C. Crume officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Chambers & Grubbs, Walton funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

G. P. Summers Discusses 1950 Farm Outlook At Meeting

Agricultural Prices Are Dropping Faster Than Other Commodities.

The Boone County Extension Advisory Committee met on Wednesday, November 30th to hear the 1950 Agricultural and Home Economics Outlook as discussed by G. P. Summers and Ida Hagan, specialists from the University of Kentucky.

Mr. Summers explained that all prices were on the decline, but as usual agricultural prices were dropping faster than other commodities and would continue to do so. This means of course a smaller net profit for the farmer. Farmers must use the most economical production practices if reasonable profits are to be expected this year.

Demand for Agricultural commodities will remain strong this year due to (1) higher wage rates in 1950, (2) $3,000,000,000 insurance payments to veterans, (3) $5,000,000,000 government deficit for the past year.

The six basic agricultural commodities will be supported at 90% of parity in 1950. These six basic commodities are corn, wheat, cotton, rice, tobacco and peanuts. Some of the non-basic commodities such as potatoes, honey, wool and dairy products will be supported at a lower per cent of parity.

Much concern is exhibited over the support price of agricultural commodities by consumers. Arguments are presented that these support prices are the cause of high consumer costs. In reality labor and processing costs and profits take a large part of consumer prices.

For instance, the farmer receives 11% of the consumer price of tobacco, 70% of the consumer price of meat, 7% of the consumer price of apples, 50% of the consumers price of dairy products and 20% of the consumer price of potatoes.

Mrs. Amanda Tanner

Mrs. Amanda Tanner 93, a lifelong resident of Boone County died Tuesday at the home of a daughter Mrs. August Dringenburg, with whom she made her home.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Thursday at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger, with Rev Herman Andres officiating. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery.

Walton Bearcats Chalk Up Two Victories In Week

Burlington, Florence and Hebron Suffer Defeat By Out-of-County Teams

The basketball season slipped up into high gear last week when all county teams took part in one or more contests. Scores were as follows:

Burlington 41, Silver Grove 34.
Crittenden 46, Hebron 33.
Lloyd 53, Florence 46.
Lloyd 48, Burlington 41.
Walton 43, Florence 32.
Newport 67, Hebron 36.

Burlington's Eagles showed a lack of pre-season practice and they also showed some signs of "good ground attack" in their even split of games with Silver Grove's Big Trains and Lloyd Juggernauts. The Eagles, paced by Gayle Rouse, with 12 points, and Johnny Cropper with 11 trimmed Silver Grove by a 41-34 score at the loser's floor last Tuesday night. The Eagles played an outstanding defensive game during the first half as they held the rejuvinated Trains to nine points at the midway stop. McBee and Cave were the defensive giants of the contest. Futscher of Silver Grove took scoring honors of the night with 14 point.

The Eagles had more than their hands full against Erlanger Lloyd last Friday night at the Kenton County school and consequently ended up on the short end of a 48-41 score. Burlington led at the quarter 13-10 but fell behind 24-19 at the half. Lloyd increased their lead to 36-26 at the three quarters. Jones led the winners with 16 points and Jim Ryle paced the losers with 14. The contest was hard fought and extremely rough. Erlanger seconds won 33-17.

Cards Lose Two

Chuck Ransler's Hebron Cards lost to two strong out-of-county fives last week. Crittenden's Bulldogs, leaders of the Penogran Conference defeated the Cards by a 46-33 score at Hebron last Tuesday night. The winners led throughout, holding leads of 14-5, 20-17 and 32-27 at the first three stops. Cook led the winners with 15 points and Tanner had nine for Hebron. Crittenden also won the reserve contest 21-19.

Newport's strong Wildcat team hung a 67-36 defeat on the Cards Friday night at Newport. Newport held quarter leads of 21-6, 38-22 and 48-32. Moeves had 16 points and Knapp 14 for Newport, but Herbstreit took scoring honors with 18 tallies for Hebron. Newport reserves won 40 to 10.

Knights Drop Two

The Florence Knights dropped a couple of fairly close games last week—one to Lloyd by a 53-46 score and one to Walton's Bearcats 43-32.

The first quarter ended in a nine-all deadlock but Lloyd led at the half 21-16. Lloyd outscored Florence 21-11 in the third period to hold a 42-27 lead going into the last quarter. Jones paced the winners with 17 points and Markesbery had 20 for Florence. Erlanger's reserves won 30-18.

The Knights suffered their first Boone Conference loss Friday night when the strong Bearcats of Walton trimmed them by a 43-32 count at the Knight floor. The quarter ended 10-6 in favor of the Cats but Florence took a halftime lead of 21-18. The winners pulled to a 30-25 lead at the third quarter stop. Johnson had ten points for the winners and Roland and C. A. England had eight each for Florence. Walton won the reserve contest 40-23.

Cats Trim Pioneers

The Bearcats trimmed the Simon Kenton Pioneers by a 52-41 score at Walton last Tuesday night. Walton's offense was supplied by Maddox, Vest and Johnson with 13, 12 and 11 points respectively. Coppage had ten for the losers. The Simon Kenton reserves won 30-29.

The Gallatin County Wildcats poured a 96-28 defeat on the New Haven Tigers Friday night at New Haven. Quarter scores were 23-8, 46-19, and 69-23 with Gallatin County leading all the way. The visitor's reserves also won 35-15.

First Week Of Burley Sales Shows Slight Price Decline

During the first five days of auctions for the 1949 Burley tobacco crop a gross volume of $8,012,008 pounds brought an average of $44.92 per hundred. The Federal-State Market News Service reports the poundage as slightly over 53 million smaller than for the first week last year and the average $3.60 less. Shorter selling time was responsible for the reduction in the volume. Losses in average prices for grades, plus lower quality of the offerings, lowered the general average.

Prices for grades, as compared with the first week last season, show a large number averaged from $1.00 to $3.50 less. The losses were general with the larger declines centered on low and fair left and tips. A few grades displayed slight gains of $1.00 to $2.00 or were unchanged. With the exception of most fair to good lugs and flyings of buff and tan color and some lower quality dark red tips, all grades averaged well above their support prices. These were only $1.00 to $2.00 above. It was estimated that delliveries to the Associations under the Government loan program were slightly over 7 percent of the baskets sold. Last year during the first week about 12 percent of the baskets were consigned.

Sales began on Monday, November 28, with the markets selling 3 hours per day per set of buyers. At a meeting of the Burley Sales Committee on Saturday it was voted to increase selling time to 3½ hours. The new schedule was applicable Monday to the entire area. Tennesee markets have the option of either adopting the new schedule or continuing to sell as previously.

Marketing Card Pointers Given Burley Growers

Attention of Producers Called To Responsibility In Accepting 1949 Card.

The Kentucky State PMA Committee has asked that the attention of all tobacco producers be called to the responsibility assumed in accepting the marketing card for the 1949 crop of tobacco.

You will note on the front cover of the card the instructions, "This card should not be left in the possession of a buyer." For this purpose a buyer is defined as any person who actually purchases your tobacco in any manner other than at auction over an auction warehouse floor. This means that when you deliver your tobacco to an auction warehouse floor for sale by you at auction, that you may leave your marketing card since the warehouseman is acting as your agent and in that respect is not a buyer of your tobacco.

If you desire to sell your crop to a speculator or a pinhooker, you should present your marketing card to him, and request that an entire memorandum of sale be removed and that the bill of nonwarehouse sale on the reverse side be executed. The buyer should show the estimated or actual number of pounds purchased and the amount paid for the tobacco. The bill of nonwarehouse sale should be signed by you and the buyer and dated. The buyer should make a notation on the inside front cover of your marketing card showing the pounds purchased and his name. He should retain the bill of nonwarehouse sale and leave the marketing card in your possession.

Your marketing card should be presented to the warehouseman at the time your tobacco is delivered. Failure to deliver the marketing card before your tobacco is sold will cause your crop to be ineligible for price support loans.

All marketing cards should be returned to the County office after your crop is sold.

A WORKING TEAM made for each other!

The JOHN DEERE Model "M"

Equipped with the INTEGRAL 2-WAY PLOW

Like a happily-wedded couple, the John Deere Model "M" Tractor and integral two-way plow are "made for each other."

Prove it for yourself. See this team at work. Note how simple it is to do a good job of plowing right from the start. The powerful, sure-footed Model "M" pulls right along . . . does the work faster and easier than ever before. Touch-o-matic control assures effortless raising and lowering of the plow from the tractor seat. The plow, with its strong Truss-Frame construction and ample clearance, combines with the "M" to make this a working pair that means good plowing in record time.

Remember—the Model "M" teams up with a wide variety of matched working equipment, making it the best all-round value for your tractor dollar. See us for details.

Florence

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter enjoyed a pleasant day Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Viola Ruth and Mr. Ruth of near Walton.

Services were held Thursday from the Tallaferro funeral home Erlanger for Mrs. Amanda Tanner 93, who succumbed at the home of a daughter, Mrs. August Dringenburg. Mrs. Tanner, a lifelong resident of Boone County leaves two other daughters, Mrs. A. G. Beemon and Mrs. Clyde Anderson, eight grandchildren eleven great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Rev. Herman Andres was the officiating minister and burial was in Hopeful Cemetery. Sympathy of the community is extended the family in their loss.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Florence Christian Church will present a splendid program on Woman's Day, Friday, Dec. 9th at 7:45 p. m. Rev. Claude McDonald of the Petersburg Christian Church will be the guest speaker and Paul Chaney will be guest soloist. An interesting story of the Missionary Society will be given by the past presidents, Mrs. Kitty McHenry, Mrs. Lillian Schram and Mrs. Helen Rybolt. The public is cordially invited to hear this outstanding program.

We wish to correct an item in our news of last week which stated that Mrs. Marie Kinman and father and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner visited Mr. and Mrs. Robt. West, of Louisville. It should have read Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Benson instead of R. E. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Keyer were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis K. Souther are enjoying a new Dodge car.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markesbery called on Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, of Constance, Sunday.

W. Keene Souther and daughter, Mrs. Rogers Knox enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Floyd of Akron, O.

Sterling Rouse has built an addition to his applehouse to provide storage for his large crop of apples.

Mrs. Myrtle Hoffman has returned from Booth Hospital following a minor operation and is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Davis, of Sanders Drive.

85, 45 OR EVEN 3, HADACOL HELPS ALL AGE GROUPS

HADACOL is good for all ages, bringing five of nature's B vitamins and important minerals to the young and old alike. Recently the HADACOL folks received the good news that among the countless thousands who had been benefited by HADACOL was a lady of 85,

Mrs. Edmond Doucet, of Church Point, La., is 85 years old, having thousands of friends in the picturesque Evangeline section of Louisiana where she was born and has spent all of her life. These friends are happy to know that Mrs. Doucet feels better now than at any time in two years and gives the credit to HADACOL.

MRS. DOUCET

"I had been sick for almost two years and was suffering with gastric disturbances and bloating. I was run down, had lost weight and had to stay in bed most of the time. I lost courage and felt that there was no hope for me."

Mrs. Doucet had tried many preparations without apparent beneficial results when she heard the glorious news about HADACOL.

"After taking several bottles of HADACOL I felt like a new person," said Mrs. Doucet. "I eat anything I want without ill effects and sleep well. I feel much stronger."

Mrs. Doucet was suffering from a lack of B vitamins and the minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away. It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

So it matters not how old you are or who you are ... it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation HADACOL a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives because HADACOL supplied the vitamins and minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you! Give HADACOL a trial!

McVille

Miss Mary E. Fresser attended and took part on the F. H. A. of Northern Kentucky program, held at Highland High School, Ft. Thomas, last Saturday.

Mrs. Robert McNeely entertained the Y. W. A. girls at her new home here in McVille on last Saturday afternoon. Those present were Loretta White, Louise White, Emma M. Rogers, Agnes Stephens, Mary Stephens, Alice Ruth Eggleston, Kathryn Bates, Thelma Rogers, Betty McNeely and their leader Bora Scott.

Mrs. Orville Sebree and children spent a part of last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ryle, while Mr. Sebree is still a patient in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Bagby and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wallace and children.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

A too-often neglected vegetable is parsnips, especially sweet after a freeze. Although they may be creamed or fried, Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, recommends they be prepared in this way to serve with roast beef.

Baked Parsnips

Six medium sized parsnips, 3 tablespoons brown sugar, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, three-fourths teaspoon salt. Wash the parsnips thoroughly, then cook in their skins in a small amount of salted water until tender. Drain and peel. Quarter and place in a baking dish. Add sugar and butter, and bake for 15 minutes in a medium oven, 375 degrees, or until slightly brown. Serves 4.

Menu: Roast beef, string beans, baked parsnips, congealed fruit salad, bread, butter and mince pie.

Infantile Paralysis Director Will Speak At Florence Friday

March of Dimes For Polio Fund Will Be Discussed At Meeting.

Inez K. Ligon, director of the Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., has announced a meeting will be held at 7 p. m. Friday, December 16th, at the Community Center, in Florence.

The March of Dimes for the polio fund will be discussed at the meeting.

"In looking toward the 1950 March of Dimes in Kentucky, we are faced with the problem of raising sufficient funds to carry the program through the next year.

"I am sure you are familiar with the polio situation in Kentucky this year and the fact that of the more than 650 cases, at least 90 per cent have been paralyzed which means they will require care and treatment for many months and some for years.

Garden Club Closes Program For 1949

The club voted to buy two new books for the library, one on African violets, the other a flower show annual. Members also voted not to have meetings during July and August. There is no meeting in January, so this leaves nine meetings for the year. The club feels that more members will be able to attend the year's program with just the nine meetings. The meeting date was also changed to the third Tuesday for a trial period. The next meeting will be February 21st.

Next year there will be several lessons on "Flower Arrangements." Those interested should plan to attend.

Members present at the December meeting were Mesdames Geo. Kottmyer, Oliver Kottmyer, Sam Denham, Sr., Roy Lutes, E. Abbott, Grant Maddox, L. D. Rennecker, W. Fullerton, Geo. Morith, R. C. Garrison, F. Dempsey, Harold Conner, R. H. Carter, Wm. Fitzgerald, Ralph Cody and three visitors Mesdames Williams, Hollis and West.

Plan to attend all nine meetings in 1950. Visitors welcome.

Hebron Cardinals Upset Burlington Quint Friday 37-34

Walton Bearcats Remain Undefeated In Season Play.

Boone County basketball teams were featured in some upset games as well as some disappointing games last week and the coming week's card, which is a heavy one, will begin to sort the "sheep" from the "goats." From this point in the season's play it appears that the Bearcats of Walton are the class of the Boone Conference as well as the "dark horses" of the entire region. Biggest disappointments of the week were Florence's showing against Simon Kenton and Burlington's defeat at the hands of an inspired Hebron Cardinal quint.

Dixie 63, Hebron 30.

Simon Kenton 73, Florence 47.

Florence 54, Falmouth 52.

Hebron 37, Burlington 34.

Coming Games

Dec. 13 Morgan at Burlington.

Dec 13 Simon Kenton at New Haven.

Dec. 13 Hebron at Bellevue..

Dec. 13 Florence at Ludlow.

Dec. 16 Burlington at Walton.

Dec 16 New Haven at Hebron.

Dec. 16 Florence at Campbell County.

Dec. 19 Hebron at St. Henry.

Dec. 20 Florence at Burlington.

The Eagles had quarter leads of 10-8, 19-17 and 27-26 but the Cards outscored the losers 11-7 in the final period for their margin of victory. The game was extremely costly to the Eagles in that they lost their strongest defensive man, at present highest scorer, for at least another month when Bill McBee was injured during a halftime warmup. The Eagle captain received a severe ankle sprain.

For the winning Cards Tanner and Herbstreit divided 21 points and for Burlington McBee and Cave had 22 points. Hebron's reserves won 20-16.— In the Dixie-Hebron game McGlasson led the Card offensive with 10 points while True with 19, Reinhart with 15 and Hatfield with 12 paced the Dixie attack. Dixie's reserves won 31-11.

Florence Splits

Chuck Henderson's Florence Knights split in their last two games, losing to Simon Kenton 73-47 and winning from Falmouth 54-52. The Knights got off to a bad start against the Pioneers and could never overcome the one-man show show staged by Gene Coppage of the winners. Coppage scored 30 points in a little more than one-half of the game he played. Quarter scores were 14-5, 36-16 and 56-31 with the Pioneers leading all the way. Irvin added 14 for Simon Kenton while Markesbery and Roland split 32 points for Florence. Simon Kenton won the reserve battle 40-18.

The Knights led throughout in their victory over the Red Devils of Falmouth last Friday night at Falmouth. Paced by Roland, the winners held rest leads of 14-7, 23-21, and 43-35. Parker had 23 for the losers. The home team seconds won 37-27.

Tigers Lose

Covington Catholic swamped New Haven by a 65-16 count last Tuesday at the winner's court. The Catholics took a 22-9 quarter lead and were never threatened. Roland, Foltz and Bessler had 18, 14 and 10 points, respectively, for the winners and Flynn had six for New Haven. Covington's reserves won 31-16.

The Tigers lost Friday night to Walton by a 69-19 score at New Haven. Walton took an early lead and were never threatened. Vest and Maddox led the winner's attack. The Bearcat reserves also won.

21-Passenger Bus In Operation On Burlington Bus Line

Seven Round Trips Made Daily From Belleview To Erlanger.

Claude Patterson, operator of the Burlington Bus Line, has recently placed in operation a new 21-passenger bus, which adds much to the convenience of patrons.

The bus line has been in operation since March 20, 1949, makes seven round trips daily from Belleview to Erlanger, connecting with the Dixie Traction Co. at Florence and Erlanger. Passengers riding the bus to Erlanger are assured of making immediate connection for downtown buses, never having to wait more than five minutes.

This service is very beneficial to this section of Boone County, and deserves the support of every citizen along the route.

Mr. Patterson now has two buses in operation, and is giving the best of service. Many persons are benefitted by this service and depend solely upon it for their transportation.

In an interview with Mr. Patterson, he stated that there are a few discouraging points concerning the bus line. He stated that many times passengers waiting for the bus are being picked up by motorists who are immediately in front of the bus. This practice is causing a decrease in revenue of the line, and therefore it should be discontinued. He also stated that many persons who are employed in Covington and Cincinnati are obtaining transportation in private automobiles. This practice coupled with many more are reducing the number of bus riders.

Mr. Patterson urges all along his route to contact him for bus transportation. His rates are reasonable and his service is dependable.

Many thousands of dollars are invested in the bus line, and without the support of this entire section, it cannot be operated profitably. Mr. Patterson, business and professional men urge the cooperation of everyone in the support of this project.

Lunch will be served at noon and those who bring basket lunches are asked to bring sandwiches, pie and salad. The rest of the dinner will be served by the church. Like a happily wedded couple, the John Deere Model "M" Tractor and integral two-way plow are "made for each other."

Prove it for yourself. See this team at work. Note how simple it is to do a good job of plowing right from the start. The powerful, sure-footed Model "M" pulls right along . . . does the work faster and easier than ever before. The plow, with its strong Truss-Frame construction and ample clearance, combines with the "M" to make this a working pair that means good plowing in record time.

Remember—the Model "M" teams up with a wide variety of matched working equipment, making it the best all-round value for your tractor dollar. See us for details.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Traffic Hazard Will Be Eliminated In County Seat

Stops Signs Will Be Erected and Crosswalks Painted By State Dept.

For some time business men and citizens of Burlington have talked about the dangerous traffic condition at the intersection of Washington and Jefferson Streets in the center of town, where several accidents and near accidents have occurred and where several children as well as adults have barely escaped injury from automobiles. Automobiles have been traveling thru town on Highway 18 at a dangerous speed.

Like the weather, everybody talked about it but no one did anything until one business man took it upon himself to see what could be done and requested the Highway Department to make a survey.

Last week a representative of the State Highway Department paid a visit to Burlington and displayed much interest in Burlington's traffic condition. He stated that the travel did not warrant a stop light in the center of town and that if it were feasible the town would be required to maintain the light.

He stated he would recommend to the Highway Department that four stop signs be installed high enough so that drivers could see these signs over the top of parked automobiles, stopping traffic going in all directions, as it approached this insection, and that signs located several hundred feet in each direction from the intersection, be placed, calling the attention of drivers that a stop sign was ahead.

In addition to this, walk lanes would be painted at the crossings, which would call attention of drivers to the rights of pedestrians at this intersection, and also paint yellow lines in the center of the streets, as they approach the center of town, so that a driver knows he must stay on his side of the road in making turns and not cut corners on the wrong side of the street.

This would appear to be a possible solution of our traffic problem in the center of Burlington, rather than have a traffic light, and would not slow traffic too much when no traffic is approaching from the opposite direction.

All of us have observed motorists standing waiting for a traffic light to change when no traffic was moving in the opposite direction. The plan proposed for Burlington eliminates waiting and yet places the motorist on guard to come to a stop before entering the intersection and will stop speeding through the center of town on Highway 18. Heretofore there have been no stop signs on Highway 18 in town, but there are signs on the street leading into Highway 18, but the Highway representative stated that these signs were placed too low and could not be easily observed. These new stop signs will be reflector type and easily seen at night.

The representative stated that the above would be his recommendation to the Highway Department at Frankfort and would, of course, have to meet with its approval.

We have at least gotten a favorable hearing and, in the language of some of our men around town, we may "get something done."

Bearcats Continue Winning Streak; Remain Undefeated

Burlington, New Haven, Hebron and Florence Suffer Defeats.

Walton's Bearcats continued undefeated in last week's basketball play to run their record to 8-0 for the season, Burlington's Eagles ran their string of losses to four, the Knights of Florence lost two games, Hebron split in two games and New Haven dropped another. Scores of the games were:

Morgan 56, Burlington 48.
Simon Kenton 78, New Haven 37.
Bellevue 56, Hebron 37.
Ludlow 81, Florence 57.
Walton 49, Burlington 30.
Hebron — New Haven—.
Campbell County 47, Florence 38.

The Eagles took it on the chin twice during the past week at the hands of Moorgan's Raiders and the Walton Bearcats. It marked the fourth straight loss for the local team—the same number of defeats the team suffered during the entire 1948-49 campaign. In the Morgan contest it was just a case of too much and too good shooting on the part of the Raiders. Adams with 19 points and Faulkner with 15 paced the winners. Jim Ryle led the local quint with 20 points and Bill Cave added ten.

In the Eagle-Bearcat fray it was just too much Vest. The scrappy little Walton guard led his team to 11-3 quarter margin and a 31-10 halftime count. Vest accounted for 19 of his team's 49 markers. Ryle had 11 and Cave eight points for the losers.

The Burlington reserves won their game agafnst Morgan's seconds by a 21-18 score and lost to Walton's reserves 25-16.

Cards Split

The Hebron Cards had an even split in their two games last week. They lost to Bellevue by a 56-37 count but trounced New Haven by a — to — count to keep their Boone Conference record clear. Quarter scores in the Bellevue game was 13-7, 26-19 and 41-29. In the New Haven contest the Cards took an early lead and were never seriously threatened.

New Haven also got pushed around in their contest with Simon Kenton last Tuesday night. The Pioneers won by a 78-37 score. The score was 19-4 at the quarter and 33-10 at the half. Simon Kenton added 29 points in the third quarter and the Tigers got ten for a period score of 54-20. Berryman had 20 for the winners while Carroll and Flynn evenly divided 22 for the losers. Simon Kenton reserves won 37-18.

Knights Lose Two

The Florence Knights lost two games to tough opposition last week. Ludlow's Panthers drubbed them 81-57 and Campbell County won out by a nine point 47-38 score.

In the Ludlow-Florence game the winners were paced by Nutter (22), Peno (20), Baker (16) and Aynes (12). Roland with 25 and Markesberry with 19 led the Knight attack.

Quarter scores were 19-11, 42-28, and 61-36. The Ludlow reserves took a 29-27 defeat from the little Knights.

In the Campbell County game Roland with 19 and Markesbery with 12 again led the Florence offensive. Campbell County held a 13-10 quarter lead and a 29-17 half advantage. Huber had 13 points for the winners. Campbell County also won the opener between the reserves 23-20.

All Games Standing

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

The December meeting of the Burlington Homemakers was an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Kirtley Cropper, a very gracious hostess on a very festive day—the Christmas party day! Notwithstanding the business was taken care of in the morning. From then on it was all party. The beautiful decorations provided the Christmasy atmosphere for the turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

After the delectable meal Mrs. Walton gave suggestions for Christmas gifts. She had quite an array of pretty, interesting things, yet all were easily made. One of the outstanding suggestions was a Santa Claus door decoration. The rest of the afternoon was spent in playing games and ended with the exchange of Christmas gifts. Eighteen ladies enjoyed this lovely party.

Those present were Mrs. Kirtley Cropper, Mrs. Carroll Cropper, Mrs. Wendell Easton, Mrs. Jeff Siddins, Mrs. R. C. Garrison, Mrs. Thos. Hensley, Mrs. Anna Huey, Mrs. Grover Jarrell, Mrs. J. W. Kelly, Mrs. Kite, Mrs. James Maxwell, Mrs. Lee Roy McNeely, Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mrs. Carroll Rice, Mrs. Pete Stephens, Mrs. Hubert White, Mrs. Alvin Clore, Mrs. Joe Walton.

Mrs Carroll Cropper will be hostess for the January meeting, first Thursday in the month.

—Publicity Chairman.

County Clerk Announces Automobile License Plates Now Available

Those nice, new green and white automobile license plates for 1950 have been shipped to the county clerks, Department of Revenue officials have announced.

C. D. Benson, County Clerk of Boone County, announced this week that the new automobile license tags now available at his office.

Mr. Benson urges automobile and truck owners to bring their 1949 registration paper or transfer when applying for 1950 tags.

With the issue of 1950 plates, Kentucky registration system becomes one of the most modern in the nation. New equipment in the Department of Revenue will promptly locate the record of any car licensed in Kentucky by either name, license number, or motor number. Another historical file will hold an up-to-date record of transfers showing present ownership. These files are being made available to the Kentucky State Police.

Revenue Department officials suggest that every car owner check his motor number against his license certificate and if it does not correspond, to get the county clerk to correct the error. Correct address and the spelling of owner's name is also important. In addition to protection in the event a car is stolen, it will also save delay and embarrassment in the event of an accident or police check for any reason.

The new plates cannot be used until December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ledford, of Hebron were host and hostess to a number of relatives and friends with a surprise party Sunday in honor of the 30th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Crutcher. A number of nice gifts were received, among them a television set from Mr. and Mrs. Ledford. Delicious refreshments were served following which the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Crutcher many more years together.

Here's wishing the Recorder staff, the readers, correspondents, our boys in military service in the U. S. and foreign lands, the Merriest Christmas ever and a New Year of happiness and prosperity.

Let's not forget the pageant "Why the Chimes Rang," to be given at the Florence Christian Church Dec. 21st at 8:00 p. m. The community is cordially invited to attend.

Sympathy of the community goes out to the family of Mrs. Fannie Conner who succumbed at Booth Hospital, Tuesday, of last week. Services were held from the 5th funeral home Thursday at 2:30 p. m., with Rev. Roy Johnson and Rev. C. L. Leopard officiating. Mrs. Conner was a lifelong resident of Boone County, and a member of the Burlington Baptist Church. She leaves a son Harold Conner and 2 sisters, Mrs. Nancy Watson and Mrs. Fred Tanner, both of Covington. Interment was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer Sunday at their home in Latonia. Mrs. Carpenter was celebrating a birthday and her friends join in wishing her many happy returns of the day.

The minstrel show "Dottonland," presented by the Fellowship Club of Florence Friday, and Saturday nights at the Florence school auditorium under the direction of Miss Marvel Thompson was very entertaining and enjoyed by all who attended. The cast was composed of local talent and local stars and the acts were well performed. Each one connected with the show is to be commended for giving of their time and talent to make the show a success.

A reminder of the Candlelight Christmas program to be given at the Florence Methodist Church Friday evening, December 23 at 7:30. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Relatives here of George Riley, 84, received information of his passing at his home in Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 13 of a heart condition. He was a brother of the late Chas. W. and Edgar Riley. Mr. Riley was formerly engaged in the lumber business, but had retired from active duty. Surviving are his wife, a sister, Miss Edna Riley, Pasadena, and a brother Thomas of Los Angeles. Sympathy is extended the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalwick, Jr., Barbee Simpson and Rayne Miller, of Park Hills.

Waterloo

Mr. and Mrs. Leecmer Louden were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Louden and family the past week.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Powell the past week were Arthur McDaniel, Gentry Powell and Brady Griffin.

Mrs. Steve McDaniel was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Troy Quicksal, Saturday.

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!
